

GOLD WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sawyer Of Gervais are Honored Recently

NORTH HOWELL, Nov. 17.—The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sawyer of Gervais was celebrated on Sunday, November 16, at their home in Gervais, with a pleasant family reunion.

Mary Black and Clarence A. Sawyer were married on November 18, 1880, at the Black home in Dekoma, Wis., and for 50 years have traveled the path of married life together.

Moved to Oregon
Twenty-five years ago they moved from their home in Dekoma to a farm in North Howell, Marion county, Oregon, where they continued living until eight years ago, when they sold the farm and moved into the city of Gervais, where they still reside.

Eight children were born to this union, of whom six survive, and are all living in the county except one, Mrs. Alice Eagleson of Lincoln county, and these six with their families were all present on this occasion. Two sons, Oscar and Leon, have passed away.

Children are Present
Present on this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. William Oddie, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wiesner, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Sawyer of Silverton, Mrs. Alice Eagleson of Eddyville, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Coomler, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rickard, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Cutsforth, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cutsforth, Rosemary and Marjorie Sawyer of Salem, Gilbert and Harley Oddie, Alan, Wayne and Mary Lou Wiesner, Clarence, Doris, Glen and Alice Rickard; Eva and Donald Sawyer of Silverton, John and Lois Coomler, Iris, Gall, Fay and Gary Cutsforth; Robert, John, Harriet, Boyd and Ralph Eagleson of Eddyville.

Gifts were presented from family and friends and a jolly family dinner enjoyed at noon and many friends called during the afternoon to offer congratulations and extend many kindly wishes to this friendly and well known couple.

WOODBURN LEGION TO BE CHARTERED

Buddies From Other Posts Will Gather for Ceremony Wednesday

WOODBURN, November 17.—The newly established American Legion post in Woodburn will be officially recognized after Wednesday, November 19, when large delegations from many other Legion posts from over the state will come to Woodburn to help in the official organization of the post. The meeting will start at the armory at 8 p. m.

A street parade in which will be the Salem kiltie band and the drum corps of the Salem post will be held immediately before the festivities at the armory begin.

Installation of officers will be in charge of Jack Eakin of Dallas. The ceremonies are to be very simple. After the installation of officers the new charter will be officially presented. The new Legionnaires will be initiated by the initiatory team from Salem.

Plans have been made to have food enough for 350 people. Entertainment of the highest caliber will be offered. Carl Hansen has charge of the program.

Over 50 World war veterans of the Woodburn district have signified their intentions to join the local post. Probably a great many more will join as soon as they see that the post really means business.

American Legion teams from posts at Silverton, Salem, McMinnville, Dallas, Monmouth, Independence, Corvallis, Portland and Newberg have sent word that they will be on hand that night. It has been learned that two carloads of Legionnaires from the Tillamook chapter will be on hand. Visitors from other cities are also expected.

JEFFERSON C. E. SENDS GIFT BOX

JEFFERSON, Nov. 17.—The Christian Endeavor business meeting of the Evangelical church was held Friday night at the county home of Mr. and Mrs. Gulvin. During the business session, one new member was voted on and accepted; and two names for membership were proposed. A Christmas box was sent to the missionary, stationed at Latvia, from the society.
