

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor.

A LULL before a solemn holiday is felt over Salem this weekend. Even though there was much of social activity connected with the past World war yet there is nothing to inspire gay parties and much merriment in its annual observance.

Thirteen years ago today society was bent on knitting things for its men who were either gone or getting ready to go; it was organizing Red Cross groups to make hospital supplies; rummage sales were sponsored for the benefit of various "war needs"; and many of the maids and those a bit older were tucking away the party dresses and donning service uniforms and finding themselves a place in the great scheme of war. Clothes were mere essentials those days; entertaining was done for those who were home on leave or just leaving, and a little bit later for those in hospitals who were just getting able to be about in the world again.

So today there is a pause for reminiscence among the matrons and maids of society. And then the gay whirl of post Thanksgiving events will begin.

Brides are to come in for a lion's share of the entertaining. Affairs are being planned for Miss Catherine Hartley whose wedding date has not yet been announced. Mrs. Rex Adolph began this series of parties with a bridge tea Friday afternoon.

Miss Nancy Savage whose wedding to Ellis Von Eschen will be an event of November 24 is being extensively entertained. This week Mrs. J. F. Billiter will entertain for Miss Monday night; Mrs. Lars Bergsvik Wednesday night; and another large party is being planned in her honor Friday night.

Club women from all over the third district representing nine counties will meet in Salem Friday and thus there will be much activity in club circles.

There will also be a large tea given Wednesday of this week at which time Episcopal women from the nearby towns are to be the guests of Mrs. George A. White at her home between the hours of 3 and 5:30 o'clock.

In addition to these larger things there will be much preparation throughout the week on musical programs which will be presented during the next two months. The first week in December holds dates for two lovely concerts—a Salem Chamber Music concert and a Salem MacDowell concert. The two symphony groups, junior and senior, are working hard each week and much progress is being made toward the development of greater music expression for Salem.

American Lutheran Guild to Meet

The Ladies Guild of the American Lutheran church will meet at the church for a 2 o'clock meeting Wednesday with Mrs. R. C. Arpke presiding. Mrs. C. M. Byrd will have charge of the mission study and there will be a musical program.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Herman Tastro, Mrs. Paul Zirkel, and Mrs. Julia Schroeder.

TODAY WE PRESENT . . .

Music, parties and clubs make the weeks roll round with the alacrity of telephone poles flashing by windows of a fast moving train. We present today a group of folk who have been helping time fly.

To Mrs. T. S. Roberts, center left, there is seldom a week that does not bring a musical event to the lovely residence studio in the Roberts home. In addition to that Mrs. Roberts is vice president of the Salem Music teachers association, state president of the Oregon Dunning association and otherwise definitely connected with the music of the city and state.

Mrs. Ralph Winn, wife of Dr. Ralph Winn of the department of psychology in Willamette university, is a charming new member of both university and city social circles. Mrs. Winn spoke before the Salem Heights Woman's club Friday afternoon on the subject of "Russia," native land of Mrs. Winn.

To the upper left we introduce Mrs. Rex Adolph who entertained Friday a delightful bridge tea in compliment to Miss Catherine Hartley, bride elect of Gordon Hartley.

Upper right is Mrs. J. H. Scott who has been hostess for a series of charming affairs the past two weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Ellis is Bridge Luncheon Hostess

An attractive bridge luncheon of the past week was that for which Mrs. Charles W. Ellis was hostess at her home on 20th street Friday.

A color scheme of yellow, lavender and bronze was carried out effectively about the guest rooms. The luncheon table was centered with a graceful low bowl of lavender and yellow button chrysanthemums flanked by slender green tapers. In the living rooms where bridge was in play following the luncheon hour, bronze and yellow chrysanthemums were used in large bowls.

Mrs. Paul Disney held high score for the afternoon of cards. The guest list included, Mrs. W. Fern McKinney, Mrs. Clark Gardner, Mrs. Alf Johnson, Mrs. Richard Middlebrooks, Mrs. A. L. Busch, Miss Marion Lytle, all of Hillsboro; Mrs. Henri Stohler of Banks; Mrs. Pen C. Crum, Mrs. Victor Kern, of Dallas; Mrs. Norman Hoff, and Mrs. Paul Disney of Salem.

Young Married People Plan Meeting

The first meeting of the year for the Young Married People's club of St. Paul's Episcopal church will be observed Wednesday night with a covered dish dinner at 6:45 o'clock in the parish house.

