Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson returned to her home Thursday after having spent the past month in the east in Illinois and Iowa where she visited relatives and friends and where she also visited her grandson, Charles Kay Bishop who is a student at Culver Military academy at Culver, Indiana. Mrs. Gabrielson was accompanied by her son, Carl Gabrielson, who went on to Boston to attend the American Legion convention, and who returned with her Thursday.

George Thomas, Jr., 14, Kenosha Wis., succeeded his brother, Bobby, 18, as junior bicycle champion when Bobby won the senior title.

Marion County Federation Of Women's Clubs has Successful Meet

Streets decorated with American flags and banners in gold and green, the club colors welcomed delegates and visitors to the twenty first biennial convention of the Marion county federation of women's clubs which met in Hubbard for the meeting of October 17.

Mrs. B. G. Benton of Silverton, president of the county federation, presided at the business sessions which were held at the Hubbard city hall. The program opened with the community singing, and an invocation by Rev. Glenn Hartong, pastor of the Hubbard Federated churches. Mrs. Waldo Brown, past president of the county federation, welcomed the guests and Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, responded.

The Hubbard high school glee club, directed by Mrs. Adeline Fields, contributed two numbers. County federation officers and committee chairmen were introduced by Mrs. Benton. Those presented were Mrs. J. G. Fontaine of Jefferson, vice president; Mrs. Vera Ottaway of Willard, secretary; Mrs. Henry Tate of Stayton, secretary; Mrs. Waldo Brown of Hubbard, chairman of the child welfare committee; Mrs. Herbert Schroeder of Gates, chairman of the civic committee; Mrs. Isabelle Pelmulder of Woodburn, chairman of the conversation committee; Mrs. F. M. Erickson of Salem, chairman of education; Mrs. Claude Johnson of Trout, chairman of extension; Mrs. Ivan Martin of Salem, chairman of the legislative committee, and Mrs. David H. Looney of Jefferson, chairman of the special committee to work for the Marion county cottage at the Children's Farm home at Corvallis.

The establishment of a Marion county cottage at the Children's Farm home is the major project of the Marion county federation and a collection was taken to aid in the work. Mrs. Looney reported that before this collection was taken the fund totaled $322.69.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $77.24 in the county federation treasury.

In place of the usual report from the child welfare committee, Mrs. Claude Johnson of Trout, chairman of the committee, called upon Miss Agnes Campbell, nurse in the Marion county health demonstration, to tell of the work in that department and of the general national interest in child health. Miss Campbell pointed out that Marion county has received national recognition for its work in child health and urged the continuation of the project.

Mrs. John Ballentyne of Silverton urged the support of the health work and a motion, carried unanimously, that the county federation of women's clubs take out a membership in the county health association. The federation went on record as endorsing the work of the county health unit and voted to urge the county court to set aside funds for the support of the health unit.

Luncheon was served at the Mineral Springs hotel where the tables were attractively decorated with autumn flowers.

The afternoon session was featured by an address by Mrs. Charles N. Blyden of Dallas, president of the Oregon federation who told of state activities of the women's club organization, an address by Mrs. Henry Corbett of Portland and Mrs. W. F. Fargo, district president of the state federation. Musical numbers were given by Miss Sylvia Manning of Gervais, Avon Jesse of Hubbard accompanied by Miss Anita Stevens, and Gungandine Bidgood.

It was voted to hold the next county federation meeting at Stayton.

Those present included past presidents of the county federation, Mrs. Waldo Brown of Hubbard, Mrs. Eugene Moschberger of Woodburn, Mrs. Ella F. Hall of Woodburn, Mrs. John Blyden of Stayton and Mrs. W. W. Allen of Mill City.

Among others in attendance were Miss Mattie Beatty, Salem; Mrs. E. N. Hall, Woodburn; Mrs. Ella Stauffer, Hubbard; Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Salem; Miss Vera Ottaway, Silverton; Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Jefferson; Mrs. Isabelle Pelmulder, Woodburn; Mrs. H. A. Schwaner, Gates; Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Salem; Mrs. Henry Tate, Stayton; Mrs. Ivan Martin, Salem; Mrs. G. H. ## Mrs. George Weller Bridge Evening Hostess

Mrs. George Weller was hostess at her home Friday evening for six tables of bridge. Chrysanthemums used in profusion about the guest rooms created a delightful decorative note characteristic of the fall time and made a pretty background for the evening of cards. Following bridge Mrs. Weller served a late supper.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mr. and Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckerbach of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mrs. Lucien Newcomer, nee Tora Mortensen, formerly of Salem and visiting here from Colton, California, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater, and Mr. and Mrs. Waller.

ANOTHER ROYAL ROMANCE

Alfonso, Prince of the Asturias, and heir to the Spanish throne, may be Europe's next royal bridegroom, according to reports that his engagement to a 16-year-old Andalusian Princess will soon be announced. The 23-year-old Prince is shown above with his reported fiancée, the Princess Maria de Bourbon, daughter of the Infanta Carlos de Bourbon, of Barcelona.

Alpha Phi Alpha Alumnae is Hostess

A charming party at the home of Mrs. Alice Fisher was that for which members of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority alumnae were hostesses Friday night in compliment to the new members of the house this year. Autumn colors in flowers and foliage made a gay background for the social evening. Hostesses were: Mrs. Alice Fisher; Mrs. Cornelius Bateson, Mrs. Mary Pecke Coots, of Silverton, Mrs. Leo Kafoury, Mrs. Paul Allen, Elaine Clower of Silverton, Claudine Girth, Helen Moore, Gladys Miller, Helen Kafoury, Irene Breithaupt.

The invited guest list included the new members of the sorority house this year: Marjorie Drobough, Barbara Barham, Roberta Varley, Mary Margaret White, Grace Satchell, Ruth Schreiber, Dorothea Shepherd, Florence Long, Jeanne Forrest, Geneva Breithaupt and Isabel Teare.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Because it is so flattering to a slender figure, and so becoming to a woman of large figure since it conceals undue flesh, the draped neckline is of extreme importance this season. Further grace is added to this lovely frock through the cleverly attached side skirt flares and sleeve trimming.

Pattern 2022 is exquisite fashioned of canton or georgette crepe, satin or velvet in solid color or print. Black, brown and green are the prominent fall colors, with an alluring dark green in the lead.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 4 3/8 yards of 35 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coin, carefully wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Our new fall and winter fashion book containing exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped novelties, is now ready. Price fifteen cents. Book with pattern, 25 cents. Send dress all small orders to Statesman-Bureau Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.
