Collegiates Plan Dinner Before Leaving

One of the most interesting social affairs of the "collegiate set" was the "no-host" dinner, held Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the Gray Belle, honoring Salem girls who are leaving soon for their various schools, colleges and universities. Salem is to be well represented, in both quality and number of students this year both within the state and out-of-state schools. Miss Wilda Fleener has chosen the University of Montana for her work and left Saturday for her destination. A large group of her school friends met at the train to bid farewell to Miss Fleener. Of course Oregon State college and the University of Oregon will draw the largest number of students, some returning and some going for their first year's work.

The guest list for the no-host-dinner is composed of the following girls: Ruthita Hoffnack, Kathryn Corey, Helen Olsen, Carolyn Braden, Virginia Holt, Virginia Sisson, Marie Boles, Dorothy White, Kathryn Laughridge, Genevieve Karst, Eleanor Nordblad, Eleanor Waegstaff, Wilda Fleener, Margaret Wagner, Myra Belt, Esther Glibbard, Julia Creech, Harriette Brigham, Kathryn Ellis, Margaret Drager and Yvonne Smith.

The many friends of Miss Edith Schryver will regret to learn that she is now confined in a local hospital, recuperating from a recent major operation. A speedy recovery is the wish of her friends.

Statesman Pattern

Smocking is very smart this season, and particularly attractive on dresses for small girls who love pretty things. The model sketched today has effective collar and cuffs, a chic yoke, and comfy, practical sleeves. Here are bloomers, too.

Pattern 2014 is adorable made of gingham, pique, percale, cotton broadcloth or linen. If a print is selected, the smocking may be done in the predominating color. If you have not time for the hand work, gathering or shirring will do very nicely. The Smocking Pattern 568 is 15 cents additional. May be obtained only in sizes 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 2 yards of 36 inch material.

What Paris is Wearing

PARIS—Never forgetting the rainy day, Paris has introduced another new ensemble that includes a jewelry umbrella. It is in the making of the big jeweled handle, with a heavy bracelet, designed to be worn outside one's wrap.

Unique among reunions was that held the past week by a group of "girls" who years ago attended the Prospect Hill and Salem schools. Here they are, snapped at their "golden jubilee" tea at the home of Mrs. Mildred Robertson Brooks, county treasurer. From left, back row: Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. V. W. Chisart, Mrs. Nellie Fullerton Glass of Seattle, Mrs. Ada Estelle Jory, Miss Melbie Colby and Mrs. Dell Jory Page. Front row: Mrs. O. B. Miles, Mrs. Addie Thompson McIntyre, Mrs. Lucy Fullerton Bradner of Seattle (first teacher of the classmate), Mrs. May Culver Huff of San Francisco and Mrs. Alice Moore Gibson. The girl is Gertrude Mildred Brooks.

Bridge Dinner Honors Donnelly's of Albany

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Calhoun were charming hosts for a 7 o'clock dinner Friday evening, at their home in the Sunberg apartments, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Donnelly of Albany, Oregon. Covers were placed at the attractively appointed table which was lovely with its centerpiece of russet shaded sinias and fall foliage, for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Raef, Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun. Bridge honors for the evening were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner, who had high scores, and Mr. and Mrs. Left Bergsvick, holding the consolation award.

An informal reception in the form of a "homecoming" for friends and members of the First Congregational church will be held Friday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. Rossman, 910 North Capital street. The committee in charge of arrangements is made up of Mrs. C. E. Ward, Mrs. W. E. Hanson and Mrs. W. D. Clark. An enjoyable evening with high scores and a social good time is in store for all who attend.

Reverend and Mrs. H. S. Pemberton of Mt. Vernon, Washington, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Sarkus of this city, left Saturday evening for their home in Washington. They motored to Eugene the first of the week where they were the guests of relatives, stopping in Salem to accompany their daughter, Mrs. Helen and son Frank, who will enter Willamette university this fall.

Mrs. L. F. Baras who motored to Salem last week to visit with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Burrows, left Saturday morning for her home in Beverly Hills, California. She will spend some time at Crater Lake before continuing to her southern destination.

Salem Rebekah Lodge No. 1 will observe the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Rebekah Lodge Monday evening, September 15.

The committee in charge of the entertainment of the evening are: Louise King, chairman, assisted by Lucia Engstrom, Coris Van Pelt, Grace Robertson, and Myrtle McCleay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Young left Friday morning for a fortnight's vacation to be spent at the Oregon beaches. They are making the trip by motor.

The Past President's club of the Woman's Relief corps will meet with Mrs. Hattie Cameron, 298 North 21st street, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

The "Press Club" will hold its first meeting of the fall season, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. E. Thomas 1919 North 5th street.

