

Ten Year old School Building is to Have First Bell Soon

SCHOOL BELL IS ORDERED

Labish Center Pupils to Hear Clarion Call This Coming Year

LABISH CENTER, Sept. 10.—That "school bells will soon ring" will become a reality to school children in this district for the first time in the ten year's existence of the Labish Center school soon as the school board has authorized the construction of a bell tower for which has been delivered. The bell which will be used was purchased by the board Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Sewell who is employed as housekeeper in Salem spent Sunday at the home of her sister here, Mrs. Charles Hinds.

Kenneth Schrier of Kelso, Wash., is a guest at the Frank Welman home.

A. F. Hayes of the Hayes Labish Farms made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Everett Ornschuch of Liberal who is staying at the E. G. Hornschuch home motored to his home to spend Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boehm and son Clyde motored to Shropshire Sunday. Mrs. John Young, Mrs. Boehm's mother, who has spent several weeks at the Boehm home returned to her home with them.

The weekly cottage prayer meeting will be held Thursday evening at the Earl Harmon home at North Howell.

J. W. McFadden and Miss Esther Huslage of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. McFadden's sister-in-law, Mrs. D. R. Degross, Tuesday afternoon.

The continued showers have been very disappointing to the onion growers who are in the midst of harvest. Many of the onions will have to be turned now before hauling operations can be resumed, as the onions must be dry before being placed in the storage houses.

HAYESVILLE HOMES HAVE MANY GUESTS

HAYESVILLE, Sept. 10.—Professor McMillan of O. S. C. accompanied by his family were guests at the J. Denny home Sunday. Professor and Mrs. McMillan were visitors in Portland last week and Frederick, Jr., and Donald visited with their grandparents.

Miss Ida Denny visited her uncle, Pete Abplanalp at Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Abplanalp is in the hospital in that city where he is taking treatments for cancer and is showing much improvement.

Word has been received here of the death in California of Mrs. Andrew, mother of Tom Andrews, Mrs. Andrews was a former resident of Hayesville, but has been in California for the past year.

Frank Kellogg is in eastern Oregon on business this week. Mrs. Margie Kell was a business visitor in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Berrilla Halbert and Mrs. Charles Reed attended the Baptist association meeting in Salem, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Senator Lloyd Reynolds is starting his prairie drier Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elgin and children of Salem were Sunday visitors at the Charles Reed home.

School opened at Gates last Monday with W. R. Powers of Hayesville, as teacher.

Miss Edna Andrews leaves for Stayton Monday, where she is to teach in the school there.

MIDDLE GROVE CHURCH ACTIVE

Mission Band Program Features Japanese Numbers

MIDDLE GROVE, Sept. 10.—The Middle Grove Mission band held its summer Christmas tree program at the church Sunday morning.

Six children from the primary department gave a colorful Japanese kindergarten scene and Opal Scheuerman and Betty Davis acted as Japanese mothers in another feature.

Rev. H. R. Scheurman gave reports and statistics concerning the Evangelical missions and missionaries in Japan.

The look-out committee of the intermediate Christian Endeavor will meet at the home of Lois Hammer Friday evening.

Rev. H. R. Scheurman and family Birney, Cecil, Opal and Milton visited at the home of Mrs. Lena Bartruff Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scharf and children Katherine and Harry motored to Silverton Friday evening and called at A. R. Mathy's home.

The Hammer family is picking hops for Mr. Hammer's brother, Roy Hammer of Auburn.

Visitors at the McCarty home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCarty Jr., of Newberg.

KINGWOOD HAS MANY VISITORS

KINGWOOD, Sept. 10.—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. William Quigley of Seattle, Miss Ruby Wilson of Vancouver, B. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Salem.

Mrs. Delores Howard of Sola, Wn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Sizemore.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beckman and son Gene drove to McMinnville Sunday where they were guests at a dinner honoring Mrs. Beckman's birthday. Their hosts were Mrs. Beckman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Whisnand.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Truck and family visited their son, Ormel at Scholla, Ore., Sunday. He is pastor of the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Haldy preached at the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

RETURN TO CALIFORNIA SILVERTON HILLS, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter have gone to San Francisco to make their home. They have been spending their honeymoon at Silverton and in Washington cities.

