Royal Neighbors Have Social Meeting

The Royal Neighbor lodge met in regular session Monday. After a short business meeting a program and miscellaneous show was given honoring four recent brides. Mrs. Katherine Parson Lichty, Mrs. Nadine Long, Mrs. Lucille Holsington, Mrs. Maq Howard.

A miniature wedding was given by the juveniles. After the ceremony, Oracle Frances Hoyt introduced the wedding party. The bride, Anna Hoyt; the groom, Eldon McCully; the maid of honor, Ruth Walker; the best man, Maurice Walker; flower girls, Barbara Botts and Marjorie Peterson; bridesmaids Betty Jean Persons, Lucille Corbin, Lois Hoyt and Phyllis Walker; ring bearer, Frances Aline Hoyt; minister, Dorothy McCully.

The little folks were dressed in frocks of pastel shades of pink, blue and orchid. The bride was lovely in silver and white as was the tiny ring bearer. The maid of honor wore pastel green. The groom and best man were attired in conventional black.

Doris Corbin favored with instrumental and vocal numbers. Betty Jean Persons, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Helen Parsons, gave a vocal number, as did Lucille Corbin, accompanied by her sister, Doris Corbin.

Marjorie Peterson and Laura Cheney gave readings. Barbara Walker accompanied by Lucy Klein gave several violin numbers.

The district deputy, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, was called upon for a few remarks, extended the congratulations of the camp to the four honor brides. After the program the party led by the four brides marched to the dining room where lunch was served.

The luncheon tables were beautifully decorated with late fall flowers and a lovely big brides cake. A clever idea for the shower was worked out with a garden umbrella for the center piece and a table for each of the bride's gifts arranged around it.

Those enjoying the evening besides the honor guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Speed, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Puzel, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker, Mrs. Elizabeth Coates, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Mary Ackerman, Mrs. Ollie Sample, Mrs. Ouisa Capuling, Mrs. Laura Macklin, Miss Virginia Abalt, Mrs. Mary Adlin, Mrs. Vivian Ellis, Mrs. Edna Shepard, Mrs. Minnie Nelson, Mrs. Frances Mahula, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Elizabeth Cheney, Mrs. Ida McCully, Mrs. Azelle Hixon, Mrs. Laveria Fiala, Mrs. Susie E. Parmenter, Mrs. Myrtle Henderson, Mrs. Daisy B. Evans, Miss Laura Cheney, Miss Gertrude Cheney, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Mrs. Zola Peterson, Mrs. Catherine Botts, Mrs. Helen Parsons, Mrs. Julia Blodgett, Miss Mildred Abbott, Mrs. R. Wadsworth, Miss Doris Corbin, Mrs. Hazel Elliott, Mrs. Sarah Harter, Mrs. Rose Abbott, Mr. Hicks, Mr. Wright, Mr. Stever, Mr. James and Mr. Wallace.

Mrs. Leon W. Gleason was hostess for a luncheon followed by bridge at three tables Friday. Guests were members of the Friday bridge club.

Miss Mary Schultz who has been spending her vacation in San Francisco, is now back in Salem again.

Arthur Witcomb, first cornetist and assistant leader in the United States Marine band which will play here October 13, is shown above in a pose with his cornet. Much expectation is being stirred by the appearance of this superb musical organization which so seldom leaves its home in Washington, D. C. There is to be both a matinee and evening performance of the band at the horse show pavilion at the state fairgrounds. The concerts are being sponsored by the Lions' club of Salem.

Mrs. E. S. Prather Is Hostess

Turner—Mrs. E. S. Prather entertained a group of friends from 8 to 10 o'clock Saturday evening for the pleasure of her friend, Mrs. Medelle Eves, who has recently returned from a year's stay in Honolulu.