Robert Bishop will leave Wednesday for Eugene where he will enter the University of Oregon for his senior year.

The first meeting of the Faculty Women's club will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Lausanne Hall.

Pepco Club Give Hard Time Dance

Wednesday, September 17th is a date being much anticipated by the members of the local "Pepco Social club," when they will hold their first dance, of a series of monthly social affairs for the coming fall and winter season. This time will feature a Hard Time dance to be given at Hazel Green. The committee in charge of arrangements includes, Mr. W. R. Newmeyer, acting president and Mrs. Newmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Courtner and Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Macnamara.

HOUSE DESTROYED BY MORNING FIRE

Salem firemen were called out early Saturday morning to battle flames at the George Witte residence just north of the poor farm on the river road. Flames had made such headway before the firefighters arrived that energy was devoted to saving the barn on the property. The house, an eight room structure, burned to the ground as did also a tank house adjoining.

M. R. Gunter, who has been living in the place for several months, says he lit the morning fire about 6 o'clock and left the house to do some work in the woodshed. Glancing at the house a few minutes later, he found it in flames. He rushed in and roused his family. Most of the household effects were saved.

Witte is now living in North Bend. The place was partially covered by insurance.

SAFETY PLANS ADOPTED HERE

County School System Will Carry out Program as Test This Year

Preliminary plans for the safety campaign in Marion county schools to bring home to students need for greater care on highways and roads were announced yesterday by Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent.

Although safety education is the topic in health education program carried over the year in pursuance of the state course of study, added emphasis will be placed on a vehicle safety "campaign" in schools in the county because the state traffic department has offered to help in impressing on children the need to look carefully before crossing streets and highways.

The traffic department will send a man into as many schools as possible to meet with the children, and talk with them concerning the problems, as well as to make the children feel at home with the "traffic cop."

First step in the program here will be a survey in the districts where real problems exist, and following this the traffic officer and school principals will meet with Mrs. Fulkerson further to outline the program.

Visitations to rural districts where there is no traffic problem will be made by the superintendent, who believes these children should nevertheless be acquainted with traffic warnings. Traffic officers will visit the larger places.

A. A. A. Provides Literature In addition, the A. A. A. has given material and posters which will be distributed each month to the schools as a tie-in to the campaign. This association has also furnished the state traffic department belts and badges to use in schools where a few of the older and most trustworthy pupils will be designated as "traffic officers."

Mrs. Fulkerson yesterday expressed herself as pleased with the interest the traffic department is taking in the safety problems as effect school children, for she believes the results will be worthwhile and that school children will come really to realize the value of safety measures.

W. U. LIBRARY GETS MANY NEW BOOKS

Latest Translation of New Testament of Unusual Interest, Report

Over 1,125 volumes have been added to the library of Williamette university during the summer months. Due to the turning over of the Kimball School of Theology plant, 1,000 of the volumes come from there. A great number have been imported from the university of Chicago.

Among outstanding volumes is a pocket edition of the New Testament, issued by a Los Angeles publishing house. It is a modern translation of 1927 and is quite modern in style of speech and print. The publishers say, "Conforming to the basic laws of language, in that, as far as possible, each English expression constantly represents its closest Greek equivalent, and each Greek word is translated by an exclusive English rendering."

No one English word occurs in this volume for any two Greek words. The American Bible Society's 114th annual report of treasury, home and foreign missionary work and general activities is also shelved. It is the 1930 edition. All sorts of church departments are represented on its pages: ministers, young people's societies, churches and missions. The Educational Index and the Readers' Guide for the months between and including January, 1929, to June, 1930, are on the shelves. A special French dictionary, published in Paris, has been received. Its date of publication is 1910. There are 4,150 gravures, 70 tableaux, 114 cartes, and 1,100 odd pages between its covers. It is handsomely bound and instructive. Among the volumes for circulation and reference, the following subjects are covered: fiction, theology, philosophy, business, migration, citizenship, science, prohibition, music, minerals, folk lore, humor, German readers, travel, and finance.

STOCKS FLUCTUATE UPON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The stock market underwent another professional shakeout today, but early losses of one to four points were recovered in a rally that left prices irregularly higher at the close. Bear traders easily extended yesterday's decline during the first hour, basing their activity on the disconcerting weakness of the commodities in the latter part of the week. Buyers stood by until the force of the selling had been spent and then offered support at prices which permitted the shorts to withdraw without sacrificing much of their Friday's profits, although covering became more urgent in the later dealings. A total of 4,918 cattle in 508 herds were given tuberculin tests during July in Mississippi.
