

Traditional Game Billed for Homecoming at Willamette

PUGET SOUND'S LOGGERS FACED

Bearcats can Count Only One win Since 1920, Records Reveal

One of those old "traditional" gridiron battles which warm the hearts of old grads, is fittingly billed for Willamette university's homecoming exercises here Saturday. The Bearcats, mitey Northwest conference honors after an uphill victory over College of Idaho last Friday night at Caldwell, will face the Loggers of College of Puget Sound.

The annual Puget Sound game is more than a tradition for Willamette—it is a barometer. Back in 1921 when Puget Sound defeated Willamette for the first time in history, Willamette grads hung their heads in shame and figuratively speaking, didn't lift them up and look the world in the face until seven years later, in 1928, when Willamette finally won again after a long series of defeats, the margin of which became smaller from year to year. There was no game last year, because of some quirk in the schedule which would have permitted a meeting only in the early weeks of the season when C. P. S., under a new coach, didn't feel like risking a conference contest.

The 1928 game was a heart breaker for Puget Sound because that year, under Cae Hubbard, the Loggers won a national Northwest conference title and more than that, was actually all set to overthrow the University of Washington in a big game scheduled for the Tacoma stadium one week after the Bearcat tilt here.

Puget Sound fans, as they call Willamette's passing attack clik for the deciding touchdown, declared:

"That pass robs us of $10,000." They meant the gate for the Washington game would be hurt just that much.

First Game in 1910 Recalled

Puget Sound was just as rocky in 1919, when it came here for the first time to start what has now become a traditional game. Its confidence appeared well placed for two periods, the Loggers outplaying Willamette but neither managing to score. The horns from the Sound had neglected to count in Bob Mathews, then Willamette's coach.

What "Matty" said to the boys between halves never has been recorded, but they were all white and pink as they came out on the field again. Puget Sound didn't get a first down the rest of the game and Willamette won 10 to 0.

Here is the history of the Willamette-College of Puget Sound game:

- 1919—Willamette 10, Puget Sound 0.
- 1920—Willamette 24, Puget Sound 0.
- 1921—Pu S. Sound 19, Willamette 0.
- 1922—Puget Sound 9, Willamette 0.
- 1923—Puget Sound 14, Willamette 6.
- 1924—Puget Sound 8, Willamette 0.
- 1925—Puget Sound 7, Willamette 5.
- 1926—Puget Sound 9, Willamette 6.
- 1927—Puget Sound 0, Willamette 6.
- 1928—Willamette 25, Puget Sound 18.

Salem high school golf tournament results for the past week were compiled last night.

Vincent won from Beal; Price from Coy; Needham from Hemenway; Groves from Sodanant; Cline from Smith; Bradford from Bird; Blaisdell from Spears and Uter from Pierce.

Pairings for the present week of the victors are as follows: Vincent and Price; Needham; Groves; Cline, Bradford; Blaisdell and Uter.

The above two series are to be played sometime this week and results turned in by next Sunday night.

ADD FIGHTERS

EDDIE SHEA GAINS NOTCH BY VICTORY

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20. (AP)—Eddie Shea, Chicago battler, moved up a notch tonight in his bid for the featherweight title by knocking out Johnny Datto, Filipino of Cleveland, in the fourth round of the ten round main event at the arena. Shea scaled 126 1/2 and Datto 152 1/2.

A sizzling fight to the jaw sent Datto down and out less than a half minute after the fourth round began. He lay motionless while

Gimme a Guy Like Tandy

By HARDIN BURNLEY

THE Far West's game of games for 1930 will be played at Palo Alto this Saturday when the Southern California Trojans battle (and that old verb is just the word for what will take place) the Stanford Cardinals. Two famously individual coaching systems will be involved—that of Glenn Scobey ("Pop") Warner, who made Stanford famous before President Hoover did; and that of Howard Jones, bred at Yale, who has battled the Warnermen against even terms for five seasons.

The Cards and Trojans have been identifying pre-season optimism on the part of their followers. Each element believes Saturday's the referee counted him out, while Shea, jubilant over winning a bout in a Philadelphia ring turned a cartwheel and waved his hands to the fans.

Both battlers, among the hardest hitters in the featherweight class, made it a hammer and tongs affair from the beginning. Shea, stiffer puncher, kept boring in and battering the Filipino's body. Datto, shifty and clever, tried to box but Shea wouldn't let him.

