Sperry Flour company was circulating grain and mill feed quotations today which showed price reduction of approximately $2 a ton in all grades.

Summer Fruits Less Plentiful

Highlights of wholesale fruit and vegetable trade were reported by the government market news service as follows:

Several summer fruits are cleaning up, on the Portland market now. The Dalles is contributing watermelons, a few late peaches, and Italian prunes, all of which show wonderfully fine sweet quality. Prunes are in good demand, due to recent ers. lamette valley prune harvesting. Local lettuce is showing improved quality, with resultant slow demand for Puget Sound iced lettuce, which has hitherto topped the local market. are increasing, and quality is improving. Surplus production, available for carlot loading, will materialize in about one more Cranberries declined about 50c per box, from opening prices, to $5.25-$5.50 per box of northwestern berries. Onions are moving very slowly, with liberal supplies from Washington, in addition to offerings from Tualatin and Willamette valley districts.