Miss Ida Denny visited her uncle, Pete Abplanalp at Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Abplanalp is in the hospital in that city where he is taking treatments for cancer and is showing much improvement.

Word has been received here of the death in California of Mrs. Andrew, mother of Tom Andrews, Mrs. Andrews was a former resident of Hayesville, but has been in California for the past year.

Frank Kellogg is in eastern Oregon on business this week. Mrs. Margie Kell was a business visitor in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Berrilla Halbert and Mrs. Charles Reed attended the Baptist association meeting in Salem, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Senator Lloyd Reynolds is starting his prairie drier Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elgin and children of Salem were Sunday visitors at the Charles Reed home.

School opened at Gates last Monday with W. R. Powers of Hayesville, as teacher.

Miss Edna Andrews leaves for Stayton Monday, where she is to teach in the school there.

TURNER FOLK GLAD FOR RAIN

No Damage Done and Fall Crops Benefited by Showers

TURNER, Sept. 10.—The farmers who have their grain and straw all in are carrying a smile since the good rain, which is fine for fall crops. No damage is expected to result, to unthreshed grain, it will only cause a delay.

The members of Surpriss' garage will hold their last evening meeting for the summer monthly next Saturday evening at their hall in the L. O. O. F. building.

While Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baker of Mill City were driving to Salem Sunday morning their auto left the detour bridge by the W. J. Denham place two miles east of Turner and went in the creek, which is not deep. No great damage was done. Mrs. Baker received an injury to one arm.

ENGLEWOOD HAS NUMEROUS GUESTS

Miss Thelma Bings, a nurse in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bings of Englewood. She expects to be at home for three weeks. She is a graduate of Salem high school in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richman and daughter, Georgia, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Byram spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Booth at Turner, Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Robertson of the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland visited at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Lansing Saturday evening.

SILVERTON GROUP IS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Larson Hosts to Trinity Sunday School Workers

SILVERTON, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Larson were hosts at their home on Cowing street Monday evening to Trinity Sunday school workers. Plans were discussed for Rally Day at the Trinity church Sunday. Special numbers will be given by members of the Sunday school at the regular, 11 o'clock services.

Mrs. Larson, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Alvin Legard served lunch to their guests. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Torvend, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Torvend, Mr. and Mrs. Jemmer Retaland, Rev. H. L. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer, Miss Lillian Block, Miss Esther Towe, Mrs. Alvin Legard and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Larson.

CHAMBER DINNERS WILL BE RESUMED

Silverton Commerce Group Plans for Corn and Poultry Show

SILVERTON, Sept. 10.—The Silverton chamber of commerce will begin its monthly dinners again on the third Wednesday evening of this month, according to present plans. Whether or not the Monday noon luncheon will begin the latter part of this month will be decided at the dinner. Various committees will also make reports and plans for the poultry and corn show to be held here early in November will likely be discussed at this meeting.

The chamber of commerce, while not off the job, has been taking a vacation for the past two months.

PRUNE HARVEST ON NOW AT FAIRVIEW

FAIRVIEW, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Westchester of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Larrimore of Portland, were week end guests at the Joe Lucia home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Caldwell and Mrs. Clifford Smith were Sunday visitors at the Gus Oude home.

Recent house guests at the E. E. Dent home were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dent of Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Charles Ruggles is reported very ill.

Mrs. Anna Elder of Corvallis visited her sister, Mrs. H. R. Jones Monday.

Dixon and Clara Jones, former residents of this community were calling upon old friends Sunday.

E. E. Dent and wife left Monday on a business trip to Spokane.

Prune picking will begin here this week.

H. R. Jones had electric lights installed in his pruned dryer and house on the Birdsall place.

HIGH SCHOOL GROUP WILL BE LARGER

NORTH HOWELL, Sept. 10.—Silverton high school begins Monday, September 15, and more young people than last year will be ready for high school that morning.

