Hopes Ould Tom Wins

By HARDIN BURNLEY

SIR THOMAS LIPTON—BRITAIN'S GALEANT AND PERSISTENT YACHTSMAN!

OUT TO LIFT AMERICAS' CUP! SPORT BUG

DISTINCTLY novel is the spectacle of many Americans hoping for the success of a foreign challenger, but that is the situation which exists as the international yacht races are about to start off Newport, R. I. Indeed, it is fair to estimate that a majority of the United States sport bugs wish the Shamrock V success because of the traditional fine sportsmanship of its owner, Sir Thomas Lipton—"Tom" to those who are long familiar with that democratic knight of old England. He has now to decide possession of the professional golfers association championship.

GENE SARAZEN AND ARMOUR IN FINALS

FLUSHING, N. Y., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen and Tommy Armour, two seasoned golf professionals who oddly enough never have met in match play competition, will go out tomorrow to decide possession of the professional golfers association championship.

From a field of 63 crack pros starting the championship play Monday only the stocky, dark American of Italian parentage and the prematurely grey Scott are left.

Sarazen advanced to the final round by defeating Joe Kirkwood, who thrills golf galleries by sensational trick shots. His winning margin being 5 up and 4 to play. Armour had a sterner struggle in winning his chance at the championship. He had to go the full 36 holes to eliminate Charley Lacey, young British pro of the Pine Valley club, Clementon, N. J., one up.

The Scot's putting failed him at the last minute and his young opponent took a new lease on life when he seemed to be definitely out of it. Tommy used up three putts at the 34th and three more at the 35th and Lacey was only one down with one to play when Armour had been within a short putt of winning three and two.

Sarazen played better than par golf all day and although Kirkwood struggled gamely through the first 22 holes to keep the match level, he slumped at the close.

Kelly - Winner In Eugene Fight

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Chuck Borden, 148, Eugene, won a decision over Kenneth Kent, 152, Portland, in the main event of the season's first fight card here tonight.

Ray Avery, 124, Eugene, knocked out Tony Camden, 122, Coquille, in the second round of one of the preliminary bouts. Jack Kelly, 162, Salem, won a decision from young Manuel, 160, Coquille. Art Miller, 143, Coquille, defeated Judd Wilson, 146, Eugene.

And John Bull hasn't been able to lift that historic trophy ever since. Fourteen times the British have tried in vain. Now, after ten years, Sir "Tom" is making what many think is his final attempt to realize the chief ambition of his sporting career.

The last time the Shamrock IV came close to sending Sir "Tom" back home rejoicing. That was in 1920. His yacht won the first two of the 30-mile races, but the Resolute won the last three. Twice the craft did not finish in the 6-hour limit. Shamrock lost the fifth of those seven races by less than ten minutes. That's how close Sir "Tom" came to lifting the cup back in July ten years ago.

The general Jove of all these Shamrock's is reputed to have spent more than $5,000,000 during his five efforts to bring back that $500 cup to its English home. This year he's sure his latest Shamrock is the best of all his boats. His trials have been more impressive than those of the U. S. yachts—Enterprise, Yankee, Westsantoe and Whirlwind—which have been racing so often to determine which shall be the one to engage in the international contests scheduled to start tomorrow.

If Shamrock V wins, the good Sir "Tom" will be happier even than those yachting reporters who are reveling now in the comparatively rare opportunity of getting their quaint and cryptic words and phrases into the leading sports columns of the day.

Down at Eugene they're pulling for anybody but the Cubs, but there's no sentiment in that, according to our friend High Chimber of the Guard. They figured a world series at Chicago would hurt the Webfoots' grid game with Drake, October 3, which would be the third day of the series.

We are sure we had the Ambrose boys all ticketed, but they report we got 'em twisted up again after Wednesday night's card. Bobby, who chased his man all over the place and won a technical in less than two minutes, says he was christened Lloyd, and Buddy Floyd. Wonder if they don't get mixed up sometimes?

Brooklyn is pretty much a favorite out in this section of the sticks, partly because it hasn't been in the running for so long, eclipsed as it is by the Yanks and Giants for neighbors; partly because several of the Dodgers are former Coast league boys.

Brooklyn is playing Cincinnati until next Monday; meets St. Louis for three days after that, then Pittsburgh three; has one game with the Giants, one lay-off with the Phillies and two after a lay-off of two days with Boston. All at home except the one with Philadelphia.

That "at home" part is the big break for Brooklyn, which is a strong home club. It's through playing the Cubs, who were hard on the Dodgers up to this last series. Let's look at the league champions now.

