LYONS COUPLE TO START A DAIRY

LYONS, Oct. 23.—The Floyd Martin family left Sunday for Rida, Oregon, where they have located temporarily and are running a dairy. H. Harris of Meham moved them by auto truck.

Mrs. William Cone accompanied her husband to Eugene Sunday evening, returning early Monday. Mr. Cone is attending the U. of O. this year, and is studying for the ministry.

Several from Lyons attended the illustrated lecture given at the Presbyterian community church in Mill City Wednesday evening. Mrs. S. D. Brown and son Willis spent the weekend in Portland, visiting relatives.

H. W. Anderson and J. H. Johnson were Stayton business callers Tuesday.

Hadley Hobson of Salem was a Lyons caller the first of the week. The S. B. Crooks family leased the Hadley Hobson farm and have moved there from the L. C. Trask farm near the Fox Valley school.

Frank Thomas of Mill City is assisting his brother Royal with some carpenter work and painting for Mrs. M. Paul at present.

Fifty-six per cent of rural negroes of Virginia are church members, but only 38 per cent of those in the cities belong, according to a survey of two Virginia college professors.

PYTHIAN SISTERS PARTY IS UNIQUE

Silverton Group Entertains With Supper and Dancing

SILVERTON, Oct. 23.—The Pythian Sisters entertained at a very enjoyable party at the Pythian hall Tuesday night. Both the upstairs and the downstairs of the hall were beautifully decorated in orange and black and with autumnal flowers. At 6:30 a potluck covered dish supper was enjoyed and this was followed by the regular meeting of the temple.

At this meeting it was announced that the Grand Lodge of Knights and Sisters of the Pythian order would not meet at Portland this autumn, but would hold its officers over until next year when the Golden Jubilee will be held there at this time of the year.

The members of the temple also voted to send their annual donation of fruit and vegetables to the Pythian home at Vancouver during the next month's time. Another attendance and membership contest, such as was held last year will be held again this winter. Mrs. Norma Staaroll and Mrs. Wanda Anderson were chosen captains, the losing side to entertain the winners next spring.

Cards Enjoyed
During the business session guests amused themselves by playing bridge in the club room of the hall. Later every one joined in a grand march and enjoyed dancing to the music furnished by Frank Kaufman, Ola Benton and Rudd Benton. The night was considered "Children's Night" and many forms of amusement had been devised for the children.

Some of the adults turned children for the time being as all-day suckers were passed out to everyone present. The party was a costume affair and much merriment was caused by some of the costumes. Prices for the most amusing costumes went to Mrs. Wava Axely dressed as the spirit of '96 and to Mrs. Carl Specht dressed as a lumberjack.

HAYESVILLE STAGES REAL CHARIVARI

HAYESVILLE, Oct. 23 — Over one hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Christofferson gathered at the home of Mrs. Christofferson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Chapman, Wednesday night and gave the newly married couple an old fashioned charivari. After a pleasant evening in visiting, ice cream and cake and cigars were served. Mr. and Mrs. Christofferson were married Sunday and will make their home at the Chapman residence.

Mrs. E. P. Dixon and son Willard of Newberg visited at the F. A. Williams home Wednesday.

IMMANUEL GUILD SPONSORS EVENING

Church Fund to Benefit by Dinner and Program Here

SILVERTON, Oct. 23.—The Immanuel Guild sponsored a successful and pleasant evening at the church Tuesday when they netted approximately $75 to be used for church expenses. The affair consisted of supper and sales from various booths. A program was also given.

The supper was sold from four different booths representing winter, spring, summer and autumn. In the winter booth a Christmas color scheme was used and here potatoes and meat were served. In the spring booth, in white and pink, salads were served. The summer booth was made colorful by Fourth of July decorations and ice cream and cake were served. Autumn served pies and was represented by autumn colors and flowers. A picture gallery, hung with old-time pictures furnished much amusement and also netted the girls $3.00. Other booths consisted of candy, fish pond, and miscellaneous articles.

At 8:30 a splendid musical program was given consisting of a girls quartet, Myrtle Torrkelson, Agnes Nelson, Ardith Aarhus, and Clara Holman; cornet solo, Clifford Severson and Norris Ballangrud; vocal solo by L. Torrkelson; vocal duet, Mrs. Oscar Johnson and Clara Larson; vocal solos, Miss Ruth Larson in costume, Mrs. Arthur Dahl accompanied all the musical numbers.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. J. M. Jensen, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. Clara Loe, Mrs. Arthur Dahl and Miss Mamie Holman.
