Party Series Is Lovely Event Of Week

The fall season for society was ushered in this week with a delightful series of parties for which Mrs. G. L. Forge and Mrs. A. L. Wallace were hostesses. The first of the series was a luncheon with covers for 22 at the Elks club and this followed with an afternoon of bridge.

A bridge tea was given Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon at the Elks temple. Cards were in play in the woman's reception room, and tea was served in the dining room. The tea tables were artistically arranged with fall flowers which carried out the color scheme used throughout the series for both the card rooms and the dining room.

Fall shades were the colors used in a profusion of flowers and autumn leaves. Tally cards were done in interesting modernistic design which added a gay note of color to the tables.

Honors for the three days went to Mrs. Ralph Glover and Mrs. Hans W. Seitz Monday; Mrs. Kitty Graver and Mrs. Sam Laughlin Tuesday; Mrs. B. B. Flick and Mrs. Paul Hauser Wednesday. Mrs. V. R. Griggs who has only recently come from Havre, Montana, to make her home in Salem, and with whom Mrs. Forge has been a very close friend for several years, was given a special guest prize to the renewed friendship.

Dallas Woman's Club Outlines Program

Dallas — The Dallas Woman's club held its first meeting in the library here, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Henkle, president for the coming two years, presided. A report read by Mrs. Ivan Warner, secretary, stated that the sale of the lot owned by the club to the Presbyterian church brought over $855, outside of the street improvements which the church assumed.

Mrs. J. R. Allgood, chairman of the program committee, outlined the program for the coming year. Among speakers will be Dean Hewitt of Willamette university in November; Mrs. M. J. Butler of Independence in January; a visit from the McMinnville club women in February; a luncheon in March for Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, Miss Louise Cottrell and Mrs. Charles Bilyeu.

William Crawford, a representative of the utility taxpayers committee, talked to the club members on some of the measures to appear on the November ballot. Mrs. Bilyeu spoke briefly about the district work of the state federation.

Mrs. J. C. Collins of Independence sang a group of two songs, and Miss Rachel Uglow played two violin numbers. Both were accompanied by Mrs. G. P. MacGregor.

Formal Dinner Attractive Event

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis entertained with a formal 7:30 o'clock dinner Tuesday night at their home in North Salem. Fall flowers made an attractive centerpiece for the dinner table at which were seated Miss Helen Pemberton, Miss Harriett Hageman, Homer Roberts, Everett Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis. Following dinner cards were in play for several hours.

Scio — A birthday dinner was enjoyed Sunday in honor of Enoch Shelton's 63rd birthday at the home of his son, Raleigh.

Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shelton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Beardsley and little daughter, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Shelton and daughter, Ardith, and Miss Marie Lane of Scio.

The guest rooms of the Entress home were beautifully arranged with fall flowers in shades of rose, lavender, and orchid. Mrs. H. G. Carl assisted Mrs. Entress at the tea hour.

Teachers Will be Complimented Today

One of the outstanding affairs for the members of the school staff of Salem will be the reception which will be observed today between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock in the social rooms of the Masonic temple. All teachers of Salem are invited to call during these hours.

Guests will be greeted by a line headed by Superintendent George Hug, Mrs. Sylvia Kraps, president of the teachers association, Miss Mary Eyre, Mrs. Maybelle Burch, Miss Elva Nilsson, Lloyd Siegmund, Miss Carlotta Crowley, Miss Lina Heist, and Miss Esther Long.

Music will be a part of the reception hours and this will be under the direction of Lena Belle Tartar.

Those who will assist during the social hours are Mrs. Grace Wolgamott, Mrs. Clara Pomeroy, Mrs. Dorothy Daugherty, Miss Gretchen Kreamer and Mrs. Mildred Wyatt.

Members of the Three Links club will meet at the I. O. F. hall Friday for a one o'clock luncheon and following this there will be a program and business meeting. All members of the Rebekah lodge are invited for this social and business meeting.

Scotts Mills — The R. N. A. club held its first meeting for the winter, Wednesday afternoon in the hall. Refreshments were served following the business meeting. Mrs. Wm. Fry and Mrs. W. F. Geren will be joint hostesses for the next meeting to be held the first Friday in November in the hall.

FOR ANY CHILD

CHILDREN are happy and carefree by nature, so when they cry for no apparent reason any careful mother worries. No one can always guess just what is wrong but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as baby has a fretful spell, is feverish and cross and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes it's constipation. Just keep Castoria handy and give freely for any of the above conditions; relief will follow promptly.

