

TURNER CLUB HAS PROGRAM

Mrs. Mary Fulkerson is Speaker at Community Meeting

TURNER, Nov. 12.—Turner community club met Monday evening for their second meeting of the fall season. The high school auditorium was crowded with each community in the vicinity of Turner well represented. The opening numbers was the singing of a few spirited songs which was led by Mrs. Jean Pearce. Miss Mabel Tucker served as secretary for the evening.

A committee was named by the club to go before the Marion county court at the proper time in the interest of securing a county agricultural agent.

S. A. Riches, Charles Barber, Arthur Edwards, Walter Miller and C. A. Bear were made members of the committee. It was decided to leave the election of officers and standing committees until the last meeting before next summer's vacation.

A prepared statement was read by C. A. Bear, of facts and figures concerning the valuation, cost of operation and economy of saving in the surrounding small school districts, if they would help form, at some future time, a consolidation with the Turner school district.

With approximately nearly a $1,000,000 worth of taxable property in the eight school districts joined with Turner, the school would be supplied with all needs including good equipment and more teachers, which would mean more advantages for the children.

A. N. Fulkerson was called upon for a few words of greeting, as he was one of the first promoters in the county in the community club movement, he having visited Turner at one time proposing such an organization.

An orchestra number followed.

Superintendent is Heard

Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, Marion county school superintendent gave an interesting talk on "Objections and Advantages of Schooling during her two months trip east last spring, in the interest of the health interests of schools in general. She mentioned the high money cost when a child has to be kept in bed, whether caused by ill health which is perhaps the greatest cause, or for other reasons. It is our duty to be able to offer a remedy for physical defects whenever possible. Mrs. Fulkerson told of her first stop in San Francisco, California at a health center where experiments were being worked out, very satisfactorily regarding the control of certain weaknesses.

At New Orleans the problems of sanitation were studied. The race question was in the front of problems at Birmingham, Alabama. We of the west know nothing of the problems of the south, with the great numbers of children who work in the mines and who often do not have the proper food in quality or quantity to maintain good health.

Food Habits Studied

One interesting sight was witnessed when visiting a primary school room, the children were being taught the art of selecting a balanced ration for their lunch. One of the pleasing remembrances was the singing of negro spirituals by several hundred negro school children. York is gathering the physically defective into one or more institutions and seek to correct the individual trouble, while giving instruction, of various kinds, thus hoping to make many of them self supporting. Mrs. Fulkerson closed her talk by saying "We in Marion county are taking the right steps in trying to help our children and no children found on the trip appeared better than our own."

The recently organized high school orchestra led by Kenneth Hickok with Mrs. Jean Pearce at the piano, gave two numbers. A suit entitled "The Old Maid Want a Beau," was put on by Mrs. M. Schilling, Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. Jay Cook of Cloverdale district, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarmen of Summit Hill and Mrs. Frank Cook of Pleasant View, assisted by Miss Gertrude Anderson and Louis Hennies in a duet, "Why do you Scorn Me So?"

Solo by Leona Myers followed. Leona is a small girl with a sweet voice, who has been heard over the radio, she with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers recently moved to Turner from Portland.

Reading by Ruth Rawlings of Crawford district. Music by the orchestra, reading by Gertrude Cook and LaVerne Whitehead followed. The closing number was given by Roy Meyers and his orchestra, all local talent, representing negro minstrel in their happiest mood. At the close of the program refreshments were served in the new domestic science room.

GRANS TURN BRISKLY UPWARD CAULIFLOWER IS CHIEF OFFERING

Dealers Think Bottom Reached and Cycle Turning Upward

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Brisk upturn in price took place in all the grain pits today after all cereals had undergone a setback to fresh bottom records. Simultaneous with the late rise of grain values was much talk that the record of past cycles of low prices for commodities indicated that recoveries were to be looked for.

Significance also was attached to reports that farm board allies would require actual deliveries of about 10,000,000 bushels on December wheat contracts, and that the world available surplus of wheat was 32,000,000 bushels less than recently had been estimated.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous, 7-8 to 2 3-8 a bushel higher than Monday's finish. Corn closed at 1-8c net decline to 7-8c advance, oats 7-8c off to 7-8c up.
