Committee Talks Possibilities Of Museum

To provide an easily available place where pictures of merit can be placed on exhibition for the benefit of the general public and to gather a collection of objects of art is the purpose of the Oregon state museum of art, the constitution of which was read and discussed at a meeting Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Ella C. Hathaway on Market street.

Details of the provisions of the constitution were combed from the organization of successful museums of like nature in the east, and formulated into the rules to govern the organization being sponsored by the Salem Arts League. This constitution and a special contract for the use of a room on the third floor of the state house is to be presented for approval to the state board of control, which is considering the matter.

With the state officials favorably inclined to grant the request, it is believed that action soon will be taken and that the Oregon State Museum of art will have a home in the near future. Much interest has been manifested in forming this organization, which will be state-wide in scope.

Those having pictures and objects of art worthy of a place in such a museum can get in touch with Mrs. F. G. Franklin, chairman of the arts league committee working on the proposition.

Present at the meeting, which was called by Mrs. Hathaway as leader of the art section of the league, were C. P. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hudd, Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford Perry, Reigelman, and the modest. Members of the committee unable to be present were Mrs. Richard Cartwright and Miss Ruth Braut.

After the discussion, Mrs. Hathaway served a late lunch.

Rejoicing over the formation of an International Federation of Business and Professional Clubs featured the Coos Bay conference of the Oregon Federation B. P. W. C. which was held at Roseburg, October 19.

Miss Lena Madelin Phillips, past president of the American federation of business and professional women, was elected president of the international group which was formed at Geneva this summer.

At the executive board meeting which was presided over by Miss Martha Gasch, president of the Oregon federation, it was voted to issue a state song book, containing the most popular songs of all the clubs. The compiling of this book is to be in charge of May Ross Walker, state song leader and her committee which consists of Mrs. Esther Hagerdorn of Salem and Mrs. Esther Smith of McMinnville.

Outstanding features of the program were the addresses by Dr. James Ding, president of Foo Chow college of Foo Chow, China, who spoke on the political and religious situation in China and Dr. Roy Hewitt, dean of the Willamette University Law school who talked on international relations and the part America may play in world affairs.

Mrs. Edith Faibe, president of the Roseburg club, presided at the luncheon. Miss Martha Gasch, state president, was in charge of the program. May Ross Walker led the group singing with Mrs. Elizabeth Heinline at the piano.

Hunter-Lietz Vows Told in Lovely Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Macyl Hunter, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter and Harriett A. Lietz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lietz of Silverton, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church was one of the lovely events of the fall.

The altar was given beautiful background of autumn flowers and greenery. Cathedral tapers in rose and white sifted a soft glow of light over the bridal party and Rev. W. C. Kaufner as he read the impressive wedding service. Tall palms and ascending ferns softened the lines of the chancel and completed a very lovely picture.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Lena Belle Harris, acting accompanist by Prof. T. S. Roberts who immediately following this played the wedding march as the wedding party took its place.

The bride's gown was ivory lace net over satin, made close fitting and with a full skirt which swept the floor in a deep plain net hemline. The veil was caught in a sweeping bow at the back with a bandeau of pearls and net and fell in a billow train below the hemline of the skirt. A lovely arched bouquet of butterfly roses completed the charming ensemble.

Miss Gladys Svenson, maid of honor, wore a white sprigged satin formal dress and carried Tallisman roses, whose bronze shades harmonized perfectly with her gown.

Miss Janice Lee and Miss Jean Marie, petit twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers, in colonial frock whose deep tiered skirts swept the floor and showed just the tiny points of blue slippers, carrying quaint colonial bouquets, and wearing blue ribbon bandeaus in their hair, were the demure bridesmaids.

Robert Lietz of Portland was best man. Ushers who seated the 200 guests, were Paul Wallace, W. L. Phillips, Ben Drager, and R. G. Brady.

Following the wedding service a reception was given at the Woman's clubhouse. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lietz received with Mr. and Mrs. Harriett Lietz.

Those presiding at the serving tables were Mrs. E. A. Melwain, Mrs. Blanch Jones, Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, Mrs. R. E. Lee Wood, Kappa Delta sorority sisters of Mrs. Lietz assisted about the rooms.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Lietz left for a wedding tour in the south soon after which they will return to make their home at 245 North 23rd street.

Mrs. Lietz is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Oregon state college where she was active in musical circles and where she was affiliated with the Kappa Delta sorority.

Mr. Lietz is a graduate of eastern schools and is now a prominent young business man of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hobart are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary at their home, 527 McClaire street, Silverton. Friends are invited to call between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Harris Lietz, nee Macyl Hunter, and her bridal party, Miss Gladys Svenson as maid of honor and five year old twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers, Janice Lee and Jean Marie as bridesmaids.

Drama League Will Present "Twelve Pound Look"

The Salem Drama League in cooperation with the members of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will present the play of Sir James Barrie, "The Twelve Pound Look," a one-act play which has been coached by Miss Margaret Burroughs and in which Miss Genevieve Thayer takes the lead and is supported by Ronald Craven, Miss Burroughs, and Wayne Willie. The play will be presented Friday night in the Emerson room of the Unitarian church and is open to the public for a small door charge.

The play was first presented by this cast Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of the members of the A. A. U. W. at Willamette lodge. Here it met with the enthusiastic applause of those present. Miss Thayer as a clever, sophisticated woman does excellent work that is quite out of the amateur class, as does Miss Burroughs in the role of a wife whose self-abnegation is quite deplorable. Ronald Craven does excellent work as an amateur performer and showed very bright possibilities in his work Saturday afternoon.

Hostesses for the Friday evening performance will be Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. Robert Gatzke, Mrs. Otto Paulus and Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Following the play, Miss Dorothy Pearce will give a description of the production of "Green Pastures," as she saw it in New York City this past winter. This play has been one of the most discussed plays of recent years in both religious and dramatic circles.

Special music will also be a part of the evening program. The play will be given at 8 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the social part of the evening is headed by Mrs. Louie King, local president, who will be assisted by a volunteer committee.

A Quality You Would Insist Upon If You Knew All of the Facts

Fact No. 16

Only a few years ago, western America introduced vacuum packed coffee to the world—and more recently vacuum packed tea. For fine coffee, the vacuum tin is now universal practice. For tea, it still remains the secret process of the originators—Schilling. The flavor of tea evaporates just like coffee, only more slowly, and it is months (frequently a year) before tea reaches you from the Oriental tea gardens. Much as you may have enjoyed your tea, you have missed much of its original rare flavor. But now it is preserved for you.

Facts Nos. 17 and 18

Both a tea leaf and a coffee bean, must be toasted to drive off the moisture, which helps to rob it of flavor. Good coffee is packed in vacuum immediately after roasting. Tea is toasted at the tea gardens, then sealed in large chests lined with lead. When it arrives in America it is repacked in ordinary tins or even cardboard boxes. And that's where the damage is done! But this is how Schilling does it. As the tea is poured from the lead-lined chests, it is toasted again, and while still hot (just like your coffee) it is sealed in vacuum. Schilling Tea comes to you as fresh and fragrant as it left the Orient—the only tea that is completely protected from the tea garden to you.
