RED CROSS IN END OF DRIVE

More Than 1000 Members Enrolled; Booths end Work on Saturday

More than 1000 persons have answered the annual Red Cross membership roll call in Salem, it was announced from local headquarters Monday. Several districts have not reported in, nor have any reports been received from the county.

The campaign conducted through booths located in the downtown section was closed Saturday night, however funds will be received at headquarters in the First National bank building throughout next month. Leaders were highly pleased with the results of the campaign.

The board will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the home of Judge George Rosman, general chairman, to hear reports of committees and outline the program of Red Cross work in the city and county for the year. Llan Smith, treasurer, will make first report on finances, and H. E. Eakin, general chairman of the roll call, will report.

Miss Florence Somerville, who has been assisting Miss Marjorie D. Jones, field representative, with conduct of the drive here, will leave tonight to accept a position to which she was called November 1, just as she was helping get the campaign here lined up. She goes to the naval hospital at Mare Island to be medical social worker with the Red Cross staff there.
