Roosevelt Says Little Upon Alleged Scandals in N. Y. Judiciary

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 30 (AP)-Renominated unanimously for a second term by the New York state democratic convention today, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt in his speech to the delegates declared the campaign must be fought out on state issues rather than on conditions in New York City.

The governor did not refer specially to the grand jury investigation of alleged judicial scandals in the greater city. His reference In addition to hearing several was to the acceptance speech of his republican opponent, Charles cases, he set October 6 as date H. WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. (AP)-District Attorney Leo A. Rover took the most drastic action to dry up this city today that has yet come in the effort to make prohibition enforcement, here a model for the rest of the country.

Eight padlock injunction suits were filed, affecting properties said to be assessed for taxation at more than $150,000. This year more than 600 property owners have been warned of Volstead violations taking place on heir premises. John B. Williams, assistant to Rover, said the action was not to be viewed as a crusade but merely as evidence that the federal prosecutor's office would not tolerate violations of the law after the property owners had been given notice. "The great majority of the 600 owners warned went to the limit in cooperating with us,' Williams said, "and most of the bootleggers were ejected without it becoming necessary for this vision courses to be taught in Sa- office to proceed against the
