SCOUT OUTLOOK BRIGHTER NOW

Boy Scout prospects in the Marion and Polk county council area are looking brighter, says O. P. West, scout executive.

Preparations are in progress for a second financial drive to satisfy budget needs for the new year. A meeting will be held next Wednesday night to hear reports from representatives who are making the matter up with their various fraternal or civic organizations, and at this time dates for the final drive will be determined.

West says the Monmouth troop has been reorganized, with a new scoutmaster, normal school student by name of Galbreath, and that interest is strong there.

The parent-teacher association at Aumsville has accepted sponsorship of a scout troop over leadership of Harry J. Smith was a student at Monmouth normal school last year, and while there took the scoutmaster's leadership training course given by the local council. A dozen or more boys in his neighborhood have already requested formation of a new scout troop out there, as troop 12, sponsored by Jason Lee church, is full.

Call has also been received for formation of a troop at the Auburn school, and Mr. West was out there yesterday afternoon to meet with prospective members.

NO! "Love in the Rough" DID NOT COST $5,000,000.00 TO PRODUCE

It hasn't any War Scenes, or Airplanes, or Beer Barons, or Machine Guns. Not even a Gangster's Gat.

But it has a Grand Story. Rich... Honest to Goodness Comedy and what a Charming Cast... "LOVE IN THE ROUGH" is the picture with a Personality, the kind of Movie you love to spend a few hours with... Here is the Gay Country Club romance that presents the most endearing of all Screen Lovers, Robert Montgomery and Dorothy Jordan.

Not Colossal but Awfully Clever... Peppery light drama, chock-full of chuckles and loaded with laughs... They thought he was a Millionaire, but all he had was Nerve, a Million Dollar Smile and a 800 yard drive on the golf course... On the stage "LOVE IN THE ROUGH" was a great Broadway Hit... On the Screen it is a Nation-wide Triumph... In other words it's a Darn Swell Show.

ASSESSORS WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

Highlights of the program for annual meeting of assessors from Oregon counties to be held here next Wednesday and Thursday were announced yesterday by Oscar Steelhammer, Marion county assessor and president of the state body.

The group will get a complete view of the flax industry Wednesday afternoon, when beginning at 1:30 the men will go to the penitentiary to inspect the flax plant there, after which visit will be made to the Miles linen mill to watch towing operations.

Thursday morning the assessors will meet at 10 o'clock on the fifth floor of the new state office building, when Dr. James H. Gilburn of the University of Oregon, department of economics will give the principal address. The rest of the day will be devoted to talks by county assessors and tax commissioners.

The state tax commission has scheduled sessions with the assessors for Friday and Saturday. L. N. Center of Toledo is secretary of the assessors' association.

Mickey Mouse NOTES

Last week there were supposed to be a pair of Keds given away to the girl or boy holding the lucky membership card, but when many numbers were read and nobody responded, Chief Scott decided not to read any more. He did this because too many mice were making noise and the members could not hear the numbers read, so if you want a chance of winning something, please make less noise. This week we will have a blackboard so that you may see the numbers.

For a change a girl color bearer has been elected to carry the flag, and she is Dorothy Thomas. Dorothy has sung for the club many times.

Barbara Barnes entertained us again last week with one of her pupils, Eugene Sewell. Eugene was clever with his waltz clog.
