MONMOUTH, Sept. 19 .- The church congregations of Monmouth joined as usual this summer in a series of union evening meetings held by pre-arrangement in the various places of worship, with the ministers sharing pulpit duty. The final gathering of this sort was held Sunday evening at the Evangelical church with Rev. L. H. Willard delivering the mes-

Prior to the opening of school each congregation reverts to its own church in order to care for the student attendance. Plans are under way now for receptions to the student-body of the Oregon Normal school which will be given according to a fixed schedule by each church, the opening one to occur Saturday evening, September 27, at the Baptist church. The evening meetings have been very popular, this summer, and were unusually well attended.

TURNER, Sept. 19 .- Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, who is pastor of the Turner Christian church has received an urgent call to a pastor-ate in the Christian church in Kingsley, Kansas.

This is the second time Mr. Gilstrap has been asked to return to the city in Kansas, where a pastorate was held held by him prior to eight years ago, when the family came west. They lived in Kingsley when their family of four daughters were small, the oldest was just entering her first year in the public school.

Plans for Fall Rally Exercises Are in Making

Although Salem churches are just barely getting back into the swing of a full program of religious endeavor, plans are already being laid in several for the annual rally and promotion days. The congregation of the First Christian church met this week prepare definitely to become forto plan events for these two days, as well as for the year's work. Rally day in that church will occur October 5. Other churches are formulating plans for this big event of the fall, but have not as yet announced dates for the rally day.

Federated Church Women Hold Meet

WOODBURN, Sept. 19 .- A feature of much interest at the meet-Women of Woodburn which was held Wednesday afternoon, was the reading of magazine articles submitted by local women now actively engaged in missionary work in foreign countries. The meeting was held in the parsonage of the church, The day's program was in charge of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. Devotionals were led by Rev. Glenn S. Hartong. The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Myrtle Cole, Mrs. French, Mrs. Lee Withers and Mrs. Hattie McKee.

Stewart Giving Lecture Series

Sunday evening Rev. J. R. Stewart, pastor of the Free Methodist church, will preach the third sermon in a series of Sunday evening discourses on prophecy relative to the second coming of Christ and the end of the age. The subject for the occasion will be "The Times of church is in charge of the pro-the Gentiles." These weekly gram. studies throw a great deal of light upon the age in which we live and what we may expect in ning worship

Pledges Totaling $2,000 Raised in First Day's Drive

Two thousand dollars in pledges and cash were secured Friday toward the construction of a new educational unit for the Castle United Brethren church, Rev. L. W. Biddle, pastor, announced last night. Members of the congregation are making every effort to raise the $5000 goal before Sunday night.

There is little doubt but that the goal will be raised, and special effort will be put forward to that end, in view of the fact that the home erection society of the church has agreed to match the $5,000 raised here as a gift, in addition to making a loan of $5.000 without interest.

Workers who were covering the field yesterday induded Bishop Ira D. Warner of Portland, Dr. R. S. showers of Dayton, Ohio, Rev. L. W. Biddle, Rev. J. Oliver, J. C. Hill and F. J. Welsh. The church 's located at the corner of 17th and Nebraska streets. Units which will be added as soon as the money is raised will be a basement and two story building, each 30 by 70 feet. The cost will approximate $20,000.