Shea stung him with both hands for three rounds and Datto was punch dizzy and bleeding from the nose and mouth when he went to his corner at the end of the third round. Shea also showed marks of battle, for Datto's sharp jabs and striking rights had opened up a old cut over his eye.

Datto was a trifle wobbly when he came out for the fourth and Shea's rush carried him against the ropes. He fought his way out and they were mixing it up in the center of the ring when Shea shot out a right to the jaw that sent his opponent reeling.

JUNIOR HIGH GAME SET FOR THURSDAY

The Parrish junior high football team will meet the McMinnville junior high school football team Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock on Olney field.

Two weeks ago the Parrish men met the McMinnville juniors at McMinnville and emerged on the long end of a 19 to 0 score. The game Thursday will be the first football game of the season at home for Coach Hawk's men and much enthusiasm is being shown by the students.

Leslie junior high school is the big rival of Parrish and both teams are training hard for the first game to be played October 31. The place for the first game has not been arranged yet. The second game between the local junior high schools will be played November 21.

An effort is being made to keep these games from conflicting with the high school games, as that divides the crowd and does not give the players a chance to see how the older men do it.

Freight Line's Permit Voided

Failure to make prompt returns on C. O. D. shipments and file bond within the statutory time, Monday caused the public service commission to cancel the permit of the Central Oregon Post Freight Line, with headquarters at Prineville, Frank Settemyer is owner of the line.

game will decide the Pacific Coast championship and in all probability the best claimant for 1930 national football honors. (Washington State—me eye)

California's Golden Bears were welcomed early by those Washington "Huskies," 16-0, and the experts generally agree that the Cards and the Trojans have the edge of class in California this year. Southern California and Stanford have brilliant backfields and it will be the lines that prove the balance between victory and defeat.

This year Stanford is captained by Ray Tandy, a smart tackle who figured in comparatively few headlines last season but whose potent, brainy play was such that Coach Warner himself was pleased when the team elected that brainy line-man to lead it in 1930.

California picked its captain, Carl Handy, practically for the same reason. This heady, hard-charging guard got a little newspaper glory last Fall, but the coaches and his teammates appreciated his playing worth and leadership. So he was chosen to pilot the Bears. Well they have their Handy, the Cards have Tandy and the Trojans have a dandy—what! Yes, a dandy team.

But what about Washington State? Well, surely, that's a DANDY team too.

Buzz Arlett May get big Time Tryout

By R. J. NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20. (AP)—Of all the players who have bounced but base hits and walks to early by themselves useful in the Pacific coast league, Russell "Buzz" Arlett of the Oakland Aacorns has this writer's deepest sympathy. He is the original "hard luck kid" of minor league baseball and no two ways about it.

He should have been up in the majors at least six years ago. Some followers of the game argue to the contrary claiming the Buzz's apparent indifference would make him of but little value to any big league club he might belong. This writer feels differently on the matter. We believe that had the big outfielder been given his chance a few seasons back he would have been the strawberries in any major league's cream.

There is some talk now that the present owners of the Oaks will make every effort to give Buzz his chance in the majors next season. The understanding is they will offer him to any interested club on an easy payment plan, in fact a free trial proposition. If he can be located the club taking him may have his services for the season (by paying his salary of course).

If he makes good new bosses will pay the Oaks a net exorbitant sum for his contract. A "satisfaction guaranteed" idea.

For his 13 years service with the Oaks, Buzz deserves the chance. He started with Oakland as a kid pitcher in 1918. Now he is 30 years old and still going strong. In 1920 he was one of the pitching stars of the league, winning 29 games. Two years later he won the featherweight champion, on a foul in the third round of a ten round non-title bout here tonight. Zazzarino, at 127 1/2 pounds, was 1 1/2 pounds over the class limit. Battalion weighed 136.

It was a fit and furious battle as far as it went. The champion held an edge in the first round but Zazzarino got going in the second and won it by a decisive margin.

RING GOSSIP

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 20. (AP)—Young Zazzarino of Jersey City won from Bat Battalion of Hartford, Conn., featherweight champion, on a foul in the third round of a ten round non-title bout here tonight. Zazzarino, at 127 1/2 pounds, was 1 1/2 pounds over the class limit. Battalion weighed 136.

It was a fit and furious battle as far as it went. The champion held an edge in the first round but Zazzarino got going in the second and won it by a decisive margin.

TAX FUNDS CANNOT BE PAID IN RENTAL

Neither moneys appropriated by the legislature, and raised by taxation, nor moneys received from the federal government can be used by state departments to pay rent in state buildings, according to an opinion prepared by the attorney general here Monday.

