

Record Attendance Marks Pomona Grange Meeting

POMONA FOLK HOLD MEETING

Fairfield Grange Entertains Marion County Pomona At Gervais

GERVAIS, Oct. 16 — Between 200 and 300 from all parts of the county and all over the state were at Gervais Wednesday to attend the quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange, Fairfield grange as hosts. During the forenoon session officers were seated by the drill team of Fairfield grange. At noon the visitors were guests at Fairfield grange at dinner served at the Parish hall when 250 were seated at one time.

The first part of the afternoon session was open; then the fifth degree was given and the meeting again thrown open to the public. F. V. McAdoo, representing Mayor Moisan, gave the address of welcome.

A program was given as follows: song by Mrs. A. L. Collins, Mrs. F. H. Van Trump, Mrs. D. B. DuRette and Mrs. Hill, with Mrs. F. L. Waters of Salem, director, and Miss Ruth Palmer at the piano. Mrs. Hill gave a reading; Mrs. D. V. Ballweber, Mrs. Pitzer and Mrs. Hall sang with Miss Ballweber at the piano. Mrs. Lena Krenz gave a vocal solo, Mrs. Floyd Fox accompanying.

Meier Lauded
Lecturer F. S. Bowers next introduced George Joseph, Jr., who in a few well chosen words eulogized Julius Meier and recommended him to the members of the grange as one well qualified to carry out the principals of his father, the late Senator George W. Joseph. Dr. O. H. Holmes was next introduced and further voiced what Mr. Joseph had said.

Mr. Meier was next introduced and was loudly applauded. He came to the platform. In his talk Mr. Meier said he wanted to be governor because he wanted to serve the people of the state. He touched on municipal ownership and made some comparisons between municipal and privately owned public utilities.

Officers Present
The following officers were seated at the meeting Wednesday: Master, L. S. Lambert; Overseer, F. L. Matthew; Lecturer, F. S. Bowers; Steward, C. H. Taylor; assistants, substituted by Winnie Tate; Chaplain, Anna Ferris; treasurer, F. H. Van Trump; Secretary, Eva Jones; Gate Keeper, Ellis Stevens; Censor, Helen Wiesner; Pomona, Mrs. G. A. Sandner; Flora, Carrie E. Taylor; Lad Assistant, Steward, substituted by Mrs. Winnie Tate.

In a poster contest North Howell grange won both first and second prizes. There are 13 granges in the county and all were present Wednesday. Sister Patton was the oldest member present. She has lived in Salem and in the Waldo Hills during all this time.

The January meeting of the grange will be held at Macleay with North Howell as assistant host.

All granges reported a gain in membership and interest in the work.

GERVAIS OFFICERS ARE NOMINATED

GERVAIS, Oct. 16 — At the call of the mayor voters of the city met at the city hall Wednesday night to nominate a mayor, city recorder, treasurer and three councilmen.

Molsan was nominated for mayor, I. V. McAdoo for recorder, F. A. Mangold for treasurer and C. A. Sawyer, A. DeJardin and William Allsup for councilmen, all to succeed themselves except I. V. McAdoo, who was nominated instead of M. D. Henning, the present mayor. Mr. Molsan has been on the council for about 25 years as councilman and Mayor Mr. Mangold has been treasurer for several years. Mr. DeJardin has served four years as councilman and Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Allsup have served for two or more years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERTAINED

CLEAR LAKE, Oct. 16 — The junior girls Sunday school class entertained the intermediate girls with a slumber party Friday night. The evening was spent in games and stunts followed by refreshments and an early breakfast was enjoyed Saturday morning.

Present were Pearl Jones, Neva Smith, Nellie Clement, Mina May Beckner, Evelyn Beckner, Martha Robertson, Ada Mae Smith, Lu-nelle Chapin, Evelyn Cain, Orel Smith, and Mildred and Marjorie Hubbs of Silvertown, Loraine Russell of Kiefer, and their teachers, Miss Marie Harold and Miss Alice Massey.

HUBBARD PUPILS TO LEARN FIRST AID

HUBBARD, Oct. 16 — Miss Juanita Johnson, county nurse for the Hubbard nursing district, started a course in first aid for the eighth grade here Wednesday. She will give one lesson of 45 minutes each every week during the school year.