The Cubs are now playing the Phillies, which is a break for the champs, but look: They don't go home any more until the last three games, with Cincinnati. They play the Giants beginning next Tuesday at the same time the Cards and Dodgers are meeting, and the Giants are tough even though they slipped this week.

Then Boston four days, which is a little better; and home for the favorable three day festivities with Clevel.

St. Louis is also on the road from now until the 25th, when it plays Pittsburgh at home the last four games. Tomorrow the Cards go to Boston three days; then the crucial series with Brooklyn if they're both still hot at that time; four games at the Phillies' park and home with a day's rest to meet Pittsburgh. All second division clubs, excepting Brooklyn. Maybe it'll be the Cards.

Fighting Youngster Turns Back Champion's Fiercest Shots to Register Victory

By TED VOSBURGH

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Young American caught up with Big Bill Tilden at last this afternoon. The 37-year-old champion went down to a surprising defeat at the hands of a young California giant 16 years his junior, Johnny Doeg, in a match that had 10,000 fans on the edge of their seats for two solid hours.

By scores of 10-8, 6-3, 3-6, 12-10, the powerful Doeg turned back the still mighty Tilden in the semi final round of the national tennis singles championship and tomorrow he will elash with a 19-year old rival from the east.

Big strapping Frank Shields of New York, playing wonderful tennis, downed a fellow New Yorker, Sidney Wood, in the first of the semi finals, 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 and Doeg's remarkable victory gave this classic tournament two of the youngest finalists in its 49-year history.

Even though beaten, the one and only Tilden brought thunderous applause from the packed stands as he bowed to a previous falling courage against a younger man, who was playing the tennis of his life.

Old Tricks Don't Bother Doeg now
When sorely pressed Big Bill again and again pulled seemingly miraculous reversals out of his bag of tricks, but they did not stump Doeg as they did a year ago, when he bowed to the master in five hard sets in the semi finals of this same tournament.

Doeg today fired right back with placements and aces drives of his own, outdoing Tilden in power of service and lunging in to kill the champion's returns with whizzing volleys.

Tilden's right leg, which has bothered him in many a previous match, had him limping throughout most of the last three sets. The leg appeared to give him great pain, but Big Bill threw caution to the winds to race about the court, leg or no leg, in quick, searching volleys and soft (deceptive) chop strokes.

First Occasion In Eleven Years
Not since little Bill Johnson downed him in the final round in 1919, had Big Bill lost to an American in the United States championships, only the great Frenchman, Henri Cochet and Rene La Coste, had accomplished the feat before.

Tilden, over that period, compiled his total of seven championships with a string of six between 1910 and 1925, and another three between 1928 and 1935. He won his way through a field of younger rivals in the absence of

OREGONIANS LEAD AMONG GUARDSMEN

CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The United States marines led the field tonight when the first stages of the national rifle team match closed.

The score was 1895 out of a possible 2,000. There are 103 competing teams. The final stage, 1,000 yards, will conclude the match tomorrow.

The United States navy followed the marines for second place with 1,888 points; the United States infantry was third with 1,877, and the United States cavalry fourth with 1,875.

Among the national guard teams in the match, the group from Oregon headed the scoring with 1,870. Massachusetts was second with 1,860 and Ohio third with 1,840.

Among the civilian teams, California was first with 1,822, Ohio second with 1,811 and Utah and the American Legion teams tied for third with 1,807 each.

The shooting tomorrow will close one of the largest national rifle and pistol match programs on record, according to Col. Ogman Latrobe, executive officer of the matches.

BAILEY SELECTED AS FIRST SPEAKER

When J. N. Chambers, president of the Salem chamber of commerce hangs the gravel Monday noon and calls the meeting to order, the fall program of activities for that organization will be under way.

Edward F. Bailey, democratic candidate for governor is to be here to address the meeting and on each succeeding Monday other candidates for principal offices will speak as a feature of the fall programs of the chamber.

Bailey, born on a Lane county farm, made a name for himself in the University of Oregon as a football player. Later he entered the law school there and graduated. He followed his school work with two years in the United States Marines and in 1921 started to practice law in his home city. In 1923 he served a term as representative from Lane county and in 1927 and 1929 was sent to the state senate.

MISSIONS WIN FIFTH IN ROW

Herman Pilette Hurts Nice Ball; Angels win one In Civil War

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—(AP)—With Herman Pilette pitching bang up baseball, the Missions defeated the San Francisco Seals, 4-1 today to chalk up their fifth straight victory of the series. Pilette held the rival club to seven hits. The big right hander pulled out of a bad hole in the eighth after walking three men to load the bases, when Earl Sheely hit into a double play. The Missions went into the lead in the third when Mulligan and Rodda each belted Davis' offerings for home runs.
