CURT COMMENTS

For eleven thousand dollars Oregon might have expected some new wrinkles in the customary bear stories out of Doc Spears, but it seems there is only one way to spread the necessary pre-season and pre-game gloom. Witness the following by Associated Press:

"Oregon's prospects this year are not too bright," said Dr. Spears. "Many of the outstanding stars of last year have been lost. Such men as Marshall Shields, Woody Archer, George Stadelman, Bob Robinson, Hal Hatton, Dave Mason and others will be difficult to replace.

"John Kitzmiller, this year's captain, is the only backfield regular returning to college, while George Christensen, Austin Colbert, Jerry Lillie and Jack Eardley are the only linemen who played throughout the 1929 season. The majority of the 50 candidates we expect to report by September 15 are inexperienced."

"Mind, we're not saying it isn't all true. When these big schools mention that they haven't any material, it means something different from the same report coming out of Linfield. Still, experience is the big factor and probably Oregon hasn't any wealth of returning regulars. A couple of tackles, an end, a guard and Kitzmiller—that's something.

King Levinsky Kayoes Lomski
CHICAGO STADIUM, Chicago, Sept. 11—(AP)—King Levinsky, Chicago's light heavyweight, knocked out Leo Lomski, the Aberdeen assassin in the fifth round of their ten round bout in the Chicago stadium tonight. Lomski was knocked down twelve times, hitting the floor six times in the first round.

Jobs and More Jobs!

This is the need of Willamette university as today it receives one of the largest freshman classes in its history.

Boys and girls are coming to Salem, university authorities advise, dependent on some part-time work to make their way through school. Jobs paying from $15 to $30 a month are needed.

Roy S. Keene, telephone 5615-W or 647, is heading the employment bureau and is desirous that every possible job be reported to him. Many students would like room or room and board in homes where they could do part-time work as compensation.

Mentioning the contrast between the big schools and the little ones when "material" is the subject matter, Hasten to this by "Observer" in the Eugene Register:

"Something of what the Northwest conference schools are up against is revealed in a brief press dispatch from Willamette university at Salem Wednesday.

M'LARNIN WINS BOUT IN HURRY

Singer has Best of First Two Rounds, Knocked Out In Third

By EDWARD J. NEILL
YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Sept. 11—(AP)—Young Al Singer, baby king of the lightweights, risked his prestige in a gamble for more tonight and fell a victim to the dynamite that lurks in the two hard fists of Jimmy McLarnin.

The Dublin destroyer, cherubic cell who looks the meekest and mildest of warriors, caught up with Singer in the third round of their ten round battle at catch weights, knocked him once to the floor for a count of nine and then finished him with a clean, whistling right to the chin. The third round lasted only two minutes, 21 seconds.

That was the name of Singer, newest of champions through his knockout conquest of Sammy Mandell in the summer, added to that list that holds the names of seven titlers, who, either before or after gained their crowns, matched fists with McLarnin and finished second. Yet McLarnin, unweakened, has yet to lick a champion at the class weight.

For two rounds tonight, while 25,000 of the faithful roared approval of the clean, fast, furious mugging, it looked as if Singer, the 22-year-old Jewish boy who thirsts for the fame and prestige that was Benny Leonard's, would break the jinx McLarnin holds over champions and in fact almost every one else who fights somewhere in the world.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11—(AP)—San Francisco's surprising Missions made it four straight over the Seals today, winning 11-3. The fact that Jimmy Zinn, Seal leading pitcher, was on the mound, made no impression.

Ted Pillette pitched good ball for the Missions and received strong support.

VETERAN PETROLLE BEATS CANZONERI

Chicago, Sept. 11—(AP)—Bill Petrolle, the old "Fargo Express" ripped a gaping hole in the lightweight championship situation tonight by defeating Tony Canzoneri, of New York, challenger for the title in a ten round battle in the Chicago stadium.

The battle was fought as a benefit for Patricia Harmon. The three year old daughter of the late builder of the $7,000,000 stadium, Paddy Harmon, who was penniless at the time of his recent tragic death. The contest drew approximately $46,000 with a profit of $10,000 going into a trust fund for the little girl.

The attendance was only 13,260, a trifle more than half the seating capacity of the huge arena. Harmon, year after year, was the only Santa Claus thousands of poor west coast children knew, and the galleries tonight were packed by those youngsters now grown into manhood. The galleries and other cheaper seats were the only sections of the arena filled.

Petrolle showed his sensational comeback to ring warfare by decisively defeating his New York rival in six of the ten rounds. He everlastingly tore into Canzoneri, ripping left hooks to the body and camp. In such event, the gathering will be held at the "Y," unless otherwise announced.

The list of candidates now includes nine men who have been on the Bearcat squad one year or more, six of them lettermen. Betting is Honest say Australians

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11—H. P. Pamphilon and G. H. Levy Melbourne race commissioners, called for their time in Australia today, "where racing is a racket and betting is conducted honestly."

Sailing on the Matson liner Ventura, the commissioners declared that Australia has taken the racketeering out of race betting and made it respected business sponsored and supported by the state.

His country's success in keeping horse racing clean, Levy attributed to government regulation, licensing, bookmakers and requiring them to keep accurate books open at all time to government auditors.

Race tracks in Australia are handled much like public utilities in America, he continued. Betting is on pari-mutuel machines and the government takes 12 1/2 per cent of the bets.

Declaring conditions in America are surprising, Levy said: "Australia certainly won't not countenance the way racing is handled in America, where a few states accept legitimate business and the bookmakers get all the money."

Boys' Division Heads to Make Overnight Trip

To make plans for the winter activities of the boys' division of the "Y," 20 of the older members will set up overnight camp next Saturday at the Presbyterian grounds on the Santiam river near Mehama.

At this annual fall "setting-up" conference, the group, composed of the junior board of directors and the leaders in senior division enterprises will discuss program problems. The conference will consist of a campfire goshering Saturday night, several discussion periods, and possibly a hike, Sunday. They expect to come back with a well outlined schedule of activities for the winter's work.

Conference members will leave the "Y" at 5 p. m. Saturday and return to Salem Sunday evening. The conference will not be called off, if bad weather should make it inadvisable to meet at the
