Parties to Lend Atmosphere to Week

Hallowe'en will go out with much gaiety this week. All week long seems to be leading up to a final climax of fun and affairs of interest.

Cards are to be the inspiration for much of the amusement. The card afternoon for which Mrs. J. L. Woodworth and Mrs. Richard Slater are to be hostesses Wednesday and Friday will be large affairs and interesting. To keep the week busy clear through there will be a large card party for which Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Harry Crawford, and Mrs. Lou Gote will be hostesses at the Elks Temple Thursday afternoon.

Tuesday Chadwick chapter social club will meet in the afternoon at the Masonic temple; Mrs. Ronald Jones will entertain her bridge club at her home near Brookside.

Thursday there will be the meeting of the Rural Women's clubs of Polk county and this is attracting many women. Mrs. A. L. Brown will be hostess to members of the Priscilla club at her home Thursday afternoon.

Friday there will be the large formal tea for which Mrs. Edgar Hartley and Miss Catherine Hartley will be hostesses. Mrs. Ralph Curtis is also being a hostess Friday night with a dancing party at her home.

Wednesday the Kensington club will meet with Mrs. Herbert Hauser.

Most decidedly there is not to be time to change one's mind this week—just make it up and keep going.

Stacy—Dale and Betty Hunt entertained 20 of their small friends with a Hallowe'en party Friday evening. A ghost, fortune teller and various games were enjoyed. Those present were Glen and Edwin Hayworth, Wallace Humphrey, Shirley Fox, Betty Korinek, Darrel Jordan, Peggy Missler, Lela Mae Bell, Leona Burmeister, Virginia Shelton, Darrel Lewis, Billy Roberts, Billy Dean, Virginia Hunt, Marjory Knight, Val Dare Sloper, Katie Champ, Lillian Spanial and Dale and Betty Hunt.

Each child was given a bright paper cap and a favor. Mrs. M. S. Hunt was assisted in entertaining and serving the children by Mrs. H. C. Egliston and Miss Frances Lillis.

Farris entertained Sunday for Mrs. Fanny Cole, who is soon leaving for her home at Glade Spring, Va., after spending two months with Turner relatives. Relatives who attended the dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker, Herbert Briggs, Grant Farris of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farris, Leonard Ferris of Wrenn.

Orchard Heights—Mrs. Howard Reed and Mrs. Cash Roberts were hostesses Thursday afternoon to members of the Orchard Heights Women's club at the Reed home. The living rooms were brightened by vases of many-hued autumn flowers.

Following the business meeting at which Mrs. C. H. Fisher presided, legislative measures were discussed.

A delegation is planning to attend the Polk County Federation of Women's Rural clubs to be held at Dallas Thursday, October 30.

Mrs. Ernest Anderson, will entertain the club November 6.

Members present were Mrs. Burnham Southwick, Mrs. L. D. Gibson, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. Frank Farmer, Mrs. William Knower, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. C. S. Matthews, Mrs. William McDowell, Mrs. William Cox, Miss Mary Wait and the hostesses, Mrs. Cash Roberts and Mrs. Edward Reed.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Smart school-girls are wearing miniature versions of grown-up favorites this year. This ensemble, consisting of sleeveless bodice, pleated skirt and short jacket, has warmth, practicality and smartness, and is quite inexpensive to make. A bit of the fabric should be used to make a beret.

Pattern 2025 is adorable made of tweed-jersey, wool crepe or velveteen. Attractive color combinations of brown and tan, green and navy, black and white, may be chosen for service as well as chic.

May be obtained only in sizes 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 8 requires 1 1/2 yards of 54 inch fabric and 1 to 1 1/2 yards of 35 inch fabric.

No dressmaking experience necessary in making this model with our pattern. Instructions for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Good fitting cuffs in color carefully wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Pattern 2025 is a winter fashion book containing exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped novelties. In new ready. Price fifteen cents. Book with pattern, 15 cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 11th street, New York City.

Mrs. George L. Forge who has been a recent hostess with Mrs. A. L. Wallace for a series of charming affairs.

Miss Blanche White of Los Angeles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. White, is a house guest at her parents home for a short time. Miss White will also visit with her brothers, H. L. White and Lloyd White.

Waldo Hills.—The Willard Women's club held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of the Misses Vera and Olive Ottaway.

Plans for an open meeting November 6 at the Waldo Hills club house were discussed. Three neighboring clubs are to be invited guests and the state president, Mrs. Lillian Bilyeu, is to be present as the guest speaker. The president, Mrs. Alta Haberman, appointed Mrs. Emma Neuwanger as chairman of the refreshments committee.

Reports of the county convention held last week at Hubbard were given by Vera and Olive Ottaway.

Mrs. Dan Hillman read a chapter from the program book, "Loafing Through the Pacific." Mrs. Elizabeth Jans gave an interesting paper on "Hawaiian Talents." Mrs. Lettie Bye then told the legend of "The Deluge" as told by the natives of Hawaii. After a social hour the hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. Truman Cummings and Mrs. Ralph Curtis were joint hostess for a delightful buffet supper at the Curtis home Sunday night in compliment to Miss Camilla Gates of Portland.
