

U. OF O. GIVES COURSES HERE

Three or More Included in Extensive Work at High School

Three courses have been definitely scheduled and four others are possibilities for the University of Oregon fall term extension classes in Salem, according to announcement from the extension director. The fall term will open Monday, September 29. All classes are held in the senior high school building.

The three courses which have been definitely arranged include Abnormal and Borderline psychology, which Miss Celia Hager will teach; Civilization and Art epochs for which N. B. Zane will be instructor; and Creative Writing, under Alexander Hull, well known short story writer. All are two hour courses. The psychology group will meet Monday evening, Zane's class Tuesdays and Hull's Thursday evenings.

Popular Teachers Announce Work
Instructors in the courses are all experienced in university extension work. Miss Hager has taught classes in psychology on the campus at Eugene and in the Portland center, and last year gave the courses at Silverton, where enrollment reversed the usual extension class order and more students appeared for the spring term than for fall and winter classes.

Zane is known here for courses he has given in the past. The course which he will give this fall is given regularly on the university campus. Hull is a popular teacher of courses in written English in the Portland extension center. His course is given here because of many requests that have come for such a study.

Students who enroll for extension work are allowed to take a maximum of six credit hours, but are advised to take but four. The fee per term is $7, where the student is working for credit or is auditing courses.

LOS ANGELES MAN VISITS KINGWOOD, Sept. 15—A guest Sunday at the E. W. Emmett home was Mrs. Charles W. Emmett of Los Angeles who is a sister-in-law of her hosts. The visitor will be here and with other relatives in and around Salem until after the close of the state fair.

All-Inclusive Program of Athletic Activity at Y. M. Announced for Fall Season

Starting what is expected to be an unusually busy year at the Y. M. C. A., the 1930-31 winter athletic schedule is issued. In all it contains seven divisions which together offer 36 different classes in the varied activities, swimming, life saving, beginner's swimming, "mixed" swimming, volleyball, handball, newsboys' playtime and gymnasium.

Innovations in this year's program are the "mixed" life saving class, and the wrestling instruction, which will be given by Don Hendrie, 133 lbs., former northwest champion and champion of Washington state. Robert R. "Bob" Boardman, ever popular with everyone, will direct all athletic activities. Fred Smith, Willamette university student and football player, is assistant instructor of swimming.

All-inclusive is this schedule. It offers activities for business men, young men, boys, special men's division, women, girls and business girls and women. The inclusion of women in a Y. M. C. A. program is not a matter of general practice in Young Men's Christian association circles. Cooperation with the Y. W. C. A., however, has been found to be worth while service to Salem folk, according to the general secretary of the Y. M.

The schedule is as follows:

SCHOOL CLINICS ARE ANNOUNCED

Local Physicians Will aid Health Unit for the Present, Planned

School clinics again occupy a regular place on the weekly schedule of clinics and examinations conducted by the county health unit staff members. For the first of the school year local physicians in the respective towns in which clinics are held will assist with clinics. This arrangement is due to the fact that no one has yet been secured to take the place of Dr. Edward Lee Russell, school physician, who left last Saturday to take over new duties in southern California.

A preschool clinic will be held this afternoon in Silverton, and a school clinic will be held there this morning. Silverton doctors to be in charge of the former and Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health unit, in charge of the last one. School, chest and midhandlers' clinic will be held today at the Salem health center, as will also dental corrective.

Week's Schedule Is Announced
Schedule for the rest of the week includes:

Wednesday—School and milk-handlers, morning, dental, afternoon, Salem center; school clinic, all day, Silverton.

Thursday—School clinic, all day, Silverton; toxin antitoxin, afternoon, Mill City and Gates; corrective dental, Salem center, afternoon.

Friday—Preschool and dental corrective clinics, morning and afternoon, respectively, Salem center; and school clinic, all day, Silverton.

Saturday—Toxin-antitoxin clinic, 8:30 to 10 o'clock in the morning, Salem health center.

Shoemaker Here To Begin Duties As Traffic Head
Kent Shoemaker of Hood River, who recently was appointed chief of the state traffic division to succeed Thomas A. Raffety, arrived in Salem Monday to assume his new duties. He spent part of today in conferring with Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, under whose jurisdiction the state traffic department is administered. Shoemaker will serve as a patrolman until October 1, when he will take over the duties of chief of the state traffic division. Hoss said he had received a large number of letters from different parts of the state commending him upon Shoemaker's appointment.

A Dividend Check Every Three Months

Every three months the postman brings Smith a dividend check. Some say he is a lucky fellow. But Smith knows it isn't luck. The secret—if there is one—is simply that Smith is sharing in the earnings of a great utility system by investing his savings each month in

for ANY CHILD
WE can never be sure just what makes a child restless, but the remedy can always be the same Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as your child has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician
