Loan to County Said Unlikely To Cause Fight

J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway commission, announced Saturday that he did not antivipate any serious litigation in connection with the proposal of the highway commission to Loan Lane county $700,000 with which to complete state highways within its borders.

It was reported here recently that theagreement between Lane county and the state highway commission probably would be attacked in the courts.

Under the agreement Lane county would repay the loan out of its motor vehicle revenues which aggregate more than $100,000 annually.

Protest Entered Against Hearing On Grain Rates

The public service commission Saturday sent a telegram to the interstate commerce commission protesting against a proposed rehearing of the so-called grain rate case, which was decided on July 1 of this year.

The rehearing was requested by the carriers. The original decision of the interstate commerce commission was in favor of the shippers and against the railroads.

LOWER GRADE BUTTER DOWN

Supplies Liberal; Stocks Of Vegetables Found Not Moving Fast

PORTLAND, Sept. 20—(AP).—Cube butter prices were placed lower in the lower two grades today. Prime firsts are a cent lower at 36 cents and firsts are 2 cents lower at 33. Extra and standard cube prices are unchanged. Market is weak with ample receipts of fresh cubes and trading quiet in some quarters. Considerable storage stock is used.

Egg market opened about steady, prices unchanged except for pullets, offered 2 cents cheaper at 19 cents.

Millrun, middlings and corn feed were priced a dollar cheaper and recleaned wheat red feed $2 cheaper per sack in new quotations of the Sperry Flour company today.

Report of the government news service indicated produce supplies were not cleaning up The report:

Liberal supplies of home-grown vegetables continue to mark Portland's markets. One major celery distributor is selling washed and trimmed stock to retailers at 40c per dozen, to stimulate consumption. Tomatoes are now of the finest quality, and possibly the lowest price of the entire year.

Oregon Onions Demand Greater

Oregon onions continue to move at about 25c per cwt. premium over Washington onions. Growers at the Labish district are selling very slowly at about 60c per cwt., plus bags. Only a few cars have been sold yet this season.

First Yakima Jonathans are now available at $1.75-2.25 per box of desirable-sized stock, fancy and extra fancy.

Potatoes are easier, as a reaction to the high prices of a week ago.

Trading on the farmers' early market at East 10th and Belmont streets is heavy, with over 230 truck loads of produce disposed of Friday.

Oregon Bartlett pears are realizing considerably higher returns on today's eastern auctions. Eastern receivers explain these improved prices, partly by the more seasonable fall weather throughout the east now.

JEWISH NEW YEAR OBSERVED MONDAY

Rosh Hashana, the Jewish new year, will be celebrated by the Jews of Salem on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. H. Steinbock, president of the local organization of the jews, is in charge of the plans for celebrating these days which are holy days in the Jewish calendar. Cantor Jacob Shapiro of Minneapolis will be here to conduct the services. The hours ofor service are 7 p.m. Monday, 7:30 a.m. Tuesday; 7 p.m. Tuesday and 7:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Jewish merchants will close their places of business during Rosh Hashana.

The general public is extended an invitation to attend any of these services which will be held on the second floor of the Halik building on Court street between Commercial and Liberty.

WILSON PETITIONS DECLARED FAULTY

Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, following a conference with I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general, Saturday refused to file the nominating petitions of Mrs. Myrtle Purviance Wilson of Portland, who a few days ago announced that she would be an independent candidate for governor at the November election.

The attorney general ruled that the petitions did not contain the sufficient number of signatures of qualified voters, and that the affidavits were not properly verified. The election laws provide that 6399 signatures of qualified voters are necessary to place the name of a candidate for governor on the ballot. The secretary of state estimated that the petitions submitted by Mrs. Wilson did not contain more than 4000 signatures.

Mrs. Wilson indicated Saturday that she might file mandamus proceedings to compel the secretary of state to file her petitions.

BUILD EXTRA PENS TO HOUSE EXTRAS

Purchase of dozens of additional pens for rabbits, pigeons and poultry and the construction of extra quarters for horses, sheep and hogs was approved today by the state fair board as last minute entries in all departments swamped the office here.

The program at the grandstand Monday afternoon, under the direction of Dr. P. O. Riley of Hubbard, president of the Marion County Federation of Community clubs, will be free to the public, it is announced. All gubernatorial candidates are expected to speak.

STATESMAN OFFERS SCHOOL OF COOKING

Scheduled October 2, 3 and 4 in Armory; Ella Lehr System has Charge

The Statesman's own cookin school will be presented October 2, 3, and 4 at the armory. Women of Salem and surrounding territory are cordially invited to attend. The instruction will be handled by Miss Helen Goodwin of the Ella Lehr cooking school organization of San Francisco. Miss Lehr has been contributing articles on cookery and recipes on the food page of The Statesman each week for the past year, so that the name is already familiar to Salem women.

The cooking schools presented by The Statesan have won widespread fame for the valuable information which is given. Through cooperation of local stores the newest and best in household wares are thus introduced to the women of the community.

Ladies will do well to mark their date books already for the three days, Oct. 2, 3, and 4, afternoons from 2 to 4; and the place, the Salem armory on Ferry and Liberty streets. This is described as "the cooking school that's different." Miss Goodwin will give an entertaining series of talks. She will show a "model Kitchen" and take up many topics in her discussion of "what the well dressed meal will wear in 1930."

Hoss is Invited To Aeronautics Board Meeting

Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, Saturday received an invitation to participate in a meeting of the state aeronautics board to be held in Portland later this month. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss proposed legislation affecting the operation of aircraft.

The letter indicated that the meeting would be attended by various agencies interested in aircraft operation, together with a number of state officials and manufacturers.
