A. A. U. W. Tells Fellowship Plans

THE Salem branch of the American Association of University Women has received from the chairman of the Fellowship committee of the state division the announcements of the conditions governing the award of the fellowship given at three year periods by the state division.

Miss Laura Garabold of Salem held the first fellowship. She took her first degree at Oregon State college and completed her work for doctors degree at Stanford university and is now research assistant at the University of California.

Applications and recommendation for this fellowship must be in not later than January 15, 1931. Miss Helen Pearce is the local representative on the Fellowship committee. Further information may be had by those interested from Miss Pearce or Mrs. Roy A. Klein, publicity chairman for the local A. A. U. W. branch.

Bridge Evening at Clare A. Lee Home

In the nature of a housewarming and in compliment to the office force of the insurance and state fire marshal departments, Mr. and Mrs. Clare A. Lee entertained at their home, "Aldersbrook," on the Pacific highway, Friday evening. The home was beautifully decorated in blooms of the season. A unique feature of the evening was the 6 o'clock dinner cafeteria style.

The evening was spent in cards and an impromptu musical entertainment. Mrs. J. F. Harden and Mrs. Ida M. Fletcher assisted Mrs. Lee in serving.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lilburn, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ramseyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pattison, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Harden, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Davis, Mrs. J. M. Sehon, Mrs. Ida M. Fletcher, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, and the Misses Elvan Strader, Rachel M. Bayne, E. B. McNeil, Tilda Johansson, Pauline Marbach, Lela Manning, and Jessie Hon. Miss Tilda Johansson and R. E. Pattison won first honors at bridge.

Hubbard Matron is Hostess

Hubbard—Mrs. Julius Stauffer entertained at her home Wednesday evening at a 7 o'clock bridge dinner in compliment to the past presidents of the Hubbard Woman's club and their husbands.

Thanksgiving motifs were used for the table decorations and for the favors.

Three tables of bridge were in play throughout the evening. High honors went to Mrs. Neva McKenzie and C. H. Cleaver, and second prizes were won by Mrs. Blanche Brown and L. A. Beckman.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. George Grims, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Boje, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer and Mrs. Neva McKenzie.

A general invitation is being extended by the members of the W. O. T. U. to the public to attend the regular meeting of the organization Tuesday at 3 o'clock at which time Mrs. Roy Keene will talk on the subject of "Salem Schools." Mrs. Keene is the only woman member of the city school board. A short business meeting will follow the talk by Mrs. Keene.

Stayton—The Three Links club spent a pleasant afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Humphrey. The club is planning a large Christmas party for early in December.
