Potatoes Prove Profitable Crop

GERVAISE, Nov. 7.—Al Vanderbeck has on display in the bank window four potatoes of the Garnett variety that are record breakers for this year. Two of them weigh two pounds and two ounces each and the other two are about the same size.

Mr. Vanderbeck grew them on contract and is to receive $1.25 per 100 pounds. He says he will net about $75.00 per acre on them, because they are so large. There are only two or three potatoes to a hill.

WEST SALEM DADS IN LONG SESSION

Two Meetings This Week and one Next Needed to Finish up Work

WEST SALEM, Nov. 7.—The city council met Monday night and again Wednesday night and members were instructed to appear again next Monday evening to complete the city's monthly business transactions.

All members of the council were present Monday evening. C. S. Buge, street commissioner reported that all streets needing repair had been graded and were in good condition. The budget was discussed, made out and read.

A free holder's meeting was held at which the following freeholders were chosen: George Chapman, chairman; Earl Burke, secretary; and L. M. Hill, Dale Lemon, S. Pfeiffer, Harry Carter and George Steward. The budget was approved by them.

Mr. Arnold representing street graders was allowed the courtesy of the floor for a talk on street grading. The street committee and public committee were instructed to investigate concerning the matter of purchasing a grader for the city and to turn in a report at the next meeting.

Activities of Wednesday night's meeting were as follows: An official count was made of ballots from the city election which resulted thus: Mayor, G. C. Newport, to succeed C. E. Greene; treasurer, L. L. Sloper who succeeds himself; recorder, Mrs. Maude Miller who also succeeds herself; councilmen for short term, Harry Carter and Emmett Dixon; retiring councilmen are A. F. Goffin and Al Henningsen. Long term councilmen elected are J. A. Gosper and George Chapman. Retiring, J. I. Miller who has served continuously for ten years.

A discussion was held concerning the bad condition of the sidewalk on Edgewater street and the council decided that a bill was necessary. The matter was left to the discretion of the street committee. A sewer extension of 200 feet was requested and the sewer committee was instructed to investigate and report at next meeting. The matter of cleaning up the city hall grounds was discussed and a motion prevailed that Marshall C. S. Ruge get some one to attend to the matter.

Adjourned. Meet in adjourned session next Monday evening.

Duck Cause of Auto Accident

KINGWOOD, Nov. 7.—Mrs. J. P. Smart and her daughter, Margaret, had a unique auto accident Thursday morning which just missed being a very serious one.

As they were driving along Wallace road toward town a large tame Muscovy duck flew violently against the windshield, shattering it as if a sledge hammer had struck it.

Miss Margaret saw it coming and shielded her face but was struck on top of the head by the splintered glass, causing a scalp wound which bled profusely.

Both she and Mrs. Smart were also cut slightly about the face and neck. It was necessary to have Margaret's wounds dressed by a nurse. The duck flew the length of the car and shattered the back glass also and the accident cost the fowl its life.

ELECTION IS QUIET

GERVAISE, Nov. 7.—The city election held in connection with the state election Tuesday was of little interest to voters in the city. Only one ticket was in the field which, perhaps accounts for lack of interest. G. J. Moison, who has been mayor for a number of years, was reelected. C. A. Sawyer, Wm. Allsup and A. DeJardin were reelected councilmen for a four year term. L. V. McAadoo was elected recorder, re-

Corporations Spending Millions Pay Tribute to Value of Newspaper Space

Read What Expert Advertisers Say About Newspaper Advertising

The Acturus Radio Tube Company, according to a statement by I. P. Naylor, sales manager, last Fall, "proved that newspaper advertising has secured for us a consumer acceptance in less time and over a greater area than by any other means that we might employ." Mr. Naylor told how the company has begun its newspaper advertising in 17 cities, extended it to 53 cities, and later extended its schedule to nearly 800 newspapers in all cities of 10,000 population or more.

"In every state we received immediate response in proportion to the increase," he said. A questionnaire sent to all distributors showed a 56 per cent preference for newspaper advertising as against all other forms.