The opinion relieves the state military department and the state board of vocational education from paying for office space in the new state office building. It also nullifies the action of the state emergency board last Friday in allowing a deficiency appropriation of $1,347 for the state engineering department for rental purposes.

Only departments receiving fees can be charged for rent, and only if the law specifies that the fee receipts can be used for administrative expenses.

Money to erect the state office building was borrowed from the state industrial accident commission, with the understanding that it would be repaid out of rentals. Officials said the opinion would not cause a shortage in rent receipts.

W. J. LOONEY BARN BURNS, TOTAL LOSS

JEFFERSON, Oct. 20. (Special)—Fire completely destroyed the large barn and contents at the W. J. Looney ranch, a one-half mile east of Jefferson Sunday evening at 7:30. The alarm was given by Paul Smith.

A neighbor who discovered the fire said the flames had gained such headway that there was no possible means of saving the building.

The barn contained more than 50 tons of hay, a large amount of grain, beside farm machinery. The estimated loss on the building and contents was $3000. The barn was partially covered by insurance but the contents were a total loss.

It is not known how the fire started.

S. H. S. FACING REAL CONTEST

Corvallis Comes Friday for First Game Bearing on Title for Valley

"Lady Luck" has smiled on the Salem high football team and permitted "Holly's" grid men to win their first two encounters and to go through these mixer without serious injury to any of the players.

The outcome is a football team that has been gaining power and polish steadily. And if none of the red and black men get cut on injuries, the season's prospects are bright for the 1930 Salem high football team.

However, Salem has not yet reached the place where the momentum of its victories will carry the team. In fact, the two games played probably were as easy as any on the 1930 schedule and much easier than the Eugene, Corvallis or Chemawa games.

Friday at 3:00 p. m., Salem high's football team will meet the undefeated Corvallis high football team on Olney field in the old rivalry game against the old rival.

Corvallis triumphed Monday night 31 to 0, two weeks ago and last week took Tillamook into camp 15 to 0. While the Columbia Preps beat Tillamook 13 to 0, it was at the very start of the season. One of the Corvallis touchdowns against Tillamook came on a 40 yard pass so that gives the Salem men something to think about.

The spirit that has marked the Salem high team from the first night of practice is still present and has played an important part in the winning of the two games. Reserve strength has been shown and the line demonstrated its power against the Columbia forward wall.

The game with Corvallis is the last one before "Holly's" men leave for southern Oregon to play Medford high school. The prospect is that the game Friday will be plenty tough with each team trying to keep its slate clean.

SHUTOUTS RULE IN MONDAY'S BOWLING

Straight three-game shut-outs were administered by two business league bowling teams to their opponents, last night. Canoe service winning from Salem Sanitary milk company and Chevrolet shopmen from Salem Retail Raymond machine shop won two out of three from Senator Food shop.

SCOUT TROOP FOR WEST SALEM PLAN

Preliminary organization for a Boy Scout troop in West Salem was perfected last night at the first full meeting of the community club in that district. O. P. West, scout executive, spoke to the people of the community, 150 in number, on the values of scout work for boys and young men.

A. C. Henningsen is to be the leader of the newly formed troop. Silverton, West Salem boys are to be in the organization. Troop 12, Salem, attended the meeting Monday night, giving a well-received demonstration of first-aid work and other Boy Scout activities.

Wednesday night Judge H. L. Belt, president of the Boy Scout council for this city, will preside at a court of honor meeting. Twenty-seven scouts of this area are up for court of honor awards.

Slater Here to Manage Safeway

After serving nine months as manager of the Safeway store in Silverton, A. J. Slater has arrived in Salem to take a similar position. Before going to Silverton, Mr. Slater managed a Safeway store in Portland.

W. G. Walker whom Slater succeeds in Salem has gone to Idaho.

Fighters Ready for Gong; Matchmaker is Hoping to Outdraw Portland Scraps

Teddy Fox went 14 rounds last night to wind up his heavy training for his game with Joe Marcus at the Salem Armory Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.

Word comes to Harry Plant, matchmaker, from the manager of Joe Marcus that Joe is also down to his weight. Teddy reached his weight last week and when the two weigh in there will be practically no difference between them. Joe Marcus will be here to step on the scales Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Harry Plant is endeavoring to outdraw Portland with fully crowd. If he can do this it will mean that Salem can bring in the best fighters in the northwest. Portland's fights are only drawing $850 to $900 houses and Harry believes that with the card offered, Salem can beat the recent marks at Portland.

