Former-Pastor of Jason Lee Will Preach at Morning Services

The Rev. Thomas Acheson, for 10 years pastor of the Jason Lee Memorial Methodist Episcopal church in Salem, will preach the sermon on Sunday morning on the occasion of the twentieth anniversary of the church.

Rev. Acheson attended Willamette university and Kimball School of Theology, serving Jason Lee for a time as student paster, and after completion of the seminary as full time pastor. During his ministry the church grew to a large and commanding place of leadership in the religlous life of the city. "Tomorrow's Challenge - the Church's Response" is the theme announced for the sermon, the hour being 11 o'clock.

The evening worship hour at 7:30 is to be given to honoring the memory of Jason Lee, for whom the church is named. Dr. William Youngson, district su-perintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist Episcopal church, and widely known preacher and administrator, will be the speaker, with the subject Pioneers of Yesterday and Today". He is especially fitted to speak on this historical matter, being president of the Oregon Historical society of the church. During the hours from 3 to 5 o'clock on Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh B.
