Brilliant Party Honors Bride Elect

A beautiful party of the week was the surprise shower for Miss Irene Breithaupt, bride elect of the very near future, with Mrs. Paul Allen, Miss Myrtle Smith and Miss Loretta Varley as hostesses at the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority house on Oak street Saturday night.

The guest rooms were brilliantly arranged with flowers in autumn shades combined with greenery. Here and there Hallowe'en tokens suggested the spirit of the weekend and contributed additional dashes of color to the long living room where a huge fire burned in the wide fireplace at one end of the room and to the attractive dining room where the gifts to the bride elect were arranged.

Streamers of orange came down from the chandelier over the dining room table to the many corners of an inverted orange umbrella. Near the umbrella a pert bride dressed in orange and black stood guard over the many packages heaped upon the table.

Miss Breithaupt was greeted at the door by Miss Loretta Varley and Miss Myrtle Smith each dressed as ghosts and escorted into the living room. The double doors leading from the living room into the dining room, swung open and revealed the guests about the table and the table piled with packages. As Miss Breithaupt began to open the packages Mrs. Leo Kafoury sang "I Love You Truly."

The evening was spent informally with music and conversation and at a late hour the hostesses served.

The guest list to compliment the bride included—
Mesdames: Helen Breithaupt, C. F. Breithaupt, Alice B. Breithaupt, R. V. Ohmart, Herman Garrett, Leo Kafoury, Conrad Beach, Morris Fidler, Cornelius Bateson, Truena Cummings, La Vina Bulry, Evelyn Hebel, Pauline Welch.
Out of town guests for the occasion were Mrs. Mary Pecke Cootle and Miss Elaine Clower, both of Silverton.

The Sons of Veterans Auxiliary Sewing club members, met and were entertained at the home of Louise King, Friday afternoon. Hallowe'en decorations were used about the rooms. A short business session was observed after which the hostess, assisted by Helen King, served refreshments which were characteristic of the Hallowe'en spirit. These answering to roll call were, visitors, Myrtle Henderson, Jane Evans, Miss Jennings, Members, Maryette Davis, Clara Adams, Emily Prescott, Rose Risly, Hattie Cameron, Liria Smith, Carrie Jennings, Minnie Biker, Mattie Schram, Lulu Boring, Ida Traglo, Jennie Yantis, Mary Tinkel and the hostesses Louise King and Helean King.

There will be a regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary Monday night at Miller's hall promptly at 8 o'clock at which time plans will be made for the part which the auxiliary will play in the Armistice day program.

The first meeting of the Beethoven society of Willamette university was held at Willamette lodge Friday afternoon. A musical program was enjoyed and plans were made for the coming year.

Miss Martha Burnham of Pasadena is a guest of Miss Sally Bush. Miss Burnham is a sister of the founder of the Burnham Preparatory school of Northampton, Massachusetts.

Dean and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt attended the Oregon State and Washington State football game in Portland Saturday afternoon and the horse show in the evening.

Young Folk Have Hallowe'en Frolic

Miss A. M. Luthy entertained members of her music classes and a few additional guests Friday night with Hallowe'en frolic. The guest rooms were decked with Oregon grape and everywhere about where bats, cats and witches. A witch told fortunes and late in the evening the group masked and marched out on the streets for a bit of frolic.

After the outdoor excursion the group returned to the Luthy home where refreshments were served. The guests included Loma Brown, Yvonne Curtis, Edith Tanner, Lelle Pogue, Millard Brown, Irene Webb, Junior Curtis, Adelbert Henderson, Alice Flag, Dwight George, Vivian Webb, Ralph Kennedy, Colleen Andersen, Myron Rogue, Irma Flag, Forrest Brown, and Miss Ella Johnston.

Dancing Party is Jolly Evening

Miss Eleanor Chadwick was hostess for a happy Hallowe'en dancing party at her home Friday evening. Gay Hallowe'en symbols and orange and black tapers added the final touch of festivity to the evening. At the supper hour Miss Chadwick was assisted by Miss Peggy McCoy.

Guests were the Mesdames—Peggy McCoy, Barbara Walker, Lois Brown, Guinevere Wood, Eleanor Chadwick, Howard Cross.

The Intermediate department of Jason Lee church held a Hallowe'en party in the social rooms of the church Friday night. Varieties and waltzes were the make-up of the youngsters. The first prize went to Vera Jackson for cleverest costume, and second to Harold Duncan for the ugliest. The new members were welcomed into the league by a series of waltzes after the games. Hallowe'en refreshments were served. Mrs. Phipps, Mrs. Henry Johnson and Mrs. Gordon Black were supervisors.

Rev. P. W. Erikson read the quiet but impressive service Friday night at 8 o'clock which united in marriage Werner W. Beck and Miss Eleanor Coski, both of Portland. Miss Dagmar Hill and G. E. Hatig were the only attendants.

Dr. Elizabeth Matthews, who has been spending the summer with her sister Miss Amanda Matthews of Shaw, has started east, where she will spend some time at Chicago, Boston and New York City, before returning to Europe.

Sagittarians Are Active Dreamers Says Astrology

By PAULINE

"Who first comes to this world below under Sagittarius that their true gem should ever show a topaz."

DREAMERS with a practical bent which often makes their dreams come true, are people born between November 23 and December 21 when the Sun is in Sagittarius, or who had this sign of the zodiac rising at the time of their birth.

Sagittarius is a fiery sign, ruled by the planet Jupiter, and its symbol is a Centaur in the act of shooting an arrow. Thus, Sagittarians possess the expansive, altruistic, rather paternal nature usually associated with the kingly Jupiter; they have all the swift directness of an arrow, and they find a special joy, as a rule, in fresh air and the outdoors which perhaps expresses the Centaur part of them. Directness with them means not only honesty but an unerring accuracy in getting at the essentials of a situation or of human character. They also have a faculty of making others see the point in an argument usually by the Socratic method of interjections, which makes them excellent teachers and lawyers. To the latter profession, particularly, they bring a positive genius for cross-examination. They also are well-fitted for journalistic or literary careers, and they are apt to be successful in business (the influence of Jupiter being valuable in this respect).

November's birthstone is the topaz, which is supposed to attract the favorable vibrations of the Moon—exactly when the Moon is new and more and more powerfully as it becomes fuller. During the Middle Ages, the topaz enjoyed

D. A. R. Birthday Luncheon is Beautiful

THE fifteenth birthday celebration of the organization of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was observed at the Elks temple as a no host affair Saturday at 1 o'clock.

The large table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves which had been provided by Mrs. W. B. Johnston.

S. W. Dyer, "mother" of Chemeketa chapter, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. A. E. Austin of Woodburn read the message from Mrs. Dyer. Mrs. W. W. McCredie, state regent, gave the address of the afternoon. Mrs. John Orr presided at the luncheon table and at the business meeting which followed.

Action was taken in the form of a motion by Mrs. LeMoine Clark, to place the D. A. R. on record as in favor of continuing the Marion county health unit up to its present standards; and also it was suggested that the D. A. R. would support a community chest if such action was taken by the city in favor of such an organization.

A program of music was given in the course of the luncheon hour by Donald Schuppe, pianist.
