

Salem High and Pear Pickers Battle to 12-12 Tie Game

COUGARS BEAT OREGON STATE

Breaks Give Pullman Team Two Touchdowns; Game Full of Thrills

By FRANK G. GORRIE
MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The Washington State college crimson catapult crushed an ever threatening Oregon State college Beaver 14 to 0 to continue its mighty drive towards the Pacific coast conference football championship.

But it was only through two brilliant stands on their own five yard line that the "wonder team" of the Pacific northwest was able to chalk up the victory. The Cougars suffered 50 minutes of fear, partly through their own mistakes and fumbles and partly because of a wicked aerial attack put into play by the Beavers.

Washington State gained the first break of the game when Ahlskog deflected Thompson's punt from behind his own goal line and Schwartz nailed the pigskin on the O. S. C. 9 yard line early in the first period. The Cougars took advantage of the fumble and pushed over a touchdown. Lainhart put his head down and cracked left tackle for 3 yards. He tried to circle left end on the second play but was forced out of bounds for no gain. Schwartz smashed through the left guard for two yards and then on the fourth and last down, Ellingsen reeled around left end behind perfect interference to cross the O. S. C. goal line. Maskell place kicked for the try for point.

Buerke and Root
This ended the scoring until the last play when O. S. C.'s little fighting quarterback, Ralph Buerke, and a substitute end, Floyd Root, completed a 36 yard forward pass for a Beaver touchdown which sent the crowd into a frenzy.

The fourth period opened with O. S. C. in possession of the ball on its 24 yard line and third down. Thompson dropped back and booted a punt over Tonkin's head which rolled out of bounds in Washington State's 3 yard line. The pigskin traveled 71 yards.

Ellingsen was forced to return the kick from behind his own goal line and Buerke returned it to W. S. C.'s 35 yard line, just inside the out of bounds mark. It took the Beavers two plays to run the ball over the side line and it looked like their chance was gone.

Buerke decided to put everything into a forward pass and ordered Root to race for the goal line. The little fellow did not get away back to give Root plenty of time and then let loose with a mighty heave from midfield.

Root reached the goal line but was covered by two Cougars. As the ball neared him, however, he leaped into the air and kicked the spiral down, falling into the scoring zone with both Washington men on him.

Breathlessly the spectators waited for the place kick. Coquette Thompson, the big Indian guard, who does the kicking for the Beavers, took plenty of time. His boot went high but wide and Referee George Varnell dropped his arms indicating that the placement had failed. As the Beaver fans were moaning Empire Bobby Morris notified the referee that a W. S. C. lineman had been off side and up shot the referee's waving arms and the hopes of the fighting Beavers.

Five minutes later Washington State took the upper hand. Galpin took the ball and kicked the try for point from placement. The Beavers had two other brilliant opportunities to score but were unable to move the Cougar line past its one yard mark.

HUBBARD UNION BEHIND AGENT

Unanimous Vote Given Move to Have Agricultural Work Done

HUBBARD, Ore., Nov. 1.—By unanimous vote, the Hubbard Fruit Growers' association this afternoon expressed its desire that a county agent be appointed for Marion county. At the next meeting of the executive board of the association a committee will be appointed to wait upon the county court asking that it appoint such an agent.

W. L. Teutsch, of Oregon State college and county agent for Benton county, addressed the group on the work of a county agent. Mr. Teutsch gave four reasons why a county agent may be helpful to the farmers. First, it is the work of the county agent to help solve agricultural problems of the farmer. Second, the county agent helps form farm organizations which lead toward more scientific methods of production and greater economy in marketing. Third, the county agent acts as the go-between for the farmer and the experiment station, bringing results of various experiments direct to the farmer. And fourth, Mr. Teutsch believes, the county agent attempts to discover methods by which the farmer may reap greater profits.

Mr. Teutsch pointed out that while the Oregon State college is interested in the county agent movement, it is not merely a selfish attitude on its part, since of the 19 county agents in Oregon ten of them are not from the Oregon State school of agriculture.

He presented figures upon which he based his conclusion that a county agent in this county would cost each farmer less than one dollar. In Clackamas county, he said, the county agent costs each farmer not more than fifty cents.

"The county agent," said Teutsch, "must have actual experimental knowledge to be of value."