Mrs. Eves showed descriptive pictures of the islands and told very entertainingly of the life and manners of the Hawaiian people. Games formed a diversion for the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served at the close of a very pleasant evening. Those present were Mrs. D. S. Riches, Mrs. Clifford Enley, Mrs. J. McKinny, Mrs. T. Whitehead, Mrs. U. S. Talbot, Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mrs. E. Ball, Mrs. W. S. Burkyne, Mrs. E. C. Bear, Mrs. D. B. Parks, Mrs. Neal Edwards, Mrs. Madelle Eves, and the hostess, Mrs. E. S. Prather.

Middle Grove—Rev. H. R. Scheuerman and family, Birney, Cecil, Opal and Milton, of Salem, attended a birthday surprise given at the W. H. Scharf home Sunday, in honor of the birthdays of Rev. Scheuerman and W. H. Scharf.

The table was made beautiful with two huge cakes, one with pink and one with green candles. Immediately following the dinner the party motored to Turner to attend the Marion county Christian Endeavor convention.

Hubbard Folk are Birthday Guests

Hubbard—A delightful event was the celebration honoring Mrs. Mary Ryan and her daughter, Mrs. R. V. Parrot, on their birthday anniversaries at the home of the former in Butteville Sunday. Many friends and relatives called during the day to extend greetings.

Mrs. Ryan is a sister of Mrs. James Platz of Hubbard and of Mrs. Clara Case of Donald, also an aunt of Mrs. George Knight of Hubbard.

The guest group included Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Parrot, the guests of honor, William Ryan and daughter, Miss Billie Ryan, Mrs. Ida Yergen, Mrs. Glens Yergen, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Matthele, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scheurer, Mrs. Nora Yergen, Mrs. Grace Ryan, Mrs. Jennie McConnell and Mrs. Cora Winkle, Butteville; Mr. and Mrs. George Knight and Mr. and Mrs. James Platz, Hubbard; John Felner, Mrs. Clara Case, Harold Case, and Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan, Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Shad, Mr. and Mrs. Epperly, Mrs. L. S. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wright, Charles Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lee, Miss Madge Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Calavan and Miss Jenelle Calavan, Portland; Mrs. Joyce Madden, Los Angeles, Cal.; and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Emmet, and Joe Scheurer, Hillsboro.

Woodburn—Miss Hazel Jack was complimented with a delightful wedding shower at her home Saturday afternoon. Before the shower gifts were presented piano selections were given by Mrs. Lowell Davenport, and little Maxine Case; a vocal selection by Phyllis Koenig, and readings by Phyllis Koenig and Lois Seely completed the program.

The gifts were presented small Keith Koenig and Shirley Seely, dressed as bride and groom. The happy afternoon closed with a refreshment hour. About 65 guests called during the afternoon.

Bridge Evening Compliments Bride Elect

Miss Pauline Johnson entertained in compliment to Miss Macyl Hunter, bride elect for October 19, at the Johnson home Monday night. A bridge evening followed by a kitchen shower in compliment to the bride made an unusually attractive social event.

The guest rooms of the Johnson home were beautifully arranged with autumn leaves and yellow daisies. High score for the evening was won by Mrs. Armin Berger and the guest prize went to Miss Hunter. At a late hour Miss Johnson assisted by her mother, Mrs. Clyde Johnson, served supper, and Miss Hunter was presented with her many lovely presents.

Guests for this affair were Miss Hunter, the honor guest, and Miss Charlotte Martin, Miss Wilma Coursey, Miss Laura Wright, Miss Ruth Skinner, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Dona Haven, Miss Ruth Gill, Miss Rita Claggett, Mrs. Armin Berger, Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, Mrs. Ralph Kinzer, Miss June Jackson, Miss Mildred Sexaur.

Salem Heights Woman's Club Meets

Salem Heights—The Woman's club of Salem-Heights met Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the community hall, with Mrs. Belle Douglas, president, in the chair. Reports were heard on the cooking food sale which was held last week, on the canned fruits, which this club sends to the children's farm home at Corvallis.

The following were appointed delegates to the Marion county federation of Women's clubs, to be held at Hubbard October 17: Mrs. Belle Douglas, Mrs. Elizabeth Bohmstedt, Mrs. Stella Caldwell, Mrs. Myra Sawyer and Mrs. Mary McClure.

