THOUGHT DRY AIDE

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 17.— (AP)—D. H. Forney, Traveling salesman, was suffering from a broken jawbone and other injuries today as the result of a beating administered Wednesday by seven young men who attacked him on the erroneous belief he was a prohibition bureau informant.

Forney was able to identify one of the party, Eston Lough, Roseburg, who was arrested here and fined $35 on a charge of assault and battery.

Forney told officers he was in a restaurant here when the seven entered and accosted him, accus-ing him of giving information last week which resulted in the arrest of two bellboys at a local hotel. Forney said he was drag-ged outside and when he resisted his assailants he was beaten.

Rally Sunday For Christian Church, Turner

TURNER, Oct. 17-Turner Christian church will hold its annual rally day service Sunday. It is hoped the attendance at Sunday school will reach 166. The Birtchet boys of Portland will sing. They have had a wide experience in singing for small

The sermons of the day by the pastor, E. J. Gilstrap, will be in keeping with the Rally day thought. The promotion services last Sunday formed a large part of the morning's service.

The men of the church are planning to give a program and serve a 5:30 dinner the evening of October 22 at the church. There will be a charge. The money thus raised will be used for a janitor and repair fund. The men are doing all the work.

Jefferson Body Will Hold Rally Program Sunday

JEFFERSON, Oct. 17. — The Sunday school of the Evangelical church will observe Rally day Sunday. There will be several special features during the Sunday school hour beginning at 10 e'clock. At 11 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. A. W. Oliver, will deliver a message on, "Wanted, Fighting Christians."

In the afternoon the members of the Christian Endeavor society will attend a Rally at Corvallis. There will be no services Sunday evening as the Endeavorers will remain at Corvallis for the service there.

The Future

Week's Sermonette

By J. R. STEWART (Pastor Free Methodist Church) Happiness is the great quest of humanity, yet so elusive is it that "few there be who find it." Lord Byron is quoted as having said "I have had eleven happy days in my life and I wonder if I'll ever make out the dozen. Most people look to the future with the hope that somehow the unfolding of time will bring the joy their souls crave. Some expect that "beyond this vale of tears" they shall find the long sought boon, little realizing that happiness does not spring from beautiful surroundings, congenial companions, leisure or from any other thing extrinsic to ourselves but from the spring of living water implanted in the trusting heart of the Lord Jesus. Sin's discordant notes have marred the harmony of life. Will the future life usher us into a state where each individual life harmoniously blends with every other life? Only if, while here, our lives have been so attuned to the will of God that every power responds to the touch of His Master hand.

Do we look to the future for comfort? Not that comfort is found on "flowery beds of ease," but that which comes as a result of our being at peace with God, with our neighbors, and with our own conscience? The Holy Ghost, the Comforter, has come and has comforted millions along the path of life by bringing to them the grace of God, that their sins might be forgiven and their hearts cleansed from all unrighteousness and by Himself coming to abide, to strengthen and to comfort that we may be prepared for the future.
