Many People in Japan Sleep Without Fires in Houses Fearing Tremblors

TOKYO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A terrific earthquake shook the Izu peninsula near here early today, causing 250 known deaths and injuring 1,000 or more persons. So far as known, no foreigners were killed or injured.

For thirty minutes the "earth demon" shook the beautiful region, playground of Japan, hurling down 5,000 destroyed or partly demolished houses upon sleeping occupants.

Fires burst from the ruins, the earth cracked open, land slid from the mountains and water loosed by broken reservoirs added to the havoc and confusion.

Warned, however, by sixteen days of preliminary earth tremors, the people had extinguished fires in their homes before sleeping, and therefore escaped a conflagration such as that which, during its horror to the earthquake of 1923, destroyed 10,000 buildings in Tokyo and killed approximately 100,000 persons.

Casualty Lists Grow

Over partly restored communications reports received to-night which lengthened the list of casualties and told their story of devastation.

Fearing further shocks, 39,000 persons camped in what shelter they could find, grateful for food, supplies and medical aid hastily provided by the army and Red Cross volunteers from nearby cities.

The quake was most severe between Mishima and Namusa, in an area fifteen miles long and five to ten miles wide, and about 125 miles southwest of Tokyo.

Violence was concentrated at Nirayama village where 74 lives were lost in its destruction. Twenty-two perished at Nagoka, a Hot Springs resort, and 80 others died in villages nearby.

To the north, larger towns suffered less severely, four lives being lost at Mishima, three at Atami and one at Namusa. Fires which followed in these towns were extinguished without great damage.

$10,000,000 Tunnel Damaged

A portion of the great Tenna tunnel between Atami and Numazu collapsed, causing fears that many laborers were caught in the bore which was nearing completion after ten years work. Four bodies were recovered and the tunnel, costing $10,000,000 was believed badly damaged.

Troops were rushed into the earthquake stricken area to order, relieve suffering and aid sanitary experts and physicians. They rescued scores of injured from fallen buildings, and cooperating with the Red Cross carried them to Matsumoto and other towns for hospital treatment.

2 Women Will Go to Court in Damage Battle

Action to recover $492.85 damages has been filed in circuit court by Audrey D. Patzer against Marie Martin as result of an automobile accident on the Salem-Silverton highway November 14.

According to the complaint, the defendant drove her automobile at excessive speed, operated it with defective brakes, failed to keep proper observation, and was negligent in attempting to operate the automobile while in a poor physical condition. As result, plaintiff received severe and permanent injuries when she was knocked unconscious by collision of the two cars. The injuries included cuts, bruised knee, wrenched and strained knee, bruised hip and painful injury to neck and shoulders.

HASBROUCK HEIGHTS, N. J., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh cut the air today in the colonel's plane, at a faster speed than the plane was capable of making when it carried them across the continent last Easter Sunday to a transcontinental record.

They tried out a newly installed 600-horsepower engine in the low-winged monoplane. Mrs. Lindbergh flew with her husband for 15 minutes at 185 miles an hour and then the colonel made five other flights in the ship.

The colonel and his wife both piloted the plane and said they were highly pleased with the new motor.

And of course, there are the scores and scores of big family dinners, regular festive boards, around which the spirit of Thanksgiving will hover, happy that the day has brought members of the family and friends together.

In the evening, there will be for enjoyment the choice of moving picture shows, a radio program, or a Thanksgiving concert at the Knight Memorial church, with a number of fine soloists appearing at the latter place.

Special Thanksgiving dinners will be served at all of Oregon's state institutions here. At most of the institutions, assisted literary programs will be held in the afternoon. An athletic program has been arranged for the 900 inmates of the state penitentiary.

Man in Jail Gives Blood To Save Child

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—There's a little baby, just eight months old, out at children's memorial hospital, and it probably will get well, now, doctors said tonight.

It looked pretty hopeless for a while. Only a blood transfusion could relieve the ailment, lack of water in the blood. The mother's would not do.

So doctors went down to the county jail where a prisoner was serving a year for larceny. Under guard, they took him to the hospital. The transfusion was successful.

The prisoner was back in jail tonight, but the cell didn't seem as confining as it did this morning. The prisoner was Arthur Noeth, 26, the baby's father.