Mrs. Fordyce Fargo gave a very interesting talk on the District Federation of Clubs, explaining the various features and extended a cordial invitation to the club to attend the institute to be held in Salem November 14. Mrs. Welmer was also a guest and gave greetings from the Salem Woman's club.

Following the business session, Mrs. Ruth Chapman took charge of the program. Miss Josephine Albert, soloist, accompanied by Miss Doris Corbin gave two numbers, and Miss Elma Nell gave two readings.

Mrs. Ivan Martin of Salem explained the various issues and measures that are to be voted upon at the state election. Her talk was amusing as well as instructive by the club. After this interesting program refreshments were served by the hostesses Ruth Senter, Myra Sawyer, Emma Zinser and Olga Davenport.

Mrs. Frank R. Windsor was a recent hostess to members of the Spring Valley missionary society at which time 33 members met for a social and business meeting. During the business meeting a Pollyanna club was organized which will act in cooperation with the Missionary society. Mrs. Charles McCarter, president of the society, presided during the meeting.

A program was given in which appeared Mrs. S. C. Crawford, Mrs. W. N. Crawford, Mrs. W. T. Scott of Salem, and this was followed by reports from Mrs. R. H. Scott, chairman of the visiting committee. A satisfactory report was given by Mrs. W. Frank Crawford concerning the recent food sale. Plans were also made for a gift to be presented to Corine Beatrice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Henry as a customary token of remembrance of the society. Mrs. Helen G. Craig, was welcomed as a new member of the society.

A penny march and refreshments concluded a pleasant meeting of the society.

Mrs. C. W. Paulus Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. C. W. Paulus entertained with a luncheon at her apartment in the Royal Court Monday in compliment to the contract bridge club of which Mrs. Paulus' mother, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, is a member.

The 1 o'clock luncheon was followed by bridge for several hours. Mrs. J. H. Callaghan assisted Mrs. Paulus.

Guests for this affair were Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. A. Bush, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Fritz Slade, and Mrs. James Linn.

Salem Music Plans Growing More Active

There has been on foot for some time in Salem an enthusiastic organization for a Junior symphony orchestra. Various ones interested have been working on the organization of this group for the past several weeks.

A second symphony group is to be discussed Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. social rooms. The leader, it has been announced, will be Prof. Hans R. W. Seltz, long a member of Salem music circles. Several seasons ago Prof. Seltz directed a symphony group in several ambitious concerts.

No definite plans have been announced by the first group who are interested in organizing a symphony orchestra. Prof. William Wallace Graham has been mentioned because of the work done by him last spring during the "music week" community programs. The nucleus for a Junior orchestra that was gathered together at that time did such work as to suggest the continuance of the group this year.

It will be still more interesting musically in Salem if there is to be both a Junior and symphony orchestra to be presented to the music loving public. From the programs which are outlined for the winter there will be little doubt but that music will be a big part of Salem's social life.

One of the outstanding presentations of the winter and one which should augment the symphony concert idea will be the United States Marine band which will play in Salem next Monday afternoon and evening.

This outstanding musical organization of the United States does not often travel afar from its home in Washington, D. C., so that for those who do not expect to be able to make a trip east the privilege extended by the band come here is doubly great.

The Lion's club is sponsoring this excellent program.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Scellars and Mrs. Flora Thomas, mother of Mrs. Scellars, accompanied by Mrs. George Bernhardt, motored to Seattle the past week where they spent several days. On the return from Seattle the group stopped at Tacoma where they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Clark. Mrs. Clark was formerly Miss Margaret Hand of Salem.

Mrs. Verne McIntyre, who was called east by the death of her mother, has again returned to Salem after an extended visit in Phoenix, Arizona, and in Hollywood where she stopped over on her way from the east.

Mrs. Minnie Baker has just returned to Salem after having spent the past six weeks in Los Angeles, Long Beach, and Vancouver, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Humphrey are now occupying their new home on Fairmount hill.

