

Valley Tennis Tournament Swings Into Action Early Today

FIRST MATCHES SET AT 9 P. M.

Twenty one Singles Players and 13 Doubles Teams in Competition

Thirty-one tennis players from widely separated localities in the northwest but including 13 from Salem, will open hostilities in the Willamette Valley tournament this morning at 9 o'clock. There are 21 singles entries and 13 doubles teams. By nightfall the list will narrow down to four singles players and a like number of doubles teams, leaving only the semi-finals and finals for Sunday.

Strictly speaking, hostilities started Friday afternoon, when one match was played. Dr. Edward Lee Russell defeated Don Sanders, 6-3, 6-0.

Because of the extensive entry list, play will be conducted both at the Salem Tennis association courts on the state hospital grounds and at the Willamette university courts today. All of the Sunday matches will be on the association courts.

INTERNATIONAL CUP IS AT STAKE TODAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(AP)—For the tenth time since 1886, Great Britain and the United States will send their foremost riders galloping into action tomorrow for the international cup, emblem of polo supremacy and one of the world's classic trophies of sport.

Official announcement by the rival captains late today confirmed the opening lineup as follows: America—Eric Pedley, California, No. 1; Earle A. S. Hopping, New York, No. 2; Captain Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., New York, No. 3; Frederick Winstan Churchill Guest, New York, back.

Great Britain—Gerald Baldwin, No. 1; Lewis L. Lacey, No. 2; Captain C. T. I. (Pat) Roark, No. 3; Lt. Humphrey Guinness, back.

These selections came as no surprise but confirmed the belief the 22-year old Hopping, youngest of the American team, had won the No. 2 position in a hot four-cornered contest involving the two Texans, Cecil Smith and Rex Williams, as well as another Californian, Elmer Boeske, Jr.

Golfers Listed To Compete in National Event

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The names of 173 golfers from the United States including one territorial possession, England and Canada, were announced today by the United States Golf Association for participation in the 34th national amateur championship to be played at the Merion Cricket club, Haverford, Pa., September 22-27.

Thirty-six holes of qualifying play Monday and Tuesday will reduce the field to 32 to enter the match play Wednesday. After the two 18-hole matches Wednesday, the remainder of the week's play will be at 36 holes.

Takes the Honors

Lawson Little, junior of the Presidio golf club of San Francisco, and the youth who eliminated Johnny Goodman of Omaha after Goodman beat Bobby Jones in last year's amateur tournament, who looms as the bright light in the California state golf championship at Pebble beach this week. Little won the qualifying round and his first match play.

"How About THE Polo?"

By HARDIN BURNLEY

TOMMY HITCHCOCK—WHO LEADS THE U.S. POLO FOUR AGAINST THE BRITISH TEAM THIS WEEK-END.

TODAY the bluest blooded of all sports will be on display at the Meadowbrook Club, Westbury, L. I., when the British and American polo teams start their play for the famed international cup. It is a two-out-of-three match. The last time England won was in 1914, two straight then. The war postponed the next international until 1921. The Americans won then, in 1924, and also in 1927. And they look the strongest this year, don't you know, all this optimistic chatter about British pluck to the contrary notwithstanding.

With Eric Pedley looking as brilliantly as Tommy Hitchcock himself, with Elmer Boeske, Winstan Guest and other shining stars in practice worthy to

DUCKS DOWN IN FIFTH POSITION

Lose Fourth in row to Oaks Crew; Beck Breaks in After Game Gone

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Oakland was from Portland again tonight, 8 to 5, making the fourth successive Beaver defeat of the present series. The visitors rapped out timely hits in the fifth and sixth to amass seven runs off Hank McDonald and Fullerton. Jim Edwards had a bad sixth inning in which Portland scored four runs.

The pleasant putt-putt of outdoor motors emanates from South Mill creek opposite Sweetland field these afternoons (possibly mornings too, but we aren't up) and if the explosions weren't so regular, we might wander over there in quest of the boat races. But it isn't that. Looking back on an exceedingly dry summer and "testing the texture" of an exceedingly hard baked gridiron, athletic authorities at Willamette university have decided that it needs water. So water is being pumped through fire hose and the outdoor motors man the pumps.

The gymnasium is spick-and-span in new paint. Up in Graduate Manager Sparks' office are rows of brand new cleated shoes, headgear, shoulder pads, jerseys and the rest of the equipment, laid out in best sporting goods store style. Everything is ready but the players.

A considerable contingent of these important factors in a football campaign are expected to be on hand Monday for the first day's practice, but most of the veterans are expected to hold the standard Willamette set a year ago, will be missing—temporarily at least. They are delayed by jobs they can't quit, for the most part, and will drift in within the next few days.

"We'll run signals the first day if there are enough men," Coach Spec Keene announces. "We'll get in condition running signals and by the 20th, when we meet Cornwalls, maybe we'll have a hazy idea of a couple of plays."

That about Cornwalls isn't so bad. Wasn't he the guy that surrendered?

But battling O. S. C. 12 days after practice starts is going to be a big assignment. Especially—note with care—when there isn't an experienced passer or backfield man who can punt, in other words a double threat man, to say nothing of a triple threat man, in sight at present.