Walter Binegar will drive the same bus that he did last year, over the same route and at about the same hours.

James Rickard have a new baby daughter born August 24th at the Silverton hospital. This is the second child but the first daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rickard and family have rented a farm near McKee station and will move there the latter part of this month.

LLOYD REYNOLDS BACK IN HOSPITAL

HAYESVILLE, Sept. 10.—Senator Lloyd Reynolds, who has been ill for several months, and who recently underwent an operation for the removal of a carbuncle on his neck, is again confined to the hospital. The wound failed to heal properly and Mr. Reynolds is submitting to a skin-grafting operation, that will move there the latter part of this month.

By IWERKS

By CLIFF STERRETT

By BEN BATSFORD

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

KINGWOOD HAS MANY VISITORS

KINGWOOD, Sept. 10.—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. William Quigley of Seattle, Miss Ruby Wilson of Vancouver, B. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Salem.

Mrs. Delores Howard of Sola, Wn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Sizemore.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beckman and son Gene drove to McMinnville Sunday where they were guests at a dinner honoring Mrs. Beckman's birthday. Their hosts were Mrs. Beckman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Whisnand.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Truck and family visited their son, Ormel at Scholla, Ore., Sunday. He is pastor of the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Haldy preached at the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

RETURN TO CALIFORNIA SILVERTON HILLS, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter have gone to San Francisco to make their home. They have been spending their honeymoon at Silverton and in Washington cities.

Miss Ida Denny visited her uncle, Pete Abplanalp at Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Abplanalp is in the hospital in that city where he is taking treatments for cancer and is showing much improvement.

Word has been received here of the death in California of Mrs. Andrew, mother of Tom Andrews, Mrs. Andrews was a former resident of Hayesville, but has been in California for the past year.

Frank Kellogg is in eastern Oregon on business this week. Mrs. Margie Kell was a business visitor in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Berrilla Halbert and Mrs. Charles Reed attended the Baptist association meeting in Salem, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Senator Lloyd Reynolds is starting his prairie drier Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elgin and children of Salem were Sunday visitors at the Charles Reed home.

School opened at Gates last Monday with W. R. Powers of Hayesville, as teacher.

Miss Edna Andrews leaves for Stayton Monday, where she is to teach in the school there.

Middle Grove Church Active

Mission Band Program Features Japanese Numbers

Turner Folk Glad for Rain

No Damage Done and Fall Crops Benefited by Showers

Englewood Has Numerous Guests

Silverton Church Workers Plan for Coming Year's Activities

Silverton Commerce Group Plans for Corn and Poultry Show

Prune Harvest on Now at Fairview

High School Group Will be Larger

Lloyd Reynolds Back in Hospital

Hayesville Homes Have Many Guests

Jefferson Schools Will Open Friday

Near Accident is Avoided

Mickey Mouse

Mickey Mouse

MIDDLE GROVE CHURCH ACTIVE

Mission Band Program Features Japanese Numbers

MIDDLE GROVE, Sept. 10.—The Middle Grove Mission band held its summer Christmas tree program at the church Sunday morning.

Six children from the primary department gave a colorful Japanese kindergarten scene and Opal Scheuerman and Betty Davis acted as Japanese mothers in another feature.

Rev. H. R. Scheurman gave reports and statistics concerning the Evangelical missions and missionaries in Japan.

The look-out committee of the intermediate Christian Endeavor will meet at the home of Lois Hammer Friday evening.

Rev. H. R. Scheurman and family Birney, Cecil, Opal and Milton visited at the home of Mrs. Lena Bartruff Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scharf and children Katherine and Harry motored to Silverton Friday evening and called at A. R. Mathy's home.

The Hammer family is picking hops for Mr. Hammer's brother, Roy Hammer of Auburn.

Visitors at the McCarty home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCarty Jr., of Newberg.

