SPEEDY ACTION OVER DROUGHT

McNary and Haugen Introduce Proposals; $60,000,000 Asked

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Immediate congressional action to relieve drought stricken farmers is to be taken, with a contest assured over how much money shall be provided for seed and fertilizer loans.

Identical proposals were introduced in the senate and house today by Chairmen McNary and Haugen of the two agriculture committees.

Haugen called a meeting of the house committee for tomorrow to consider his resolution. Both have the approval of the agriculture department and would provide $25,000,000.

Representative Aswell of Louisiana, ranking democratic member of the committee, said he would "fight for a minimum of $60,000,000 as recommended by President Hoover's drought relief committee and the association of state agriculture commissioners."

"We will not have any difficulty," said Representative Purcell of Indiana, a republican member of the committee, "in getting approval, although a compromise on the amount may be necessary."

Representative Moore, democrat, Virginia, introduced a bill to authorize the secretary of agriculture to lend $5,000,000 to each state affected, to be expended in construction of highways not receiving federal aid. Repayment would be made in 20 annual installments. He also proposed a measure to authorize $3,500,000 to be spent through agricultural agents in the stricken areas.

Participating in the skit will be Lucille Hackett, Frances Kyle, Venita Rains, Ruby Dresner, Dorothy Krebs, Eleanor Norblad, Margaret Ross, Dolly Morgall, Dorothy Alexander, Doris McAllister, Dorothy Burk and Marjole Sanders. Arlie Dorrance will be at the piano.

The skit, directed by the faculty advisor, Mrs. Eula S. Creech, will present the bazaar idea through a dozen talking verses given to the music of "Here We Go Around the Mulberry Bush." The bazaar will be open to the public, and judging from the large number of needle pieces already prepared, it will even surpass the undertaking of last year. Mince meats and pop corn balls will also be sold.