A program followed by cards and dancing will be enjoyed after the dinner hour. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law are in charge of the evening. This will mark the beginning of the regular monthly winter meetings of the club.

Third District Meeting Here Friday

ONE of the largest club affairs of the fall will be the third district meeting to be held at the Salem Woman's clubhouse Friday at which time representatives from nine counties of the third district of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs will meet under the presidency of Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo for an all day meeting. The program will be devoted to the study of public welfare.

The session will open at 10 o'clock with registration at the clubhouse. A program of music and brief speeches will be given during the morning session with an address of welcome by Mrs. David Wright, president of the Salem Woman's club, and a response by Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar; a talk by Mrs. Ivan Martin and the main address by Miss Louise Cottrell of Portland.

At noon a host luncheon is being given at the Elks temple with Mrs. Harry Weldmer in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar will be the special speaker for the afternoon session and there will be a round table discussion led by Mrs. Charles N. Bilyeu, state president of the Federation. Mrs. David Wright will preside over the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club which will meet for a brief business session at the regular time Friday afternoon.

Beta Chi Alumnae Meets

Miss Loretta Fisher was hostess to members of the Beta Chi alumnae at her home Monday night at which time plans were discussed for the coming year's activities. Miss Frances Hodges is president of this group; Miss Lela Millard, secretary treasurer; and Miss Florence Power, reporter.

Those present for the meeting were Frances Hodge, Lela Millard, Josephine Baumgartner, Eva Roberts, Marjorie Christensen, June Gaines, Lela Johnson, Florence Power, and Loretta Fisher.

Zena—Campfire Wahinkweeah held an enjoyable party at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard of Zena, Friday evening. Mrs. Shepard and Mrs. V. A. Stratton, assistant guardian, conducted discussions on projects which the Campfire girls will take up in the near future. Following Campfire songs and a business session the group had a jolly time in games and contests.

Refreshments were served at a late hour. Special guests were Marguerite and Gertrude Johnson, Mrs. Frank Smith, Hilda Crawford, Vera Mewhinney. Members were Mrs. Shepard, guardian, Mrs. V. A. Stratton, assistant guardian, Ruth and Julia Shepard, Eula Smith, Ila Smith, Olive Stratton, Doris Windsor, Lola Wilson, June and Elaine Worthington, Alice Crawford and Mr. Ralph C. Shepard.

Garden Club Program To be Unusual Evening

A PROGRAM which will attract as much attention as perhaps any which has ever been sponsored by the Salem Garden club will be that given Monday night at the Unitarian church in the Emerson room.

At this time Mrs. W. H. Burghardt will give a talk on "Flower arrangement" for the house and table. Mrs. Burghardt will compare the various periods and give examples of what sort of arrangement would be best suited to particular houses and particular personalities and colorful charm.

To give full benefit to the talk, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Miss Mahle Robertson and Mrs. Paul Wallace and others will arrange demonstrations of effective arrangements.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Janz are spending the weekend at Albany as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Callister. Mr. Callister was for years associated with the Coolidge and McClaine bank at Silverton, leaving about 10 years ago for San Francisco. He returned to Albany some years ago and has been associated in banking there since.

Lecture Will Feature Arts League Meeting

SALEM Arts league has for one of its main objects the presentation of educational lectures and exhibitions which follow in the line of artistic development. In line with this policy will be the presentation of Prof. N. B. Zane of the school of architecture and allied arts in the University of Oregon, and an artist of distinction throughout the country.

Prof. Zane, it is announced, will present a study of the dramas of the American Indians, especially those of the northwest, Friday night in Waller hall of Willamette university beginning at 8 o'clock.

An intensive and sympathetic study of the lives of the Indians of British Columbia and Alaska has been made by Prof. Zane and his talk will be generously interspersed with illustrated slides made from snapshots taken by himself, as well as with material personally collected by him. The lecture promises to be a fascinating and instructive one. It is open to the public.

Silverton—The Immanuel Aid society of which Mrs. A. Halverson is president, is making plans for its big autumn dinner and bazaar to be held Friday. Dinner will be served both at noon and again in the evening and the bazaar will be open during afternoon and evening. Mrs. Oscar Olsen is assisting Mrs. Halverson in completing plans.

Large Tea Will Honor Church Women

AN OUTSTANDING event in Episcopal circles will be the large tea for which the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will be hostess at the home of its president, Mrs. George A. White Wednesday afternoon between the hours of three and 5:30 o'clock.