KINGWOOD HAS MANY VISITORS

KINGWOOD, Sept. 10.—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. William Quigley of Seattle, Miss Ruby Wilson of Vancouver, B. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Salem.

Mrs. Delores Howard of Sola, Wn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Sizemore.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beckman and son Gene drove to McMinnville Sunday where they were guests at a dinner honoring Mrs. Beckman's birthday. Their hosts were Mrs. Beckman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Whisnand.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Truck and family visited their son, Ormel at Scholla, Ore., Sunday. He is pastor of the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Haldy preached at the Highland Friends' church Sunday.

RETURN TO CALIFORNIA SILVERTON HILLS, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Porter have gone to San Francisco to make their home. They have been spending their honeymoon at Silverton and in Washington cities.

Miss Ida Denny visited her uncle, Pete Abplanalp at Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Abplanalp is in the hospital in that city where he is taking treatments for cancer and is showing much improvement.

Word has been received here of the death in California of Mrs. Andrew, mother of Tom Andrews, Mrs. Andrews was a former resident of Hayesville, but has been in California for the past year.

Frank Kellogg is in eastern Oregon on business this week. Mrs. Margie Kell was a business visitor in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Berrilla Halbert and Mrs. Charles Reed attended the Baptist association meeting in Salem, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Senator Lloyd Reynolds is starting his prairie drier Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elgin and children of Salem were Sunday visitors at the Charles Reed home.

School opened at Gates last Monday with W. R. Powers of Hayesville, as teacher.

Miss Edna Andrews leaves for Stayton Monday, where she is to teach in the school there.

Middle Grove Church Active

Mission Band Program Features Japanese Numbers

Turner Folk Glad for Rain

No Damage Done and Fall Crops Benefited by Showers

Englewood Has Numerous Guests

Silverton Church Workers Plan for Coming Year's Activities

Silverton Commerce Group Plans for Corn and Poultry Show

Prune Harvest on Now at Fairview

High School Group Will be Larger

METHODIST GROUP HAS A BUSY WEEK

Silverton Church Workers Plan for Coming Year's Activities

SILVERTON, Sept. 10.—The Methodist church is experiencing a busy week this week. Wednesday evening is regular church night and will be observed with a supper at the church followed by a program and an outline of the plans for the coming year. The Young People's class will hold a special meeting and elect officers that evening.

Friday afternoon the Cradle Roll and Home Department of the church will enjoy a party in the church parlors with hours from 2:30 to 4:30.

Sunday morning a special program will be given during the Sunday school hour in commemoration of Rally Day.

JEFFERSON SCHOOLS WILL OPEN FRIDAY

JEFFERSON, Sept. 10.—The high grade school of Jefferson will begin on Friday. This is a new plan, but it enables the pupils to find out what books they need and can get them on Saturday and be ready for work the following Monday.

Near Accident is Avoided

JEFFERSON, Sept. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Curl and son Linden spent Sunday in Portland, the guest of Mrs. Carl's mother, Mrs. Fred Schultz. On the way home an inner tube blew out and the

MICKEY MOUSE

"The Arms of the Law"

"Paw Acts in Self Defense"

"A Voice in the Dark"

"In Disguise"

"Toots and Casper"

"Little Annie Rooney"

"Polly and Her Pals"

"Cross-Word Puzzle"

"Hayesville Homes Have Many Guests"

"Kingwood Has Many Visitors"

"Middle Grove Church Active"

"Methodist Group Has a Busy Week"

"Turner Folk Glad for Rain"

"No Damage Done and Fall Crops Benefited by Showers"

"Englewood Has Numerous Guests"

"Silverton Church Workers Plan for Coming Year's Activities"

"Silverton Commerce Group Plans for Corn and Poultry Show"

"Prune Harvest on Now at Fairview"

"High School Group Will be Larger"

"Lloyd Reynolds Back in Hospital"

"Hayesville Homes Have Many Guests"

"Jefferson Schools Will Open Friday"

"Near Accident is Avoided"

TURNER FOLK GLAD FOR RAIN