

Death Calls Joseph H. Moser who Crossed Plains in 1852

INJURY LEADS TO HIS DEATH

Widow, 5 Children Survive; Married 60 Years Ago; Rigdon Schoolmate

SILVERTON, Sept. 30.—Another of Silvertown's pioneers passed Tuesday when Joseph Moser died at his home on Third street. Mr. Moser was injured ten days ago while trying to lift a wood box from a wagon which he had sold.

Joseph Henry Moser was born December 23, 1846, and at the age of six years crossed the plains with his parents and grand-parents. They settled at Eugene where they remained for two years. At the end of that time they moved to five miles east of Silvertown and for the past 23 years have made their home at Silvertown.

Sixty years ago last June Mr. Moser was married to Olive Garrett at the Thomas street home near Marquam. He survived by his widow, five children, and 14 great grand children. The children are Gilbert Moser, Mrs. Nellie Harwood, and Lloyd Moser of Silvertown; Mrs. Della Hoffman of Oregon City and Frank Moser of Dallas.

One of Mr. Moser's schoolmates still survives. He is W. T. Rigdon of Salem. The two attended school together at the old Ahiqua school on the John Whitlock farm.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made but is in charge of Juak and Ekman.

INDIGNANT

John F. Curry (upper), Tammany chief, and Charles L. Kohler (lower), budget director and leader of the Tenth Assembly District of New York, walked angrily out of the Grand Jury investigation of the Ewald-Hooley scandal, asserting they had been insulted when asked to sign a waiver of immunity.

19 OF 54 WILL GO TO COLLEGE

Woodburn High Sends Biggest Single Number of Grads to Columbia

WOODBURN, Sept. 30.—Out of the 54 students who graduated from Woodburn high school last spring, 19 are attending institutions of higher learning. Columbia university in Portland leads the list with five graduates. They are Adrian and Laverne Scholer, Hugh and Leonard Georin, and Murel Nehl. All of these men are practicing football at the university. Adrian Scholer has practically won a regular position on guard on the first string. Laverne Scholer, Hugh Georin, and Murel Nehl are making good on the reserve squad.

Come Here to School Ruth Geer, Opal Hodge, Emerson Baldwin, and Lowell Gribble are attending Willamette university. Baldwin and Gribble, who are both athletic stars at Woodburn, are making names for themselves at Willamette. Baldwin is a second string tackle and Gribble is a valuable addition to the backfield squad. Woodburn high school is represented at O. S. C. by Elizabeth Kraus, Wama Lennon and Robert Albert Lemeke, former Woodburn line men, has landed a regular position as guard on Eldon Jennes' Pacific U. team. Arlo Thompson and William Michel are attending the local college in Eugene in Portland.

Business Here Gets Two The Capital Business college at Salem has two 1930 graduates enrolled, Nora Otjen and Inez Elliott. Lucille Hughes has traveled the farthest of any to attend school. She entered Wheaton college at Wheaton, Illinois. Lewis Radcliffe has started work at Albany college.

Summer COLDS

Urban is Overcome By Monoxide Gas; Death Just Averted

AURORA, Sept. 30.—An accident which might have had a very different ending occurred Sunday, when Cris Urban, a farmer living about one mile northwest of town was overcome in his garage with monoxide gas. Urban had left the house about 8 a. m. and was working around the place.

The family remembered seeing him again at ten. When he did not come in at noon they began looking for him. As they approached the garage moans were heard, and he was found unconscious. Urban was rushed to the Woodburn hospital, remaining unconscious for hours, but later had regained consciousness and will recover.

JERRY MORRIS, 49, DIES IN PORTLAND

FALLS CITY, Sept. 30.—After a protracted and painful illness, Jerry Morris died in a Portland hospital at the age of 49.

During the last few years Mr. Morris had made his residence at Valseit, but previous to this he was for many years a resident of Falls City, where he had many friends and was highly esteemed. With the cooperation of the local lodge of Odd Fellows of which Mr. Morris was a member, and Rev. Dodd performing the religious service, the funeral took place from the Christian church of Falls City, September 28.

To mourn his death remain his wife, two sons and a daughter.

Hartleys Happily Feted On 10th Anniversary When Grangers Give big Party

SILVERTON HILLS, Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartley observed their 10th wedding anniversary in a rather unexpected manner Sunday. They had planned to spend a day quietly at home when Mrs. Hartley's mother, Mrs. Leonie Davis of Salem informed them that an open meeting of the grange was to be held at the Silvertown grange hill Sunday.

Mrs. Davis is an old time resident of the Hills and was here, presumably to attend the meeting. When Hartleys arrived at the community hall they found around 100 of their friends gathered to wish them happiness on their anniversary.

A "second" wedding ceremony was held with John Porter acting as minister. Lewis Pfauum was best man and Versa Beaugli the maid of honor. George Porter was the charming ring-bearer and Mrs. John Tschantz tripped along as flower girl. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Davis, who also accompanied Lewis Hall of Gervais for a vocal solo.

The entire company were seated at the noon-day dinner. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and reviewing old times. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley received many useful gifts of aluminum and tin.

Outside guests at the affair were Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hall and children of Gervais, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Polka of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Old Bowen of Silvertown and Merle Bowen of Cottage Grove.
