Conversation and fancy work occupied the time. Plans were made for the usual Christmas tree. Mrs. Beal served a dainty lunch to the following guests: Mrs. Pearl Hedges, Mrs. E. Busby, Mrs. Lu O'Kelley, Mrs. P. Dickinson and Mrs. Willard Craven.

Woodburn—A beautiful but simple wedding ceremony was performed at the Woodburn St. Luke church Tuesday morning, when Miss Myra McGrath became the bride of Leo Mick. A wedding breakfast was afterwards served at the Woodburn hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Mick will reside in a rural home near Woodburn.

Scotts Mills—A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gersch Saturday evening, honoring the birthdays of Ambrose Gersch and Mary Gersch. Games were played during the evening, and a late hour lunch was served.

Scotts Mills—Miss Pauline Semolke has returned to her work in Portland after visiting relatives here.

Tea in Vacuum just like coffee!

It is just as necessary for one as for the other, to prevent the evaporation of the fragrant volatile oils that give them both their flavor. The West discovered how to preserve coffee flavor in vacuum. And the West has found the proper process for tea, but it still remains exclusive to the originator—Schilling. It is literally the only fresh tea you can buy.

This will bring "Good Times" again

The reason given by "Economists" for the slowing up in business, and the resulting unemployment, is that there is a "surplus" of goods. When this surplus is used up, then more goods will need to be produced, employment will improve, and times will be "good" again. You can help this along, and help yourself at the same time, by buying where your dollars use up most of these "surplus" goods. Here at Byrnes you get more of quality goods for your dollar. By shopping here you will have more and better goods for your needs and enjoyment. Reduce this troublesome "surplus" and help your co-workers get back to work again to produce more goods—and all at a saving to yourself.