Northwestern 11 Beats Minnesota

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Minneapolis, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Minnesota's fighting Gophers caged the giant offensive paw of Northwestern's wildcats today but while Captain Hank Bruder was stopped, his teammates clawed and passed their way to a 27 to 6 victory over Minnesota. Northwestern squared in the sun of the western conference title race.

Penn Shows Strength to Beat Kansas

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's rugged but erratic eleven rose today to fulfill the promise of power it has shown all season and beat back with splashes of brilliance the beef and drive of the Jay Hawks of Kansas.

Penn pulled out the struggle by a final count of 21 to 6. But the score gave little indication of the closeness of the bitter duel that followed in the first half. Seven times in the second half, after being completely out-played in the first two periods as Penn smothered their highly publicized halfback ace, Jarrins Jim Bausch, the Kansas had opportunities to score touchdowns.

Out of those seven chances the Kansans salvaged one score and were halted by the final whistle with the ball on Penn's six-yard line. Yet in those same two final periods the Quakers had one chance to score and they promptly turned it into a touchdown.

Florida Spoils Georgia's Dash To High Honors

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 1 (AP)—Georgia's march toward national gridiron honors was blocked today by a courageous Florida eleven which presented a steel-plated defense to halt every Georgia thrust and held the mighty Bull Dog conquerors of Yale, to scoreless tie.

Twice Georgia pounded at the doors of Florida's goal but the slashing drives of Roberts, Chandler and Downes, the aces of the Bull Dog attack, could do little more than knock off small chips from the concrete Florida forward wall.

Risk Runs Wild For Purdue and Illinois Loses

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Champaign, Ill., Nov. 1.—(AP)—A 150 pound stick of dynamite, substitute halfback, Ed Risk, of Terre Haute, Ind., and Purdue university, exploded at intervals today and blasted Illinois ten to its third straight Big Ten football defeat of the season.

Scoring a touchdown in each period, Purdue ran up a 25 to 0 count on the Illini, and it was Risk, who was sent in for Lewis Pope in the first period, who led the way.

MEDFORD TEAM PROVES STRONG

Stiff Goal Line Defense Saves red and Black From Defeat

MEDFORD, Ore., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The Medford High school eleven fought through four periods of football here today to a 12 to 12 tie.

Sugal, Salem half, scored both touchdowns for the visitors on line plays. Medford scored on reverse fake end runs and a 50 yard pass.

Salem was leading 12 to 6 at the half. In the final period Medford carried the ball to within one inch of the goal line but were unable to force it across.

The game was bitterly fought but only one penalty was ordered for roughness.

Sugal was Salem's chief ground gainer while Applegate and Walker accounted for much of the yardage for Medford.

Puget Sound Crushed by Husky 60-0

SEATTLE, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The College of Puget Sound's hopes of scoring against the University of Washington were dashed here today when the Huskies thrashed the Loggers for a 60 to 0 victory in a "reserves" game for the men of Phelan.

Washington's reserves forced over two scores in the first quarter, but when they failed to click during the second period, Coach Jimmy Phelan rushed in his first string men only to have them held to no score. A Logger fullback, Baker, kept the Huskies from threatening seriously by long kicks.

In the second half, however, the Huskies turned into a smooth scoring machine. They pushed over three touchdowns and scored a field goal, Bill Mash doing the booting from the 20 yard line.

Marsh, August Busse and Merle Hufford each crossed the Logger goal line in spectacular runs. In the fourth period with the substitutes back in the game, Bob Sherry, Johnny Cherberg, Busse and Hufford scored for the Huskies, Marsh and Borden each kicking for an extra point.

Borden and Bill Wolcott scored in the first period, Hufford falling in both tries for point.

Wildcats to Tangle Here In Mat Bout

Interest in the wrestling game locally, already strong because of the excellent card staged here in October, took on additional impetus following the announcement that the two Wildcats, McCann and Pete, are billed to meet Wednesday night.

An attempt was made by the local matchmaker many months ago to bring this pair together, but it failed because of McCann's contract for a tour of western Canada. Now this much desired bout is on schedule. Matchmaker Plant is pleased at his success in getting the bout over Eugene and Albany.

With the lid off as to tactics, McCann is believed to have possibly the slight edge although there is little basis for any conclusion as to the relative strength of these combatants. Conversely, the general opinion is that with "rough stuff" barred, Pete would be a favorite.

Stagg's Son Big Factor; Chicago Holds Princeton

STAGG FIELD, Chicago, Nov. 1.—(AP)—A courageous band of Chicago's football warriors, who haven't won a game, or even scored a point, in their last three contests, refused to allow Princeton, once a gridiron terror of the east, to beat them today.

