PETERSON LETS TOWNIES HIT 5

Salem's Star Hurler Pounds Out Four Himself, two Of Them Doubles

EUGENE, Sept. 15.—(Special)—"Hopping mad" after their upset defeat of the previous Sunday, the Salem Senators waded into the Townies here yesterday with everything they had. Andy Peterson "bore down" with all the wicked slants his wily arm could muster, and Salem evened up the series with a decisive 8 to 3 victory. The final game will be in Eugene next Sunday, as the crowd here yesterday was considerably bigger than the one at Salem a week before.

Peterson was pretty much the whole show here Sunday, holding the Townies to five hits and getting four himself, including a couple of doubles.

Eugene scored its runs in the first two innings and after that Peterson allowed only two hits and the only other runner that got on the paths was Wirth, to whom for some reason Peterson

ROBINS AHEAD BY FULL GAME

Advance as Cardinals Idle; Cubs Drop Further as Two Games Split

BROOKLYN, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Robins advanced to a full game lead over the Cardinals in the National pennant race today, defeating the Cincinnati Reds 13 to 5 for their 11th straight victory. Both Lucas and Moss were driven from the mound in the first inning but Clark turned in a brilliant pitching performance for the remaining eight innings while the Reds had to call on Benton, Frey and May.

The Solons started in from there to sew up the game. Olinger singled and Bigbee drove him in with his second two bagger. In the fourth two more were added through hits by Peterson and Olinger. T. Girod's walk and an error.

In the seventh Edwards singled, Peterson hit his second two bagger and both came home when P. Girod lined one over the center fielder's head for three bases.

Two More W. U. Grid Stars out

Two of the men who made football history at Willamette university last year resumed the task of mashing down grass on Sweetland field Monday afternoon: Walt Erickson, whose flying feet crossed numerous goal lines in the 1929 season, and Percy Carpenter, big, gentle tackle, who crashed opposition out of the road to let Erickson gallop through.

Both appeared to be ready for another big season, although they are reporting a trifle late to get in top condition for Saturday night's game with O. S. C.

A third veteran to report Monday was Fred Paul, reserve half-back on last year's squad.

O'Reilly and Vangler to Open Grappling Season in No-Limit Bout Wednesday

That well known pair of fighting cocks, Art O'Reilly and Sammy Vangler, will open the wrestling season here Wednesday night with a renewal of their bitter feud begun last summer.

Evidence that the grappling season here Wednesday night with a renewal of their bitter feud begun last summer. They will meet at the armory in a no-limit match.

Not long ago in Astoria these boys met and it so happened that "Vangler" won, largely through a foul that was called on O'Reilly giving the southerner the second fall. They split a pair of real ones.

Speaking of Frisco, did you notice that some of the Seattle ball club stockholders are demanding that the club get a receiver? We didn't know the tribe was short of catchers, but anyway we nominate Leo for the job. He can make ball players out of wooden Indians and it looks as though that's what he'd like to do.

The National League changes league leaders as fast as Argentina was changing presidents a week ago. Three in three days; they tied on that record.

After explaining that we don't know what fraternities anybody at the University of Oregon belongs to, we will herewith repeat what Art Perry has to say in his "Smudge Pot" column in the McCorr Mail-Tribune:

There are storms ahead for the head football coach at Oregon, and evidence that the campus politicians are whetting up their snickers for the gen. The Salem Statesman, in its sport comment, mildly complains that his pre-season bear stories are no better than those freed by Capt. John J. McEwan. One of the Eugene papers prints a long-winded article setting forth the glorious past of "Old Oregon," with the accent on what a stemwinding mention one of the Huntington boys happened to be without giving Bendek any credit. The items now which way the wind blows, and it is safe to bet that Dr. Spears' plans and system will be the victim, the coming season, of three major accidents, not to mention the minor ones. The accidents will be attributed to Fate. Fate never gets busy at Oregon State college, where campus politicians do not flourish. "Old Oregon" will never get any younger until she exiles three of its tribes.

