MISSIONARY SPEAKS HERE

Miss Dorothy Hue, on Furlough from Africa, to Visit Tabernacle

The Alliance tabernacle is pleased to announce for the coming Sabbath a visit from Miss Dorothy Hue, returned missionary from the West Africa, who will speak both morning and evening at the tabernacle. Miss Hue is a missionary of experience, having spent several years in this field and is now home on furlough. She comes recommended as an interesting and forceful speaker.

Thursday night, October 16, Rev. G. W. of New York City, home secretary of general board of C. O. M. A. will give a message of general interest at the tabernacle. Many who attended the conference held in Salem last October will remember Rev. Brown's message and will desire to hear him again.

The Alliance has had farewells for four of the young people who are leaving this week for Bible school. The Misses Carol Riser, Winnifred and Helen Rand who will attend the North Pacific Evangelistic Institute the coming year, and Henry Reuchel who will attend the Interdenominational Bible school at Three Hills, Alberta, Can. The church surprised the young people with many beautiful and useful gifts to help them in their efforts to equip themselves for Christian service. Many

THEY BRING MESSAGE OF WORLD MISSIONS

World Church Mission Will be Told by Team Of six Leaders Monday

The world mission of Christianity will be brought to Salem church people and others interested in a two-day series of meetings to be held Monday and Tuesday, October 13 and 14, at the First Methodist church. The series given under auspices of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, will bring here probably the strongest team of Christian missionary leaders ever assembled in the northwest. Six leaders sent out by the board of foreign missions of the church to further acquaint the folk of this country with work done in the mission fields will appear here, each to take active part in the program Monday, which is open to the public. Tuesday the sessions will be open to ministers only, when a discussion group will be led by Dr. M. A. Marey, superintendent of the Salem district.

HOLINESS GROUP TO MEET TUESDAY

The monthly meeting of the Marion County Holiness association which is sponsored by about 15 churches is to be held in the Church of the Nazarene Tuesday of next week.

This meeting will be of special interest because of the fact that the sessions will be a farewell to three outgoing missionaries to China, J. J. Trachsel, Miss L. L. Argola, and Miss Bessie Cordell. Also Rev. C. W. Ruth of Pasadena, California, nationally known evangelist will be with the party of missionaries and scheduled to speak.

The chairman of the sessions will be Rev. M. A. Bishop of Cleveland, Ohio, who is national missionary secretary for the Holiness association. The sessions Tuesday are to be held at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. A large number of visitors from nearby cities will attend these services.

"All Are Welcome"

(By The Church Editor)
If this were a sermon, the "text" would be taken from the last line of most any church notice which reaches this newspaper office. This last sentence is variously phrased: "You are welcome to all our services"; "Everyone welcome"; "All cordially invited to attend"; and similar-wise.

Because of these last lines, the church editor has today usually this space which is intended for ministers only, and wants to ask a friendly question. Aren't those last sentences useless? Maybe you folk who write the church notices have observed that they are consistently deleted, or at least the C. E. tries to make them that way.

Is it necessary to tell anyone that he or she is welcome to a church service? Are not the doors of every Salem church open wide and friendly to believer and non-believer, member and non-member? Of course they are! Possibly no one ever thought of doubting it.

There is why the church editor takes the liberty of drawing a heavy black pencil mark through the well-meaning welcome appended to so many church notices. It's bad psychology to tell folk they are welcome to church; they ought to know that, to take it for granted. Isn't it a poor church, a poor minister, who doesn't make a newcomer feel—better by action than by word—that he is heartily welcome to that church home?

There, ministers, you know why that last line is invariably omitted. And there, reading public, you know why the editor of this page believes it isn't necessary for you to verbally welcome in advance to the church and Sunday school sessions held regularly in Salem.

And now, let's make it final and positive; unless a given event is limited by the words "for So and So only!"

ALL ARE WELCOME!

SPECIAL SERVICES HONOR ORGANIST

At a special musical service designed to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the service of Prof. T. S. Roberts as organist at First Methodist church, and to dedicate the Carrier Memorial chimes, the following program will be featured Sunday evening:

- Anthems—"Fear Not Ye O Israel." Spicker. Incidental solo, Miss Eleanor Moore, Ronald Craven, R. D. Bayton. "King All Glorious." Barnby.
- Trio—"Prayer." from "Attalia" by Verdi—Miss Moore, Mr. Craven, Prof. Cameron Marshall.
- Men's Chorus: "Blessed is He That Readeth." Colburns.
- Organ Recital by Professor Roberts, five numbers: "Andante Cantabile" from string quartet by Tschalkowski. "Home Sweet Home," from the transcription by Dudley Buck. "The Adoration," from "The Holy City"—Gaul. "Where Dust Gathers Deep"—Stebbins. Aria "Regliosa"—Demarest. Piana and organ. Miss Gretchen Thiesen and Prof. Roberts.
- Walter Winslow, president of the official board, will deliver a brief address.