The guest list will include the women of St. Paul's Episcopal church and the women of the Episcopal churches in nearby towns.

Mrs. George White, Mrs. Henry Cornoyer, Mrs. Don Roberts, Mrs. Louis Lachmond, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry will be the receiving line and wee Patty Neimyer will greet the guests at the door. Members of the junior guild will assist about the room.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. Susan deLisle will preside at the tea tables for the first part of the afternoon and Mrs. George Swift and Mrs. Florence Erwin the latter part of the afternoon.

Wallace Carson, Mrs. J. H. Brady, Mrs. J. E. Law, and Miss Henrietta White, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Alice Swift, Miss Eleanor Swift and Miss Eleanor Perry will assist in the serving.

Mrs. Clyde Sherman Entertains

Mrs. Clyde Sherman was hostess Thursday afternoon with a silver tea for the benefit of the Royal Neighbors. The guest rooms were lovely with late fall flowers used in profusion. Mrs. Norman Hoff favored with a group of vocal numbers.

Those present for this afternoon of needlework and conversation were Mrs. Norman Hoff, Mrs. D. F. Furlough, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. M. M. Stewart, Mrs. Rudie, Mrs. Oliver Huff, Mrs. Charles W. Ellis, Mrs. Frank Cheney, Miss Gertrude Cheney, Mrs. Frank Hoyt and daughter Frances Aline, Mrs. Clara Corbin, Miss Cora Mae Fehler, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Cora Hunt, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. George Speed, Mrs. E. R. Niles.

Mrs. Sarah Harter and Mrs. W. G. Walker were assistant hostesses at the tea hour.

Mrs. W. S. Mott entertained in compliment to Mrs. Will R. King, who has been a guest in Salem for the past few weeks. Thursday evening with dinner and this followed by cards. Guest in compliment to Mrs. King were Mrs. Douglas Minto, Mrs. R. Wall, Mrs. A. L. Brown, and Mrs. Ida Babcock. Mrs. King left Friday for her home in Los Angeles.

A. A. U. W. Hears Interesting Reviews

THE luncheon meeting for the American Association of University Women Saturday at the Elks temple proved to be exceptionally interesting and unusually well attended.

During the business meeting reports were made from the various committee chairmen and a report was made to the effect that a newly organized branch of the A. A. U. W. had been recognized in Baker, LaGrande and Pendleton.

A large number were admitted to membership in the local organization Saturday. Among these were Miss Claudine Gerth, Miss Rena Mickey, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Charles D. Hatfield, Mrs. Nell Doegs, Mrs. George Moorehead, Mrs. George A. Rhoten, Mrs. G. E. Shoemaker, Miss May Rausch, Miss Magda Hoff, Miss Margaret Whyte Stevenson, Mrs. W. R. Dallas, Mrs. Phillip E. Barrett and Mrs. V. H. Briggs.

Mrs. Earl Cooley gave a group of vocal solos and Miss Harriet Long, state librarian, spoke informally and interestingly on recent books.

A group of books especially mentioned by Miss Long is that which deals with the Adams family. Several exceptionally worthwhile books have been written concerning various phases of the family among which is "Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Adams," and "Letters of Henry Adams."

"Roadside Meetings" by Garland was recommending as furnishing fresh and interesting material as well as in "Days of Bicycles and Bustles" and Gibbs, "Since Then."

Mrs. Ellen Fisher presided at the luncheon meeting which was the regular monthly meeting of the organization.

Marion Post Auxiliary To Install Officers

Officers for the coming year for the auxiliary to Marion Post No. 661 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be installed Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse.

Mrs. Carmen Thompson, state department resident of Portland, will be the installing officer and Mrs. Rose Baily, state department secretary of Portland, will also be in attendance. Members of the Albany post will assist in putting on the installation work. Other visitors are expected and there will be a social hour to conclude the installation service.

bazaar to be held Friday. Dinner will be served both at noon and again in the evening and the bazaar will be open during afternoon and evening. Mrs. Oscar Olsen is assisting Mrs. Halverson in completing plans.

New Evening Frocks for the Holidays

THERE'LL be many gay parties and dances from Christmas to New Year's, and even if you think you have enough evening frocks, you'll want one of these—for an extra bit of wardrobe charm in the modern manner. These are lovely dresses, finely made, and copies from Paris originals. They are worth twice their price, and you'll find it worthwhile to get more than one, at