Still, that's nothing. All of Willamette's assignments are tough this year, because after O. S. C. comes Oregon and the great Dr. Spears, and then the Northwest conference teams will all be "laying out" its members. Just now at the top of the heap, now from Walla Walla is that Whitman is already gluing its eye on November 22 with scarcely a side glance for the rest of the schedule.

So Willamette will have to take each game as it comes. College of Idaho, at home under its own flood lights—a tough nut to crack. Puget Sound, just getting in stride after a new deal in coaches. Linfield with a new coach, Lever, who comes with an enviable reputation from the Myrtle Point high school with years of college experience behind that; Pacific, with Eldon Jenne, pick of Portland's high school mentors and a world of new material. And then Whitman, smarting under its unwanted, but crushing defeat last Thanksgiving day. In front of that array of wet hens is no place for a weak heart.

SULLIVAN TO PLAY LAST GAME SUNDAY

Billy Sullivan, star first baseman of the Salem Senators, will play his last game with the local team Sunday when it meets the Eugene Townies here in the first of the playoff series for the Willamette Valley league championship. Sullivan will be leaving next week to resume his studies at Notre Dame university, where he was a first string player on the varsity baseball team last spring. The son of the famous White Sox catcher may be playing his last game for all time in a Salem uniform, as there is no assurance that he will be back here next summer. However, the fans have hopes, as he will not complete his collegiate career for another year. They expect him to break directly into the big leagues when school days are over.

He is one of the sixty-seven ponies among which "White Blaze," "Manuel" and "Argentina" have almost legendary fame. In America, polo is a sport for millionaires, their sons and rich associates. In England, that game is carried on still by its pioneers—those dashing army officers who take to chukkers as they do to chutney, monacles, whiskey-and-soda, etc., with tea for afternoon interludes. They bring to the international that touch of military cadet, the British manner, the devil-care swank that society ladies do on almost as much as they discuss the latest titbit concerning "Eddie" the Prince, who keeps.

Y. The sun ought to be popping; so let's go over to THE polo court, 104, by King Pasture, Salem, Ore.

FREEMAN WINS WELTER TITLE

Thompson Much Surprised As Referee Indicates he Loses Decision

LEAGUE PARK, Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Tommy Freeman, Cleveland, won the world's welterweight championship tonight when Referee Patsy Haley awarded him the decision at the end of 15 rounds of fighting over Young Jack Thompson of Oakland, Calif., defending titleholder.

Haley did not deliberate a second after the last punch went flying through the air. Thompson appeared to be stunned when Haley grabbed Freeman's arm, raising it in victory. The crowd gasped at the unexpected of the situation and then set loose with tremendous cheer in greeting the new titleholder.

Jimmy Hogan, Erie, Pa., middleweight, outscored Jimmy Smith, Chicago, in four rounds, while Mike Cohen, Cleveland, outpointed Louis Carpenter, Toledo, in six rounds.

MARLOWE SISTERS NATIONAL CHAMPS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The Marlowe sisters, Helen and Mianne, of Boston, today won the national girls tennis double championship at the Philadelphia Cricket club.

In capturing the crown they upset the first seeded doubles team, Dorothy Workman and Carolyn Babcock, also of Los Angeles, 7-5, 6-2.

The sturdy California sisters succeeded another family team, Sarah and Mianne Palfrey of Boston. Helen and Mercedes displayed great tennis. Their stroking was powerful, their team work excellent and both were steady.

In the first set Misses Workman and Babcock ran up a 5-4 lead and in the tenth game had five set points but finally lost the game by a series of nets and the Marlowes evened the count. Helen served and the sisters took the lead at 6-5 and won the next game by breaking service to take the set.

The victors ran through the second set in short order. Miss Workman and Miss Babcock won their two games in service.

Helen Marlowe, runner up last year to Sarah Palfrey for the national girls' singles title, will meet Sarah again tomorrow in the final rounds.

CARDS IDLE, MOVE INTO THIRD PLACE

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The Braves sent the New York Giants down to third place today by handing them a 6 to 4 defeat while the St. Louis Cardinals were idle. It was Boston's third straight victory over the Giants.

New York 4 7 2
Boston 6 13 2
St. Louis 8 10 2
Cincinnati 10 10 2

Native Sons in Semi Finals of State Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, Cal., Sept. 5.—(AP)—On Pebble Beach's ocean-bordered course today four favorites stroked their way to victory to advance to the 36-hole semi-finals of the California amateur golf championship.

In a match that drew a gallery of several hundred persons, Francis Brown of Honolulu, veteran of many golfing wars, decisively defeated young Lawson Little of San Francisco, 5 and 4.

John McHugh of San Francisco, titleholder three times, raced through his quarter final round to swamp Colin Heron, San Jose, 4 and 3.

Lower bracket matches saw Fay Coleman and Harry Eichelberger, Jr., Los Angeles, come through. Coleman had a hard match but finally nosed out Leon Keller, Los Angeles, on the 18th. Eichelberger eliminated Ralph Hoffman, Oakland, 4 and 8.

JOB NEED FOR W. U. MEN; ALL HELP IS APPRECIATED

With Willamette university anticipating the largest freshman enrollment in its history, an unusually large demand is at hand for work for students.

Downtown jobs of any nature paying from $10 to $35 a month are very much desired for incoming freshmen as well as for upper classmen. University authorities promise full cooperation in securing the right person for the job.