HINDU DISCOVERS MEXICAN IDOL

Professor Pandurang Khankhoje, a Hindu savant, standing beside the huge idol, said to be the largest of its kind in America, which he discovered in the District of Texcoco, near Mexico City. The figure, 32 1/2 feet high, 17 feet 10 inches thick, has been called an "archaeological gem" by local scientists. It is said to be the image of a water goddess worshipped by the peoples who ruled Mexico ages ago.

SURELY, IT IS A BEAN

SILVERTON, Oct. 15 — On display at the Homeowner's agency is a New Guinea butter bean measuring five feet in length, and it is the bean and not the plant that is measured.

The bean was grown by L. M. Koon who lives on Orchard street at Silvertown. The vegetable almost resembles a gourd and is used for both pickling and baking. This bean with a display of other Silvertown grown articles, including grain, corn, walnuts, filberts and hay, is to be sent to Los Angeles for the branch office there of the Oregon State chamber of commerce.

JOHN R. CRONK DIES AT AMITY

AMITY, October 16 — John R. Cronk passed away at his home in Amity, Wednesday, October 15, at the age of 82 years, nine months and 21 days.

He was born at Chicopee, Mass., in 1847 and came to Oregon in 1883 and settled at Globe, Oregon, where he homesteaded in 1885. Leaving his wife on the claim he went to Portland to work at the trade of harness maker; he was the first one to make a buggy harness in Portland for the firm of Bennett and Harvey.

Mr. Cronk came to Amity in 1905 following his trade as harness maker until about a year ago when he retired because of ill health. He is survived by Earl B. Cronk and Mrs. Etta Day. The funeral services will be held at Ladd's Funeral Home at McMinnville Friday, October 17, at 2:30 p. m. Services in charge of Masonic lodge.

Hotel Need Is Cited

SILVERTON, Oct. 16 — An amusing letter of congratulations on the work of organizing a hotel fund at Silvertown was received by the hotel committee composed of Alf O. Nelson and Robert Duncan. The letter was mailed from La Grande and was signed by "One Who Makes Silvertown Regularly But Never Stops Over Night." The missive offered the committee congratulations on its work in starting the hotel movement.

Mr. Duncan reported Wednesday that only seven more names were needed to complete the amount necessary to the beginning of the survey for a hotel here.

Farmers in several sections of Georgia have made plans for "live-at-home" programs next year.

NEW ENVOY

President Hoover has appointed J. Rueben Clark, former Under Secretary of State, as Ambassador to Mexico, succeeding Dwight W. Morrow, who resigned to run for Senator from New Jersey. Clark served as "Special Ambassador" to Mexico while Morrow was in London.

MORONI-OLSEN ON FAREWELL

"The Ship" to be Presented At Oregon Normal School

MONMOUTH, Oct. 16 — The First Circuit Repertory company of Moroni Olsen players will present "The Ship," by St. John Ervine, at the Oregon Normal school Monday evening, October 27. Deft, ironical, human, the story of "The Ship," is one that holds the attention of the audience and compels its thought long after the old woman has turned off the lights and the play is ended. It has proved one of the most popular and successful in the repertory of more than 30 dramas, which the Moroni Olsen players have built up.

Company Popular
This company, organized in 1923 in a loft over a grocery store in Ogden, Utah, is now in its eighth season and has grown to encompass all circuits all of the northwestern states and California and Nevada. Following this tour, the company will disband and its members will dis-

Hazel Green Regrets Loss Of Civil War Veteran and His Pastor Daughter

HAZEL GREEN, Oct. 16 — Rev. Miss Lella Luckey and her father James Luckey are moving to Portland and will be missed by the community.

Mr. Luckey is a Civil War veteran who joined the 6 Indiana regiments, September 18, 1861, at Columbia, Ind. He was with Grant opening the Mississippi river. During the battles at and near Shiloh the army suffered for food, eating green corn which caused dysentery.