City League to Start Bowling Season Tonight

Bowling in the City League will start tonight, with six teams awaiting the starting gun for the season. Teams entered are the Elks, McKay Chevrolet, Capital City Bedding company, Bakerite Bakery, Evergreen Golf, and Winter Garden.

The players will gather at 7:30 p. m. at the Winter Garden, play to be preceded by a meeting for election of officers and discussion of rules. The Commercial league will hold a meeting Wednesday night.

CURT COMMENTS

Yes, Frisco did the catching. But we guess the boys were so mad they could have won with a rubber mat up there for a backdrop to bounce the ball back. Andy hadn't cooled off entirely when we saw him Monday.

Wonder if Eugene didn't want that third game pretty badly? Season tickets were honored at the game here a week ago Sunday but at Eugene the baseball moguls cancelled the season tickets before the series started. Wonder if that had anything to do with their drawing a bigger gate so as to get the third tilt at home?

FOUR RUN RALLY WINS FOR YANKS

DETROIT, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A four run attack in the second inning gave the New York Yankees a 5 to 2 decision over the Detroit Tigers today. Sherid was hit hard but managed to keep the Tigers' eleven hits well scattered.

M. W. GRIDMEN START GRIND

Spears and Phelan, Making Bow to Western Sports Face Tough Jobs

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 15.—(AP)—When Dr. Clarence W. Spears, Oregon's new football mentor, arrived at the University grid-iron today he found more than 50 candidates waiting him. This was said to be the largest first-day response ever recorded at Oregon.

Dr. Spears spent two and one-half hours on the field, devoting most of his time to sizing up the personnel of the squad.

It is expected the foundation of this year's team will be those men who were at Oregon for spring practice early this year. These, however, will be augmented by the return of several men who were not in school last year and the arrival of new players whose abilities are unknown.

After the men had warmed up the new coach selected a group of players and divided them into three teams. He set them to work running signals.

Dr. Spears probably will have selected most of his first string men by the end of this week. His eleven will meet Pacific university at Eugene Saturday afternoon in the first inter-collegiate competition of the season.

Spirit is Good at Washington SEATTLE, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Lookers-on at the University of Washington's first football workout today found spirit excellent, but material only fair in the turnout of 74 candidates.

Coach Jimmy Phelan, who led Purdue to a Big Ten championship last year, has Merle Hufford, now a junior, and a sensation of the 1929 season, as the key to his backfield with Bill Marsh, full-back, as another veteran out for a position behind the line.

Captain Al Homes and Baul Schwieger, veteran tackles, were out but two veteran guards, Sam Kratz and Lee Shelton, were not expected to draw snuffs until Wednesday. With few candidates for center, Henry Wentworth, another veteran tackle, was to be given a try for that position. Waterweiler, Pautzke and Squires were experienced wingmen on the field.

Notre Dame Team Faces Tough Sked

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 15.—(AP)—It isn't even a small question of another heavy winning football team at Notre Dame this fall. It's simply a question whether Knute Rockne's man-of-iron army of all nations can wade undefeated through the most ambitious schedule ever attempted by a college eleven.

Fired to a fresh enthusiasm by a beautiful new stadium and the return to good health of their coach, the rambler squad 130 strong is determined and confident and from its general football quality the outlook for a second successive undefeated team is exceedingly bright.

Even Coach Rockne, at the helm of Notre Dame's football fortunes for the fourteenth straight year, admits the prospects are rosy although he points out that a certain amount of "breaks" are necessary to plow through Southern Methodist, the Navy, Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Drake, Northwest, the Army and Southern California on successive Saturdays without a setback or upset.

"We may need a blacksmith's shop crammed full with horse shoes to beat that schedule," Rockne said seriously.

Winners of the two Tuesday afternoon matches will meet in the semi-finals at 3 o'clock Wednesday.

Y. M. C. A. singles championship play was held late last spring.