Circus Animals Loose, Terrorize Mexican Village

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Dispatches to El Universal say that the village of Guadalupe near Irapuato, was terrorized this morning as an explosion killed 13 members of the Beas circus and released a number of wild animals. Sixteen other persons were injured.

The blast was due to collision of the circus train with the tank car, and the personnel of the show was asleep in wooden coaches when gasoline sprayed upon them and ignited. They were trapped inside, shrieking and moaning, and the hubbub set up by the frightened animals added to the pandemonium. Besides those animals which escaped and later were shot, many perished in the flames.

Judge Finds New Evasion Of Prohi Law

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 26.—(AP)—"You can't," said U. S. Commissioner Holland today, "charge bacteria with a crime."

The case was that of Peter Campanaro, charged with the manufacture of intoxicating liquor. Campanaro had been found guarding several vats of fermenting beer.

"The fact this man was sitting there while the wine was fermenting," said the commissioner, "is no evidence of guilt. The wine would have fermented just the same if he had not been there. The manufacture in this case was done by the bacteria and you can't charge bacteria with a crime."

Storms Cripple Middle West Thanksgiving

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Thanksgiving eve found the middle west digging out of snowdrifts beneath clear, cold skies.

The storms that had held up traffic, crippled communication lines and caused several deaths had abated, leaving a blanket of snow over the north central states and large drifts in the wide open spaces. In the wake of the storms thermometers dipped today to new low levels for the season.

Washington Farmers Look For Big Loan

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Drought and frost-stricken wheat farmers of north central Washington today looked to congress for an emergency loan of $1,500,000.

The executive committee of the Big Bend Seed Relief association, meeting here today, revealed that 75 per cent of the wheat crop in parts of Douglas, Adams, Franklin, Grant and Lincoln counties has been destroyed. Unless aid comes by January 1, Dan Kriebel, Lind, chairman of the committee, said, many families must abandon their farms.

U. S. Army Team Winner

TORONTO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The United States army team of three horsemen won the international officers challenge trophy at the royal winter fair horse show tonight, negotiating the difficult course without a fault. The German officers took second place with out fault, the Irish Free State took third with 5 1/2 faults and Canada fourth with 101. Hungary had 24 faults and Sweden 34.

Homeless Men Ejected From Only Shelter

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The brick and tin city of the homeless was laid waste today, on the eve of Thanksgiving.

Federal agents descended on the little colony of handmade shacks raised by hoboes on the vacant post office site, with torch and ax, they levelled the rickety shelters and drove the occupants away.

The eviction order came from the district attorney's office. The government, it was explained, feared the vagrants that camped in the square block at Harrison street and the river might later claim squatters' rights to the plot.

A score of hoboes who had fashioned a sort of home there with stovepipes and fires to fend off the November chill, were more homeless than ever tonight.

Turkey Feed Behind Bars Looks Good

FRESNO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Alfred Boenes got himself into jail and wouldn't get out.

It took a court order to get him out today. The petition for the release was made by Sheriff W. F. Jones, who said Boenes has been taking up space in the jail for no good reason at all.

The man was held in the jail on October 22 as a material witness in the case of Joe Rodriguez, charged with a felony assault. A week ago, Joe Rodriguez pleaded guilty and was sentenced to San Quentin prison.

Boenes could have gotten out at that time but didn't want to. He just stuck around, awaiting, evidently, for the rooster and trimmings to be served on Thanksgiving day.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 26.—(AP)—D. Richardson Ray, 68, Kansas City wholesale druggist, today was sentenced to 12 months in the Oklahoma county jail and fined $2,000, the action disposing of the last of 33 cases against persons charged with conspiracy to violate federal prohibition laws by sale of Jamaica ginger.

Ray and ten Oklahoma City druggists entered guilty pleas to the charges. Earlier in the day a federal court jury convicted John Hadley, another Oklahoma City druggist, on similar charges. Hadley will be sentenced December 6.

Two of the druggists hobbled before Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn, victims of the paralytic malady induced by the beverage they themselves had dispensed.

Original Spirit Prevailing in Big City Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(AP)—In the spirit in which the day was founded more than 300 years ago by the struggling little colony of pilgrims to whom almost any year was likely to bring "hard times," Thanksgiving day will be celebrated in New York tomorrow.

More than 30,000 persons—the majority of whom, without work or money, must live day by day on the city's bounty until the depression ends—will sit down to turkey and chicken dinners, provided in grateful generosity by their more prosperous fellow citizens.
