

FAIR RECEIPTS LOW THIS YEAR

No Deficit but no Money to Make Improvements, is Indication now

Receipts of the 1930 Oregon state fair aggregated $42,319, as against $53,547.50 last year, according to figures given out here Monday by J. E. McClintock, veteran auditor for the state fair board. The attendance for the seven days of the recent state fair was $9,750.

The decrease in revenue at the Oregon fair was in line with the experience of all other expositions on the circuit, which includes 14 fairs. Three of these fairs are in Canada. Members of the fair board said that the attendance at virtually all fairs in the northwest this year had dropped from 18 to 22 per cent, when compared with the attendance records last year.

Weather Given Most of Blame
The marked reduction in the attendance at the Oregon state fair this year was due largely to weather conditions. Rain fell part of three days, while the other days were cloudy and unsettled.

The largest attendance at the Oregon state fair this year was on Wednesday, Salem day, when a total of 25,500 persons paid their way onto the grounds. The receipts on Wednesday totalled $13,670.75, as against $17,569.75 on Wednesday at the 1929 state fair.

The shrinkage in receipts at this year's state fair was not confined to paid admissions, but also to the horse show, grandstand and concessions. Members of the fair board indicated that the receipts would cover the expenses, but that there would be little money left for improvements. Virtually all of the exhibits had been moved from the grounds Monday.

FLY ACROSS ATLANTIC TO GREET RELATIVES

One of the reasons Diendonne Coote and Maurice Bellonte flew across the Atlantic was to visit relatives in San Francisco. They did it last Friday. Maybe that's why they couldn't find time to go to greet the state fair crowd in Salem. Here they are—Coote in the center and Bellonte on the right; Mrs. Camille Reynal, a cousin of Coote, on the left and below, two younger cousins, Lucien Coote (left) and Simone Dolle.

Mrs. Wilson has New Scheme but It Doesn't Work

Mrs. Myrtle Purviance Wilson of Portland, whose nominating petitions for governor were rejected by the secretary of state, Monday sent a letter to the state department urging that a notation be placed on the ballot advising voters that they have authority to write in her name.

Mrs. Wilson said such a plan would eliminate all present difficulties. Secretary of State Hoag advised Mrs. Wilson that the election laws prevented him from granting her request.

Mrs. Wilson's nominating petitions were rejected for the reason that they did not contain a sufficient number of signatures, and the names were not properly verified. She sought to enter the campaign as an independent candidate.

SPEEDER GOES 50 AN HOUR INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 29.—Leon Fish Jr., of Albany, Ore., paid a $10.00 fine here in Justice McIntosh court for speeding at the rate of 50 miles on the highway. He was arrested by Constable Shrank.

SILVERTON, Sept. 29.—Selmer Lee returned from the hospital where he underwent an operation for sinus trouble. Mr. Lee is getting along very well now. He is an employee with the Silver Falls Timber company mill.

I was out of place and a nobody, ... married my first cousin, Miss Martha Cable, of Aldborough, and sailed for Cowes, Isle of Wight; ... arrived at the (Sandwich) Islands, where we took in Rev. George Gary, who was coming to settle up the Methodist mission business after the death of Jason Lee. We arrived safely at Vancouver in May, 1844. (Lee did not die until March 12, 1845.)

refinements of civilization. They yearned for the great open spaces."

He had grown up with the Hudson's Bay company; came as a youngster; learned French, Indian and Chinook; knew everything there was to know about his work, and everybody. He was somebody there, and at the various stations of the great company throughout the wilderness. And, after a trial, he liked Oregon better than London, though the Oregon country he knew was at the end of the earth, and during a large part of his long service the vast empire in point of extent was inhabited only by Indians, governed by one man, Dr. McLoughlin, assisted by a few Scotch, English and French factors and clerks and a few hundred Canadian-French voyageurs and trappers, and the mental tasks done by some 500 Sanderby Islanders. And not a white woman in all the great territory. But his headquarters, old Fort Vancouver, was the metropolis and capital, more so than London was the capital and metropolis of the British empire, and he was somebody there, and felt at home.

N. W. CONFERENCE TROPHIES PLANNED

Inter-collegiate cooperation and good will in addition to a work for the interest of all colleges in the Northwest conference is being planned and directed by Willamette's "W" club. The "W" club is an organization made up of lettermen. Wright Adams is this year's president.

The plan is to get the cooperation of the mentioned colleges in an effort to raise money for two cups to go to champions of the conference in football and basketball. Money will be donated or raised by members of the various colleges' lettermen's groups.

Last year, work was done by the local organization to raise money for a trophy case for Willamette's hall. The case cost $70 and will be presented this year by the club members.

Commissioners Oppose Delay in Freight Rates

The cooperative committee of the national association of railroad and utility commissioners at a meeting held recently at Kansas City, went on record against any further delay in placing in effect reduced freight rates under the grain rate order issued by the interstate commerce commission last July.

The railroads affected by the order recently filed with the inon fact it remains that the ancient art of cooking has been dignified by royal hands. Queen Mary believes that every wife should be first of all, a good cook and she carries out her beliefs by preparing many of the dishes which appear on the British royal table.

"If a queen takes pride in her cooking, is it any wonder that every housewife should take a keen interest in it? It's no wonder that the housewife is so anxious to keep up to the minute in household methods!" says Miss Goodwin, of the Ella Lehr Cooking schools, who comes to Salem soon to conduct a three-day program of the "Cooking School That's Different" for The Statesman. "Perhaps you won't be able to live in a palace and cook in a queen's kitchen, but every woman's home is her 'castle' and it's really easy to cook meals fit for a king in the smallest kitchenette," says Miss Goodwin. This newspaper extends a cordial invitation to all women of Salem and vicinity to attend Miss Goodwin's programs and benefit by her advice on household topics. Noted for her entertaining style, she brings valuable information as well as a new viewpoint on the art of cookery. The Cooking School sessions will be 3 to 4 p. m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 2, 3 and 4, of this week, at the armory.

BEGINNING OCT. 1ST.

"DANDERINE" Dissolves Crust of Dandruff

Soothes Scalp; Gives New Life and Lustre to Hair!

There's no use allowing unsightly dandruff to steal the life from your hair; make it dull, brittle and scraggy; turn it gray or start it to falling out. "Danderine" will dissolve the worst crust of dandruff in a hurry. It will bring the glow of health back to your scalp. Its consistent use will encourage the hair to grow long, thick, more youthful-looking. You will be delighted by the effects of "Danderine's" first application. Excess oil is removed from the hair; its natural color is brought out marvelously; it sparkles with new life and lustre.

Five million bottles of Danderine used a year shows its popularity; And you won't wonder at this once you learn its easy use and see how it gives health to the scalp and vigor and youthful appearance to the hair! Every drug and toilet counter in the land has Danderine—35c bottles. (Adv.)