Whitman and Pacific are Both Still Threats for Northwest Championship

By RALPH CURTIS

THE scoreless tie game between Whitman and Pacific football teams at Portland Friday night, and served to heighten interest in the Northwest conference race and consequently in the game which Whitman and Willamette will play here November 22.

The race has narrowed down to these three, and all are still undefeated. No matter how the game here with Whitman turns out, Willamette's game with Pacific in Portland November 23 will also have a bearing on the title unless an upset occurs and College of Idaho knocks over one of Willamette's rivals.

Though Pacific looked fully as strong as Whitman Friday night, it appeared that Whitman was probably considerably stronger.

Behind a strong line, the Pacific backs passed the ball so cleverly that it was hard to tell even from the grandstand, who was carrying it. Atcheson, always a hard man to stop, was especially a threat when he tucked the ball behind him in the crook of his arm and looped ahead with the sphere completely hidden.

Sutphin, Anderson and Gibson proved equally impressive as ground gainers for Whitman, behind a line that was strong eluding the on offense or defense. The teams were equally capable of tightening within the scoring zone.

On the whole, both Whitman and Pacific appeared to be stronger all-around elevens than the other two. Counting the Whitman game as good as Washington State was just as good as Washington State—except for that one play which we, old fashioned or not, will still call a "boner".

Trojans Play 3 Minutes to Beat Denver

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—(AP)—It was something of a holiday for the University of Southern California first team today, the resulting being that the Trojan reserves defeated the University 33 to 13 in a discontinued football game before 20,000 of football's faithful.

Willis Hunter, athletic director who took charge of the men of Troy in the absence of Coach Howard Jones, visiting the California-Montana game at Berkeley, allowed the first string players, allowed the first string players to play three minutes of play in the third quarter, during which Orville Mohler broke a 6-6 tie with two touchdowns.

Then he turned the fighting inventory over to the second and third teams again. The reserves aged to put over two touchdowns to Coach Jeff Cravath's combinations one during the remainder of the struggle.

ELI-DARTMOUTH GAME THRILLER

Scores Lacking for Booth Crosses Indian's Goal Once; Called Back

By ALAN GOULD
YALE BOUL. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Two high-powered offensive, two superbly courageous defensive barriers banged into each other today and result was a scoreless, but peculiar deadlock between football forces of Yale and Dartmouth.

Before a crowd of 62,000 spectators, falling unexpectedly far short of the big bowl's capacity, Albie Booth, Yale's diminutive quarterback, burned to action in such good faith, so well recovered from the bumps he received in the army contest, that he led the Eli's attack throughout the game and came close to winning it.

Booth, on a dazzling 32 yard end run, scampered across the Dartmouth goal early in the second period, after leading a series of big drive plays but the up-guard subsided and the mighty atom's effort wasted when Referee E. J. O'Brien detected holding in the Yale ranks. This was the closest Yale came to scoring although all told, the Eli's wasted five good drives deep into Green territory in the first half before being compelled in the last half to take the defensive themselves and beat off a succession of charges by the hard hitting Indians from Hanover.

Dartmouth has Edge Last Half
Dartmouth was on the attack through the last half. Four times the green was within striking distance of the Eli goal, due to the sensational ball juggling of Bill Morton and Wild Bill McCall but the Blue defense, while considerably battered, was equal to the emergencies.

On the last play off he game, with the ball in Dartmouth's possession on Yale's 12 yard line after a series of rushes and brilliant passes, McCall tried a dropkick from the 21 yard mark that barely missed breaking the

Bears Crush Montana by 46-0 Score

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Playing with the dash and smash followers had looked for earlier in the season, California's Bears crushed University of Montana's Grizzlies 46 to 0 here today in their annual coast conference game.

A crowd of about 20,000 persons saw the rejuvenated Bears, after being held to one touchdown at half time, come back for a parade that netted three in the third quarter and as many more in the fourth.

The second half offensive of the Bears brightened the hopes of supporters in comparing California's chances with University of Southern California at Los Angeles next Saturday.

When they trotted out after the half time rest, Coach Niba Price's proteges opened up with a ground and aerial attack that completely routed the visiting team. Dolph Timmerman, Bear tackle, clinaxed a series of long runs when he caught a kickoff and ran through the entire Montana eleven, 70 yards for a touchdown.
