WEST SALEM .- Last rites for Mrs. Rebecca A. Hunt, 81, West Salem pioneer, who died October 28, were conducted at the Ford Memorial church Friday by Rev. M. A. Groves, pastor of the church, and Rev. F. L. Cannell, former pastor. Interment was made in Lee Mission cemetery under the direction of Terwiland liger funeral parlors.

Rebecca A. Harper was born October 10, 1849, at Welland, Ontario, the eldest of 10 children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, She was preceded in death by parents and two brothers and four sisters. Her second marriage, 1885, was to Hiram Alonzo Skinner, prominent Ontario, Canada, school teacher. They came at once to Salem to reside on what became known as the Skinner farm, in what is now the Salem Heights district. Both Mr. Skinner and her first husband died many years ago.

Mrs. Rebecca Harper Skinner moved to West Salem 20 years ago, living here four years before marrying J. T. Hunt. Mr. Hunt survives her at the family home here.

Mrs. Hunt is also survived by two children, William H. Squier of Mohier and Mrs. Edward Becken of Independence; two brothers and one sister of Welland and a brother, James Harper, of Saskatchewan; 13 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

She united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Welland and transferred to First Methodist church, Salem, when she came west. She was one of the charter members of what is now known as Ford Memorial church. spoke briefly and H. G. Stark- In 1916 Rev. T. D. Yarnes, who was then pastor of the West Salem circuit, made the following regarding her, in a historical sketch of the work of his parish: "At West Salem, the name Congressman Hawley, scoring the that is pre-eminent above all the others connected with the found-Hawley-Smoot tariff bill, for his ing of things is that of Rebecca failure to secure farm relief, an A. Hunt."

She was held in honor here for her tireless labors in the He branded Hawley as a friend | church.