Salem to Have New Voice Instructor

Because of her recent illness, extending through the summer vacation, Minetta Magers will be unable to resume her voice classes in Salem this year, and has chosen Mark Daniels, baritone, to fill her position as teacher and coach here.

Mark Daniels, baritone, who will take charge of the work of Minetta Magers for this fall and winter season, while Miss Magers is recuperating from a serious illness. Mr. Daniels occupies Miss Magers' studio.

Mr. Daniels is now a staff artist on KGW and is soloist for the First Church of Christ Scientist in Portland. For the past several years Mr. Daniels has been a member of the American Grand Opera company, appearing in Chicago and New York.

He will be in Salem each Saturday at the studio of Miss Magers.

War Mothers Make Armistice Day Plans

The local chapter of the American War Mothers started plans for Armistice day at the regular business meeting of Tuesday afternoon at the American Lutheran church. Nothing definite is yet ready to announce concerning the Tuesday discussion.

Hostesses were also appointed for the social meeting which will be October 21. These are Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, Mrs. Clara Farmer, Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, Mrs. Minnie Peitz, Mrs. May B. Salsbury, Mrs. Ella Wilson, and Mrs. Laura George.

A committee of two, Mrs. Valdeia Ohmart and Mrs. May B. Salsbury, were appointed to call those members who have not yet reported at the chapter meetings since the conclusion of the summer vacation. This committee will also call on those members who are reported ill.

Members of the Westway club of the W. E. A. will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Maplethorpe, 295 South 22nd street. All members of the club and also members of the lodge are invited to be present for this meeting.

Willing Workers class of the First Christian church will be the guests of Mrs. B. W. Macy at her home 444 North 18th street, Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. Assistant hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Mary Lou Dunn, Mrs. J. C. Turner, and Mrs. Kinton. Mrs. Will May, teacher of the class, will be present for this meeting.

Social Service Club Meets in Amity

Amity—The Social Service club held a meeting at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George Parry, Mrs. Loop, Mrs. Raleigh Massey and Mrs. Fred Vincent were the hostesses.

A unique program was enjoyed. Seven ladies had an exhibit of antiques, some of which were 100 or more years old.

Mrs. Morrison had a wonderful paisley shawl. Willow ware dishes, fine embroideries and jewelry. Mrs. McGowan had pictures of old homes in Great Britain, brass candle stocks; Mrs. Taylor, an old christening robe more than a century old.

Mrs. Cannell had an antique quilt, bible and song book; Mrs. McNealy a very old black walnut rolling pin and a pewter plate, wedding presents to her grandmother. Mrs. Thomas had pictures of the Guthrie family, from Guthrie, Scotland, ancestral home of the Guthrie family of which Mrs. Thomas' mother was a descendant.

The hostesses served refreshments as a conclusion to an enjoyable afternoon.

Assistant hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Mary Lou Dunn, Mrs. J. C. Turner, and Mrs. Kinton. Mrs. Will May, teacher of the class, will be present for this meeting.

"Old Edinburg" Topic Woman's Club Meeting

Salem Woman's club will have a busy meeting this Friday at the clubhouse at which time there will be a program and in addition plans will be made and delegates elected for the county federation meeting in Hubbard, October 17. An executive board meeting will precede the business and program meeting.

Prof. Morton E. Peck will be the speaker for the program hour and will take as his topic, "Old Edinburg," and giving in this talk first hand information and impressions gathered by him and Mrs. Peck while they were visiting there in the course of their European tour a year ago.

An additional attractive event for the program will be the group of songs to be presented by Mrs. Gladys Collins of Independence.

The first meeting of the winter season for the south division of the First Presbyterian church women will be Friday at one o'clock in the church parlors. A covered dish luncheon will start the afternoon. All members of last year and any new member of the church who lives in this district is invited to come and join the Friday meeting.

Mrs. George L. Forge and Mrs. A. L. Wallace will entertain this afternoon with the last of a series of three parties for this week. Monday a luncheon was given, Tuesday an afternoon bridge tea and cards again this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Jarman of Chelan, Washington, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a girl born the last week in September. Mr. and Mrs. Jarman were formerly of Salem.