Big Fellows to Get Attention
Teddy has been working out hard and is in his best condition. His training for this fight has been carried out faithfully both on road work and in the ring. The speed he has shown the last few days is amazing to observers.

And the McRae-Fallon fight is drawing quite a bit of comment among the Salem fans. Last night the boys of Company B were discussing the probable outcome. "Roundhouse" Dave McRae has had so many bouts that it is hard to keep track of them all. While Joe is still a novice at boxing, he has been in plenty of fights according to the Guard boys and he likes to mix.

Tonight at 8:00 o'clock all the fighters except Joe Marcus will get into the ring at the Armory and take a light workout. Visitors are welcome to come and see for themselves how the boys look. The heavy work is all over until tomorrow night.

A scholarship endowment that will send two orphans, a boy and a girl, to school, has been established at Abilene (Tex.) Christian college.

That's all right, we heard you. You said it would be a fine idea if he'd use any part of his head."

Seems like another of those 1926 Bearcats has come to life in California. Pop Warner says it was a team-mate of Nick Bican's here that year who started the protest against Bican, and said teammate is now a member of Pop's squad. We knew every one of those boys and glancing at Stanford's lineup of last Saturday, we know he didn't start that year.

Whether he starts the California game or not, he should be entitled to credit toward an "S."

He "took out his man" just like Pop taught him to do.

PLAYOFF LOOMING IN COAST LEAGUE

W. L. Peck, Seattle, W. T. Peck, Los Angeles, Seattle 45 55 450, Los Angeles 46 42 571 041, 45 55 450, San Francisco 49 50 495 042 56 429, Sacramento 49 50 495 042 56 429.

(By the Associated Press)
The Pacific coast league baseball season, with the exception of the playoff between Los Angeles and Hollywood for the pennant, wound up Saturday.

The Sacramento Senators split a double-header with Portland to tie San Francisco for third place in the league. They won the first game at Stockton, 11 to 4, pounding Curtis Fuller on for four hard-hitting innings. In the second game the Ducks won their only game of the last series, 6 to 4.

Beck did the pitching for Portland, beating out Tony Freitas, and closing the Ducks net to the bottom.

San Francisco split a pair with the Missions, the Reds taking the opener 3 to 2, and the Seals the second, at which famous old Recreation park was closed to 6 to 5.

Los Angeles, second in the last division standings, trimmed Hollywood 7 to 5 and 6 to 4 Sunday. The two teams battle it out starting Wednesday for the pennant.

Seattle and Oakland divided their double-header, the Oaks winning the first 6 to 2, and the Indians the second, 5 to 3.

COMMUNISM PROBE GETS MEXICAN AID

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 20. (AP)—Cooperation of Mexican police in an investigation in alleged communist activities in the United States was promised today by General Jose Mirajes Palencia, chief of police of the federal district.

The general told the press, however, he lacked authority to speak for the government in regard to suggestions that Mexico officially cooperate with the Fish investigation committee.

He said so long as contact was effected with him through the American police he was empowered to cooperate.

CURT COMMENTS

Well, thank heaven, that's over. Referring, this time, to the Coast League baseball season. If it had lasted just a few days more, the poor old Ducks would have been back in the cellar.

We note that Johnny Beck was on the mound when the whistle blew, and pitching a victory at that. Johnny's a nice feller and we hope he sticks in class AA next year.

It was quite a coincidence, but we want to say at the outset that our reference to H. G. Damon Sunday had to do with our Latin quotation and not with the Meier sign. We might have known H. G. would be a Meier man, but we didn't think of it.

Anyway H. G. writes in to say he parked his car in front of the Statesman office during the wrestling show last Wednesday night and when he came back the Meier sign was gone. Looks bad for us, because we spent only a short time at the wrestling show and the rest right here in the office.

H. G. apparently bears us to ill will, because out of the goodness of his heart he offers us a suggestion. Knowing us for a modest guy who hates the idea that our picture has to appear in the column once a week or so, Damon recalls that Tom Murray, a friend of his back in Chicago, who also was extremely modest, declined to let his face appear in his advertisements—he was a clothing merchant—but wanting something catchy, he had a picture taken of the back of his head and put that in his ads with the caption "meet me face to face," meaning "in the store."

Murray had the idea copyrighted, but Damon thinks we could get permission to use the back of our head in our business.

That's all right, we heard you. You said it would be a fine idea if he'd use any part of his head."
