BEATS TROJAN ELEVEN 7 TO 6

Game all Cougars' in First Period, U. S. C. Comes Back in Fourth

By CLEVE WILLIAMS
ROGERS FIELD, Pullman, Wash., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Washington State scaled the heretofore topless towers of Troy today, beating Southern California gridmen, 7 to 6.

The second and third quarters were mad melees of embattled berserks, with each team alternating hammering line drives with aerial shots, the line of skirmish wavering up and down the field, with the heavy guns of each side, Schwartz, Ellingsen and Lainhart of the Cougars, and Duffield, Mohler and Musick of the Trojans, shooting through or over the line. The state of the game, however, was in the hands of the U. S. C. lost by failing to convert a point after a touchdown. They were evenly matched for the greater part of the battle. The one point which has haunted Coach Jones at U. S. C. before, accounted for the Cougar win.

Cougars Pound
W. S. C. scored in the first period by a pounding offensive of Lainhart, Schwartz and Ellingsen. Duffield of Trojans kicked out of bounds on Southern California's 25 yard line. The three strongest claws of the Cougars alternated with short smashes at the line for two first downs and the ball was on U. S. C.'s three yard line. Schwartz hammered over center for a yard and a half. Lainhart smashed the line for a touchdown and Maskell place kicked.

With backs to the wall, U. S. C. started a fourth quarter rally which rolled up yardage like a snowball going down hill on Christmas. U. S. C. had a first down on the Trojan 47 yard line. U. S. C. bucked the line a while, then Mohler sneaked through the line for 15 yards and first down. Apst grasped a pass and an opportunity, and tore down the field for 20 yards in the most sensational play of the game, brushing off Cougar tacklers as if they were flies. Baker's place kick failed because Mel Hein, W. S. C. center, pounded on the U. S. C. center, causing him to make a poor pass to Mohler for Baker to kick.

The ball dropped from Mohler's hands, fumbled about and was recovered before it could be kicked. Half a dozen states had broken through by that time.

BEARS BEAT GAELS ONE POINT MARGIN

BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 11.—(AP)—The University of California football team defeated St. Mary's 7 to 6 here today by coming from behind to win one of the hardest fought games ever witnessed in the California Memorial stadium.

The Gaels scored first, making up a touchdown in the first quarter when Bud Trossel, halfback, carried the ball across the goal from the three yard line after a march down the field. The attempted conversion was wide.

The Bears scored their touchdowns in the opening minutes of the last period on a four yard pass from Hank Schaldach to Russ Avery who took the ball over the goal line. Schaldach then dropped back and drop-kicked the ball over the uprights for the point that won the game.

Stops 'em

John Hurley, Washington State end, who played a big part in turning back the U.S.C. attack at Pullman Saturday.

CURT COMMENTS
Fallelujah! The old California supremacy took a awful wallop that time. Just the margin of a point after touchdown, but that was one case where fortune favored the deserving, judging from the radio report. Washington State had everything its own way in the first period, allowing U. S. C. not a first down; and the second period was almost a repetition. Again in the third the Cougars piled up the yardage but couldn't get past that last chalk mark. In the fourth, Howard Jones' raft of reserves made their showing. Hollingbery from choice or necessity keeping his first stringers in practically all at Seattle.

Up at the game, where Washington's game was finished ahead of the one at Pullman, the Washington students kept their seats and listened to the radio report of the Pullman game, and the report is that the yell when the game ended with W. S. C. ahead, couldn't have been any more deafening if it had been a Husky victory over the same foe.

Now we wonder if Washington is different from Oregon in that respect? Would the rooters at Eugene have done that, hearing a similar report from Corvallis, or vice versa? We're just asking, we don't know. When Drake was ahead of Oregon the other day, a local O. S. C. grad made a show of "whooping" but we judged he was just kidding. He didn't sound very sincere.

Comparing Whitman's and College of Idaho's scores against Puget Sound, one would judge Whitman to be the big threat in the Northwest conference. But don't forget, Puget Sound traveled over to the hamlet of Walla Walla's high altitude to play Whitman, and Anse Cornell's outfit traveled to Tacoma for Saturday's game. A big difference, take it from us; though the high altitude team hasn't handicapped so much coming down to the coast.

And then the spine-supporting influence of the home crowd of rooters is a factor, too.

Which will make it all the harder for the Willamette team to hold College of Idaho at Caldwell Saturday. The cardinal and gold rooters better show some spirit this week before the boys leave, or by their fault if the Coyotes triumph. We're telling you.

CARNEGIE MARCHES THROUGH GEORGIA

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 11.—(AP)—A versatile Carnegie Tech football team began "marching through Georgia" at the opening of its intersectional battle in the Pitt stadium today with Georgia Tech and continued for three of four quarters to win, 31 to 0.

Georgia Tech was prepared to respect the plaid's vaunted line offensive but was caught off guard by a mingled lateral and forward pass attack and the southerners' defense crumbled to make way for five touchdowns. Captain Dreher Carnegie left guard, booted over one of the five placement attempts. Forty thousand fans attended.

PACIFIC BEATS LINFIELD 12-0

Forest Grove Eleven up in First Place now With Whitman, Idaho

By FRANK GORRIE
WASHINGTON STADIUM, Seattle, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The battle-scarred and worn-out little band of Idaho sophomores that finally bowed to the heavy University of Washington football team, 27 to 0, in a Pacific Coast conference grid game today.

The University of Idaho Vandals played the Husky eleven on even terms until they played themselves out, holding the score to 7 to 0 in the first half, but fast becoming tired and weary in the last half. The Idahoans were easy prey for three onre touch-downs by the ever changing Husky combination.