Ward Will use 'Weary River' Movie Picture

"Weary River" starring Richard Barthelmess and a very interesting penitentiary picture, will be used in the illustrated service at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night at the First Congregational church. How prisoners are photographed from straitjackets will be shown in this story of a man who honestly tried to reform. The homely philosophy of the warden about "the weariest river must find its way to the sea" awakened the stumbling goodness within the prisoner and caused him to turn from a life of crime. The minister will speak on "Some Causes of Crime." Children must be accompanied by their parents.

First Church Night Event Big Success

An enthusiastic group attended the church night supper Thursday night at the Ford Memorial M. E. community church. Following the meal was a short program. Miss Ruth Ross played a piano number; Wesley Warren gave a whistling solo; a trio from the Epworth league sang; and Mrs. Guy Newgent sang a solo. The following heads of their departments gave talks regarding plans for the coming year: Mrs. J. W. Simmon for board of the church; Miss Nellie Badley for the choir; J. W. Simmon for the board of trustees; Miss Cora Mason for the Junior League; A. C. Henningsen for the Boys' Reserves; Mrs. J. W. Simmon for the Women's Missionary Society; Mrs. A. C. Henningsen for the Sunday school and intermediate league; Lyle Thomas for the Epworth league and Rev. M. A. Groves for the friendly Indians and general church work. Plans were started for a similar occasion a little later in the year.

Luther League Folk to Give Report of Meet

Reports on the Luther League convention will be given at the young people's hour at the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday. At this meeting plans will also be made to affiliate with the general Luther league of the newly merged American Lutheran church. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE AT HALFWAY MARK

Y. M. C. A. annual membership renewal week has passed the half-way mark in money raised with $8,994 now in its fund and promised. This amounts for 218 new and renewed memberships.

Rev. C. E. Ward, pastor of the First Congregational church, addressed the men's committee at the noon luncheon yesterday. Thomas B. Kay, chairman, presided and spoke a few words. The goals for the week are 400 renewals and 150 new members. Optimism and enthusiasm prevail in the minds of the workers. Both Rev. Ward and Mr. Kay stressed the position of the Y. M. C. A. in the community and its importance to public welfare. Mr. Kay is a member of the board of directors of the local association and has been for some time. Rev. Ward is a member of the championship volleyball team and has two sons in the boys' department roster.

Portland man To Occupy Local Pulpit Sunday

Annual harvest and home missionary Sunday will be observed Sunday in the Reformed church, of which Rev. W. G. Lienkaemper is pastor. In observance of the occasion, the women of the church will serve a meal in the church parlors. A special missionary service will be held at 2 o'clock that afternoon, at which Rev. A. F. Lienkaemper of Portland will be the speaker. The choir will sing "My Salvation and My Glory" and "Crown Him Lord" by Ira B. Wilson.

Foulke will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Airplanes To Welcome Church Body

The church fathers sang "Our Souls Can Never Fly, Nor Go to Reach Eternal Glory" but not so the Knight Memorial church. The presence of airplanes in the church Sunday and for the pleasure of the children, a balloon ascension following the program, will indicate the air-mindedness of the people. Dr. F. E. Brown, pilot, will demonstrate the plane's construction. Vernon Bushnell will point out the beacons; Frances Oliver will describe the scenery; Mrs. Asa Fisher will speak of the lives and messages carried by the plane; Mrs. Arthur Barnard calls attention to the hazard of flying and the pastor solicits passengers. Admission will be only by ticket which may be obtained at the door free.

New Women's Group Lays Many Plans

The newly organized Women's Missionary society of the Ford Memorial church held its monthly business meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rose Burleigh. Mrs. J. B. Smith, chairman of social life committee, announced the place of the next Silver tea to be at the community kitchen of Mrs. H. R. McDowell's on October 23. Mrs. J. E. Tolson announced plans for an election day dinner. Plans for attending the W. F. M. S. meeting at McMinnville October 22 and the Ladies' Aid rally at Independence on October 23 were also discussed.