Mr. Luckey was at Murphysboro, Chicamuga and Mission Ridge. He saw the "battle above the clouds" at Lookout Mt. He was with Sherman from Chattanooga to Atlanta. His enlistment expired at Atlanta and he returned to his home, having been in service three years. He marched through Georgia to Atlanta they were in skirmishes constantly. For 60 days there was not a day but what they could hear bullets whizzing through the air. Mr. Luckey was a pioneer in Kansas going there in the spring of 1870 when only one railroad, the Kansas Pacific crossed the state from east to west. He homesteaded 75 miles from Solomon City, the nearest railroad station. He walked 75 miles to the edge of the settled territory where there were only Indians. Mr. and Mrs. Luckey and their daughter came to Oregon about ten years ago. The couple celebrated their golden wedding a few years before Mrs. Luckey's death in 1927. "Grandfather Luckey" as he is known is very active. This spring he went with a party to the mountains near Cascadia and astonished some of the younger folk by his climbing. Mr. Luckey kept the lawn at the parsonage so neat and planted many flowers.

STAYTON LEGION INSTALLS OFFICERS

Armistice Plans Outlined at Meeting of Post Here Recently

STAYTON, Oct. 16 — The Legion meeting Monday evening was very well attended. The occasion was the installation of officers and J. C. Moreland, of Estacada, vice commander, was present to officiate in the capacity of installing officer.

Comedy stunts by the members followed the installation, creating much merriment. Plans for armistice night were discussed. The committee appointed to arrange details include Harry Humphrey, E. V. Miller, Glen E. Fox, Dane Johns and Jim Eitel.

No Meeting in November
There will be no regular meeting in November as it is so near armistice night. One feature of armistice night is the annual banquet which is free to members, their wives and lady friends. A small cover charge is to be made to all ex-service men who are not members of the post. Following the

Modern Woodmen Hosts to Royal Neighbors at Silvertown

SILVERTON, Oct. 16 — The Modern Woodmen of America entertained the Royal Neighbors Wednesday night at the first of a series of social affairs, which the two orders will alternate with during the winter.

The Wednesday night program was opened by a community sing led by F. M. Powell. A number of contests completed the program. These consisted of a potato race for women of which Mrs. Clarence Morley was winner; pinning the tail on the donkey, won by Eupha Myers; apple eating contest for men, won by Burt Revel; nail driving contest for women, won by Mrs. E. W. Garver; cream pie eating contest by women won by Mrs. Clarence Morley and Mrs. Ralph Adams. At the close of the program lunch was served followed by an evening of dancing.

INFANT'S FUNERAL AT INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 16 — The five months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Tubande, died of suffocation Monday evening. The parents were visiting with friends in McMinnville and had put the baby to bed early in the evening, and when they went to it later found it had pulled a rubber garment over its head.

Mrs. Tubande is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker of this place. Mr. Tubande's parents live near Arlie. Mr. and Mrs. Tubande have a little boy about four years old.

The funeral was held from the Keeney funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. Interment in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

AMITY AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

AMITY, Oct. 16 — The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Strout Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected were: president, Mrs. Clara Broadwell; first vice, Edna Strout; second vice, Mrs. Glenn Weston; secretary, Mrs. Sorenson; treasurer, Mrs. F. L. Strout; chaplain, Mrs. Fred Walling; historian, Mrs. E. L. Strout; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. William Weston.

Committees were also appointed for the ensuing year. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Strout served delicious refreshments.

FROST HITS HARD IN SOME DISTRICTS

ZENA, October 16 — The heavy frosts in Zena and adjacent communities of Spring Valley, Brush College and Lincoln Sunday and Monday nights caused considerable damage as tomatoes, squash, cucumber and melon vines were badly frosted. Corn fields also turned yellow over night. Most farmers who raised fields of corn for the silo made ensilage either just before the first frost or soon after as corn is not so good for ensilage after being frosted. Gardens and corn in the hills were protected to some extent and were not injured nearly so much.

HAVE JOINT MEET
SILVERTON, Oct. 16 — Members of the Holy Name society of St. Paul's church motored to Sublimity Sunday evening to attend a meeting of the society there. A joint meeting of the two societies will be held at Silvertown in November.
