

BURKE PARDON MOOTED ISSUE

Varying Opinions are Told in Letters Received By the Governor

Petitions and protests in connection with the recommendations for conditional pardons for J. V. Burke, ex-president of the Bank of Kenton, Portland, and Charles A. Murray of Eugene, continued to arrive at the executive department here Friday.

Burke is serving a term of seven years in the state penitentiary for the misappropriation of funds of the Bank of Kenton, while Murray is under eight years penitentiary sentence for involuntary manslaughter. Three members of the state pardon board recommended a conditional pardon for Burke, while one member recommended commutation of sentence. The fifth member of the board urged that action be deferred until such time as Burke has served his minimum sentence. The board was unanimous in recommending a conditional pardon for Murray.

A. D. Dixon, prominent Eugene lumberman, wrote Governor Norblad that he had been acquainted with Murray since he was a small boy and that he should be pardoned immediately.

A similar letter was received from Mrs. Annes Wilkins of Eugene, who said she had known Murray for 25 years and that his reputation was good until after he was married. Mrs. Wilkins urged his immediate release.

Nays Burke Saves All of Own Funds

Joseph A. Hill of Hill Military Academy, Portland, has sent a letter to Governor Norblad urging a conditional pardon for Burke. Mr. Hill said that the recent protest of A. A. Schramm, state superintendent of banks, was unjust.

"Burke contributed all of his personal funds to help cover the shortage," read Mr. Hill's letter, "and he should receive a conditional pardon."

Letters protesting against a pardon for Burke were received from J. A. Dennis of the Dennis Supply company, Portland, and A. J. Shirley. Shirley said that Burke's crime was a serious one and that he should be made to serve his full sentence.

Dennis declared in his letter to Governor Norblad that it would be a travesty of justice to release Burke at this time.

Governor Norblad announced Friday that he had not yet decided what action he would take in connection with the pardon board's recommendations.

OREGON CELERY OUTLOOK BETTER GRAINS FAIL TO HOLD STRENGTH

Tomatoes Few, Home Product Only Fair in Quality

PORTLAND, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Wholesale butter and egg markets opened today unchanged in tone and price. Butter demands improved good, while the egg movement lagged below normal volume.

Fresh fruit and vegetable markets were normally active at prices unchanged from Thursday. However, tomatoes, growing definitely fewer since the first week as far as locals of good quality are concerned, have gone up a nickle to 60 to 65 cents a box for Oregon while California lugs are quoted from $1.50 to $1.80.

Seedless grapes are a nearly cleaned up.

Government market news service reported produce market conditions as follows:

Local tomatoes are now only fair to ordinary quality, mostly ship-reduced. Arrivals of California tomatoes are mostly very green. Best offerings at present are hothouse stock, and a few outdoor arrivals today, from southern Oregon.

Estimates of potential cauliflower production from the Portland-Troutdale area range as high as 500 cars, weather permitting. Strong winds continue to break off many plants, but these are mostly for air and development any way; consequently, the actual loss is not disastrous yet. Only a few cars of Valencia oranges are available for shipment from California. First navels will move in a few days, but the monthly arrivals and development will not be active for two or three weeks yet.

With Idaho nearly through shipping celery, the outlook for Oregon celery is a shade brighter. F. O. B. sales continue very slow at $1.40 to $1.50 per crate.

Argentine and Russia Offering Wheat at Lower Prices

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Despite promising rallies at times, cereal markets today failed to hold gains, and finished at lower levels as compared with 24 hours previous. Reports of cheaper offerings Argentine and Russian wheat abroad had a late bearish influence, and so like did indications of good progress being made by domestic winter wheat crops, especially in Kansas. Official announcement was received that Argentine wheat acreage was 1,177,000 acres larger than estimates heretofore called for, and that Australia also has a bigger crop than last year, with crop prospects in both countries excellent.

Chicago closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, 1/4 to 3/4c a bushel lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 3/8 to 1 1/8c down and oats 1-8 to 1-4c off.

KIDDIES ENJOY LEGION PARADE

Dallas Post and Fire Department to Play Host to Small Citizens

DALLAS, Oct. 24.—School children are looking forward with anticipation to the second Halloween parade sponsored by the American Legion. Last year more than 200 children participated in the event and the various costumes of witches, ghosts, devils, and jack of lanterns were most entertaining.

This year the same plan will be followed of having the children march in line, according to the grade they are in. First and second prize will be given to the room with the largest percentage in line. First and second prize for the best boy and best girl costume, and first and second prize to the room with the best group costumes. In addition to this, individual prizes will be given in each room for the most representative clown, ghost, witch, jack o' lantern, ugliest mask, and most original costume.

The members of the fire department who lead off the parade are planning some special features for this year, and will distribute a gift to each child. General arrangements for the event are in charge of Dr. Penn C. Crum. The line will form at 7 o'clock, Friday evening, October 31, in front of the junior high school and march up Main street, and turn east on Court to the bandstand to receive their awards.

RESIGNS

Premier Jules Maniu of Rumania has handed in his resignation to King Carol. The step was taken in defiance of Carol's wishes to reorganize the Cabinet. Maniu was the helm of the Rumanian ship of state before King Carol staged his coup d'etat several months ago. He helped Carol mold together the various political factions to make a strong government.