Silver Wedding Is Gala Event

Monmouth — Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell Jr., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday, October 4, at their farm home south of Monmouth. Forty friends and relatives spent the evening with them, in an informal reception, many of the guests being members of Monmouth grange.

Rev. Victor P. Morris of the Monmouth Christian church, read the wedding service, with Miss Lena Frizzell as bridesmaid, and R. O. Dodson, acting as best man. Frances Frizzell caught Mrs. Riddell's bouquet after the ceremony.

Mrs. Riddell pleased her guests with her comments, offered in verse, of the many joys and desirabilities of life which had fallen to her lot in 25 years of wedded life.

Appropriated refreshments were served, and Mr. and Mrs. Riddell were presented with a handsome gift of silver in compliment to the event.

Mrs. Frank Spears Is Club Hostess

One more club to begin the fall and winter season was the Tuesday club and Mrs. Frank Spears was hostess for this first meeting with a charming luncheon and an afternoon of cards Tuesday at her home.

Brilliant fall flowers made an attractive luncheon table at which were seated Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Max Hofer of Portland, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Frederick Dekebach.

Cards completed a happy first meeting for the club.

Billy Mudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd is taking work this winter with Ellison-White conservatory under the direction of Miss Doris Smith, author and director of "Rosario."

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Griggs of Havre, Montana, have recently come to Salem to make their home. Mrs. Griggs is being complimented at several social affairs.

All through babyhood, Castoria is a mother's standby, and wise mothers do not change to stronger medicines as the child grows older. Just increase the dose of Castoria and keep the youngster's stomach sweet and the bowels in good order.

To be sure of getting genuine Fletcher's Castoria you should look for this signature: Dr. H. H. Fletcher

Bridge tea Will Be Brilliant Event

A brilliant social event of the week will be the bridge tea for which Mrs. W. L. Phillips and Mrs. Douglas McKay will entertain this afternoon at the McKay home.

The guest rooms will be beautifully arranged in gay fall flowers. Wee Miss Mary Lou, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKay, will meet the guests at the door and distribute the tally cards.

Those assisting Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Phillips are Mrs. C. G. Olson, Mrs. Ellsworth Ricketts, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. Robert Shinn, Mrs. Ted Chambers, and Mrs. Sterling Smith.

A quality you would want if you knew all the facts

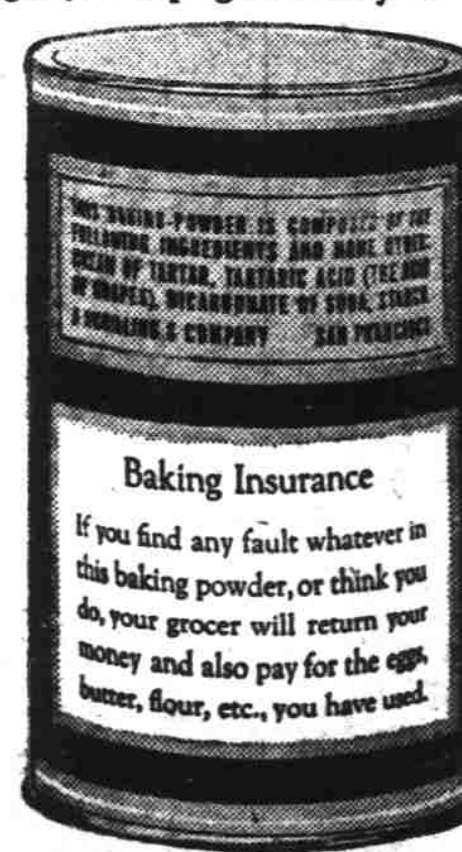

Always look on the labels. The Pure Food Laws were passed for your protection. They demand that certain vital facts regarding a product be stated on its package label. You will find them there, if you look for them. Sometimes they are important -- quite important in the case of baking powder.

LOOK for the words "Cream of Tartar" in the list of ingredients. All baking powders were originally cream of tartar products. Then cheaper substitutes appeared. These substitutes were quite acceptable to some women. But a cream of tartar baking powder is almost the unanimous choice of domestic science authorities, pure food departments, dietitians and doctors, the world over. Such a preponderance of expert opinion is the Schilling guide. The substitutes may be alright—but why compromise with anything but the finest?

LOOK on the Schilling label for the moneyback guarantee. Read it carefully. It is far more than a mere gesture of good-will. Unusual as it is, it means just what it says. Only a baking powder, sure and pure, could possibly carry such an offer. Cream of Tartar! Baking Insurance! That's the Schilling way of keeping faith with you.

There are 43 facts about Schilling products—for the woman who believes that fine things are worth looking for.