Washington counted one touchdown in the second period, another in the third and two in the fourth. Led by a whirling, dancing lily in the person of George Wilson, 154 pound sophomore quarterback, the Vandals opened with a surprise attack that netted three first downs for a total of 22 yards and put the ball on Washington's 26 yard line. The Huskies finally halted the Vandals three different chances to score. A long pass carried Chergberg to Bledsoe finally carried Washington out of danger and the battle waged in midfield over the middle of the second period when two fumbles gave the Vandals three different chances to score. Inspired Minnesota Linemen Stave off Touchdowns By Mere Inches

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Inspired Gopher forwards, fighting with a desperation of underdogs, arose to unexpected heights to halt the brilliant offensive of Stanford's giant backs to record a scoreless tie in the first meeting of the two teams here today.

Six times did the power of Glenn S. (Pop) Warner's attack threaten to score for the western eleven, but each time the Gopher line battled the visitors to a standstill to a completely unexpected end for the squad of Coach Fritz Crisler.

Once in the game's most spirited point, Stanford got to the Gopher's one yard line but could go no further despite the flash and power of Phil Moffatt, Harlow Rothert and Harry Hillman, ace of the Cardinal attack. The final desperate effort to score was made by the Californians two minutes before the game ended. Warner sent Rudy Rinta, kicking specialist, in for Moffatt, but despite excellent protection from Gopher interference Rintala's carefully executed placekick went wide of the uprights, and the last threat of the Californians to score had failed.

Uclas Defeat Pomona Eleven

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The advantage of the breaks, the University of California at Los Angeles grid eleven today defeated Pomona college 21 to 0 before a mere handful of spectators.

Big Black Bear Trophy Brought Back by Mathis

A big black bear, so large two men could not carry it, was shot recently by Dr. J. O. Mathis and his son, Claude, and William Trindler Jr. while on a hunting junket into the South Umpqua territory at Drew.

The party got the bear the first morning they were in the woods. On the same day they saw numerous deer but no horned deer. Mathis bagged a four-point deer in the Drew vicinity. On the second trip the men intended to secure a packer and a guide, but none were available and the hunting trip was cut short.

GOYPHERS HOLD STANFORD MEN

Joe Savoldi Big Hero at Notre Dame

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 11.—(AP)—The first hero in the lore of Notre Dame's $750,000 stadium is none less than the renowned "rod carrier" from Three Oaks, Michigan, "Galloping Joe" Savoldi.

Piercing through the navy's steel plated defense when all the rest of Knute Rockne's famous "knack troops" failed, Savoldi made the dedication ceremony for the new stadium a perfect one today by leading Notre Dame to a 26 to 2 victory over the Middles.

Three times did "Galloping Joe," whose muscles are steeled each summer by carrying a hod of bricks, crash through and around the navy wall for touchdowns and many more times did he back up a staggering line with a brand of unbeatable defensive play.

The thing of interest now is what kind of a team Columbia university high will send against the red and black this week. Two weeks ago the Cliff Dwellers beat Tillamook 13 to 0. That means they will probably have a few more games behind them this season than the locals. Another thing of some importance too is the fact that they have the Columbia university football team to copy after and that team is doing very well this season.

SALEM HIGH FACES COLUMBIA 11 NEXT

After winning their first game without injury to any of the players, the Salem high cheer wearers are now looking to the game with Columbia University high to be played here Friday or Saturday of this week.

While some are of the opinion that 14 to 0 was not a very big lead over Silverton, let it be understood that Silverton has a strong team for the size of the school. Two weeks ago they beat Molalla and last Friday Molalla beat Dallas 43 to 0. It was also Salem high's first game and the first football game in which either quarterback for Salem had played.

Hartley to be Norblad Guest

Governor Hartley of Washington will attend the Oregon-Washington football classic in Portland Saturday as the guest of Governor Norblad, the Oregon executive was advised yesterday. Governor Hartley will be accompanied by four other Washington officials, all of whom will be guests of Governor Norblad at the game and at a dinner afterwards.

REAL ESTATE HERE ACTIVE IS REPORT

Much activity in real estate so far this fall is reported by the Leo N. Childs company, local realtors who have closed recently eight sales totaling $24,400.

An interesting sidelight on the real estate activity is the fact that an unusually large amount are either for all or part cash," says Mr. Childs. Installment purchasing is exceedingly quiet, he says.

The following deals are announced by the company: Mrs. Gladson purchased a home at 2083 Maple avenue from Esther Grover.

Perry L. Wiggins purchased a residence from Allie M. Griner located at 1135 Rural avenue. Mrs. A. J. Wood has sold her 10 acre tract near Marion, Oregon to Arthur Tucker.

Bobby Jones Favors new Golf Pellet

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Bobby Jones believes a properly hit drive in calm air with the new golf ball will be, on average, not more than five yards shorter than the same drive with the old ball.

"I like it," the gold champion said of the ball that will become official after January 1. Jones gave it as his opinion that with the wind against the drive the distance with the new ball will be proportionately less, and with the wind behind the drive, it will be longer, but not proportionately so.

"For the reason," he said, "that as it nears the end of its course on the fly, its speed will be less than that of the wind."

GEORGIA DEFEATS YALE TEAM AGAIN

YALE BOWL, New Haven, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The University of Georgia started sensationally and finished brilliantly to beat Yale today, 18 to 14, before a crowd of 45,000 excited spectators in the Yale bowl. It was the second Georgia victory in two years over the Eli and the third in the last four games played.
