A.A.U.W. Plan For Regional Meeting

The members of the American association of University Women will gather in Portland October 3 and 4 for the regional meeting of the organization which will include representatives from Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon. Sessions will be held at the Multnomah hotel with registration beginning Friday morning. The meetings are to be open to all members of the organization as well as the delegates.

Friday's feature will be a fellowship luncheon at which reports will be given of the various fellowships supported by the organization. Mrs. Pelagius Williams, state chairman of the North Pacific fellowship committee will be the speaker and reports of work done by the committee will be given. This will be followed by a fellowship program during the afternoon hours. Two round table discussions will be held Friday afternoon, one on raising funds and the other on international relations.

The program for Friday will close with a dinner. The topic of discussion for the dinner meeting will be on international problems with Dr. Norman F. Coleman, president of Reed college, and Mrs. E. K. Bowman, director of the Tri State League of Nations association, as the speakers. Mrs. A. W. Cooper, second national vice president will be in charge of the dinner program.

Saturday morning will be taken up with reports and at 12:30 o'clock there will be a luncheon meeting with Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, president of Mills college as the principal speaker.

Miss Elvora Thompson will conduct a roundtable following the luncheon and the meeting will close with a business meeting of delegates.

Proceeding the Friday session there will be an annual state meeting of the Oregon A. A. U. W. with Mrs. L. T. Merwin, state president, presiding. The most important thing of this meeting will be the election of a president, the one officer to be elected this year.

The final series of rush parties will begin tonight at the Beta Chi sorority when this sorority will entertain with a formal dinner. Delta Phi sorority will follow with a formal dinner Wednesday night and Alpha Phi Alpha will be hostesses Thursday night. These affairs will conclude the rushing season and the next social affair will be the pledge service Sunday morning.

Statesman Pattern

Most of us neglect our house frocks during the warm weather, and now is a good time to replenish our supply, since looking our best at home is as important as at any other time. The frock sketched today is particularly attractive with its square vestee, turned back cuffs and pocket trimming of contrasting fabric. The ruffling, which may be omitted, adds a dainty touch to the pattern. Pattern 2016 is practical made of gingham, percale, broadcloth, rayon, wash silk or dimity, as they launder nicely and may be bought in your favorite colorings. Both light and dark grounds are popular this season for house dresses. White pique is nice for the trimming. May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 26, 32, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 requires 2 7/8 yards of 36-inch fabric.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this frock with our pattern. Variants for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given. Send fifteen cents in coin, fully wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Our new fall and winter fashion book containing exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped novelties, is now ready. Price $1.00. Send $1.00 with pattern, 25 cents. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Dept., 224 West 27th Street, New York City.

Annual tea Given New High School Teachers

A charming custom of the Salem senior high school is to give an informal tea in compliment to the new teachers of the faculty each fall near the beginning of school. This is a get acquainted affair and proves very delightful.

The tea table was beautiful in a color scheme of lavender and pink carried out through the medium of aspidragos and Michelmias daisies and slender pink tapers. Miss Ruth Brauti and Miss Lena Belle Tartar presided at the tea table.

Miss Beryl Holt and Tom Walcott had charge of the flowers for decorations. Mrs. T. W. Green and Miss Laura Hale had charge of the table arrangement; Miss Ola Clark and Miss Mildred Christensen had charge of the invitation list; Miss June Philpot and Mrs. Kathrin Gilbert were in charge of refreshments.

Oh These Women!

By LEOLA ALLARD

A London woman announces that most men are exceedingly dull.

A British writer explains to her that he thinks many men, tired with business, cultivate sluggish minds so that their work will not become too acute.

For their own comfort they disguise agile brains behind a pompous and ponderous manner. Women, he says, are seldom dull, because they chatter on and on about everything and nothing, thereby necessarily giving themselves away. Men have a horror of revealing their feelings. They are naturally more secretive.

Then, too, women find little in abstractions and generalities. To them personalities are much more interesting.

Lively brains scare people, he thinks, and a person with a glib tongue is immediately under suspicion. One with not such lively brains is afraid of so much conversational oil.

I was interested because last week I told a woman who asked me all the things she was doing to become interesting and attractive, that if she would stop working so hard and become interested in other people and what they have to say, she would turn the trick.

The Englishman bears me out when he says: "With age one discovers more and more that no one is interested in you, but that people are intensely interested in themselves. Therefore it is possible to make the greatest bore, thrilling as a conversationalist when you have attained the knack of making others talk about themselves."

"Fortunately we all live in a fool's paradise, and a fool's paradise is a million times better than a wise man's hell. The basis of all human contact is to enjoy a fool, not gladly, but joyfully. (If he is wrong write me.) Premier Syndicate, Inc., 235 E. 45th St., New York City.
