South Jolted Again as Washington Beats Bears 13 to 0

California Gains More but Can't Reach Goal Line; Breaks Play Part

By FRANK G. GORRIE WASHINGTON STADIUM. Seattle, Oct. 25-(AP)-The north rocked the south again today when the University of Washington football team surprised its old rivals from the University of California with a powerful offensive and sent the Bears down to 0. defeat, 13 to 0.

It was the Huskies' first victory over California in the last three years and put Washington into the running again for the Pacific Coast conference championship. Although scoring a touchdown in the second period when Merle Hufford, all-Pacific coast halfback, reeled around left end for a score from California's 10 yard line, victory was never safe for the Purple and gold boys until Henry Wentworth, giant center, intercepted a California pass in the last two minutes of play and ran 70 yards to the Bear goal

California had been a favorite to win the battle but Washington took the upper hand at the start of the tussle and held it throughout except for two brief periods in the second half. The Bears started out 1fke a house aftre in the third period. Avery took Washington's kickoff on his 20 yard line and returned the ball to his 45 yard line, Henry Schaldach opened up with a 17 yard gain around left end to score California's initial first down. Hickingbotham and Gill burst Washington's line for eight yards on three plays. With yardage coming easily, Edwin Griffiths, quarterback, attempted | 0. another line plunge for a first down but Hickingbotham struck a stone wall and the ball reverted to the Huskies on their 30 yard Chance to Score Missed by Inches Later in the period California took the pigskin on its 19 yard line and made another first down when Schaldach scampered around right end for five yards and Hickingbotham slipped through right tarkle on a spinner for six more.

Washington's first touchdown came by virtle of Hufford intercepting a forward pass and Schaldach fumbling a Husky punt. Washington opened the second period with Hufford snaring Schaldach's pass on California's 45 yard line. Unable to make her greater weight, was doped to further headway Marsh kicked to Schaldach and the latter dropped the ball. Larry Westerweller, Husky end, gathered in the pigskin on the Bear's 24 yard line and Washington opened up an offensive that carried it across the California goal line. Wentworth Races

70 Yards to Goal Washington's second touchdown came as a surprise to the 30,000 fans who jammed the stadium when Wentworth hauled down a California pass started by Leon Valianos, substitute halfback, and raced 70 yards for the

Both teams counted eight first downs. The Bears piled up all theirs in the last period while the Huskies made three in the first half and five in the last.

California tallied 143 yards from serimmage and Washington Gresham's territory. The Bull-107. The Bears attempted 15 forward passes, and completed 4 for a total of 57 yards. The Huskles tried 13 and completed four for 55 yards.

STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO, Cal., Oct. 25 .- (AP) .-University of North Dakota While 88,000 persons gazed in wonderment today, southern California's Trojans smashed ond pounded to their greatest triumph over a Stanford team, defeating the Cardinals 41-12, in a game that turned out to be a rout from the opening kickoff.

Never before had a Stanford eleven been the victim of such a disastrous setback as the one that bore the brunt of a line-cracking, yard-gaining orgy today. From the time the squads lined up for the start until the final gun cracked, the 1930 contribution of Coach Howard Jones whaled away at the weak Stanford line and bowled over the Cardinals and white clad boys.

The Trojans were superior in every department. They had no noticeable weaknesses. Depending almost entirely on line plays and deception, the Trofrom scrimmage.

About three minutes after the from the Cardinal goal line. the Cougars recovered. Duffield skirted his own left end, shook off two tacklers and was finally dropped after a 24yard run. Musick ran out of bounds without gain and packing the ball a second time, cracked the line to score. Baker made the try for point with a place kick. Break Gives Red

Heartened momentarily as the teams went into the second period, Stanford followers had their hopes shattered as Mohler led the Trojans to two more fouchdowns

Southern Celifornia's fourth touchdown followed a thrust of 60 yards Steady punches at the line and around the ends brought the ball from the Trojan 40-yard line to the Cardinals' 29 yard mark. Mohler tossed a short pass to Wilcox who was stopped on the 23 yard mark. Two tries at the line failed so Mohler shot a pass to Arbelbide for 13 yards and the latter ran 10 yards to score. Baker's try for point with a place kick was good.

Another great Trojan drive took place in the third quarter and another touchdown helped mount the total on the score board. A second "break" brought in the fourth period. Mohler, who had replaced Duffield again. intercepted a pass but Stanford was given the ball on Southern California's 15 yard line because the pass receiver had been interfered with. Shortly after Simkins, in at fullback for Rother, passed 13 yards to Moffatt who caught the ball on the goal line and fell over. Moffatt's place kick try for extra point failed.
