HOOVER TELLS PLANS TO USE SPECIAL FUND

Quick Action Hoped for on Unemployment After Projects Shown

Distribution of Wages Soon Necessitates Haste; Roads Favored

Day in Washington
By The Associated Press
Secretary Mellon in annual report forecast $180,000,000 deficit at end of the fiscal year.
President Hoover sent congress a supplemental estimate of the $150,000,000 requested for public building construction.
Senate returned to committee the Couzens motor-bus regulation bill.
Senate finance committee decided to examine the six nominees to the tariff commission.
House agriculture committee clashed over drought loan proposals.
Senator Norris demanded a justice department investigation of increase in steel.
Rep. Kunn asked an investigation of alleged gangster activities in his Chicago district election day.
President Hoover nominated George C. Butte of Austin as vice governor-general of the Philippines.
Senate labor committee reported favorably on nomination of William N. Doak as secretary of labor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4. (AP)—Congress was informed today by President Hoover how he plans to spend $150,000,000 for public works within the next six months to relieve unemployment.
Administration leaders responded to the chief executive's urgent plea for quick action and the house appropriations committee will begin hearings tomorrow on a resolution to provide the sum. A similar resolution was introduced in the senate and will await house action.
Members of both parties who had looked skeptically at first at his proposal indicated that the chief executive might make known the use to which the money was to be put would create a strong favorable sentiment.
Appropriations Only for Work Already Okeed by Congress
In submitting his annual estimate, President Hoover said the application of the money was to be limited to work already directed by congress, the economic importance of which previously had been determined by it.
The president said the grant of a lump sum to the cabinet committee would avoid "the long delay incident to selections of new projects by congress."
The committee, he said, would be made up by the secretary of treasury, navy, commerce and agriculture. Its composition, he said, might be fixed in the appropriation bill or by himself.
"The test of the value of such relief is the ability to pay wages between now and the end of the fiscal year and I therefore urge that this estimate be given early consideration," he said.
$20,000,000 set Aside
For Federal Road use
While he recommended the funds be distributed among the various government departments, he set aside $20,000,000 for federal highway aid and $25,500,000 for rivers and harbors improvement and flood control.
The army housing program, roads in national parks, veterans' hospitals, air navigation facilities, aid to navigation, naval vessels, the coast guard, penitentiary and reformatory, jails and prison camps also would receive shares of the funds.
In an accompanying letter, Director Roop of the budget said a survey of departmental needs would determine which projects would be justified and only those that were justified were included in the estimate.
The president's message was not read, but immediately upon its presentation in the house, Chairman Wood of the appropriation committee introduced a resolution to appropriate the funds.
Wood called his committee to hear tomorrow Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, Director Roop of the budget and Thomas MacDonald, chief of the public roads bureau of the agricultural department.

Wins Chance to Try for 'Point'

Michael Emmett Fitzpatrick, Willamette university junior, to be nominated today as Oregon National Guard applicant for West Point post.

NOMINATION AFTER FOUR-DAYS' EXAMS

Competition With Other men In March to Determine Success, Failure

Michael Emmett Fitzpatrick, Salem young man and now a junior at Willamette university, will today be nominated for entrance to West Point by Governor A. W. Norblad. The nomination comes as result of standing in the four-day examination conducted beginning November 3 in Portland by National Guard officials.

The nomination, itself a distinct honor, means that Fitzpatrick will be recommended as the Oregon National Guard applicant to compete with National Guard entrants from other states for entrance to the military academy. He will take the entrance examination in March, and if he is successful, will enter West Point in July.

Percentage of Nominees
May Win Contested Honors
Every year each state National Guard has an opportunity to nominate one boy for West Point, but only a percentage of these state nominees are entitled to enter.
Fitzpatrick, who received all his schooling in Salem, is a member of Company B, 162nd Infantry, of the guard. He enlisted in September, 1923, and last May was made a corporal. He is 21 years old, and a son of T. Fitzpatrick of Salem road five. He is a member of Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity on the Willamette campus.

LIPTON-SWAYS, WAN AS CUP IS GIVEN TO HIM

Venerable old man Overcome By Emotion, age; Says He'll try Again

Proud Britainer Struggles To Erect Stand When Anthem Sounds

By LORENA HICKOK
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Sir Thomas Lipton today received America's cup — without any "the" ahead of it—and for a few seconds it looked as if the excitement might be too much for him.

As he was reading his speech of acceptance his voice faltered. With a quivering hand he adjusted his eye glasses and said huskily: "Unfortunately I can't see so well as I used to."
Then, swaying a little and groping for support he whispered: "I—I can't go on."
They got him a chair and a glass of water and Hector Fuller of the mayor's committee finished reading Lipton's speech. Can't Stand as U. S. Anthem is Sung
A soloist began to sing "The Star Spangled Banner," and the old baronet feebly started to rise. But Mayor James J. Walker motioned him back into his chair.

He sat there uneasily until the band struck up "God Save the King." Then, pushing the mayor away, he raised himself to his full height — head and shoulders above those about him — and stood through the anthem, proud symbol of the quality to which Americans paid tribute today.

The excitement and the heat in the crowded aldermanic chamber, combined with his feeble health, were thought to have been responsible for Sir Thomas' near-collapse. He rested for nearly an hour in Mayor Walker's private office after the ceremony and when he left the city hall he was apparently feeling better.

Sir Thomas, when he broke down, had just finished saying he hoped to offer again in 1932 a challenge for that tarnished old trophy he has been trying for more than 30 years to win—the America's cup.
"I have been keen as ever to secure the America's cup," he said.

'PACIFISM INSANE' HITLER'S SPEECH

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, dictator of the national socialist party, tonight told Berlin's student body that every member in his movement must be prepared to give up his life for Germany's regeneration and for recapture of a place in the sun.
"The sword is the final arbiter," he said, "and from the steel of the sword emerges the iron of the plow."
In his first address in the German capital since the elections of September 14, he further specified what enemies the rising generation must chiefly fight.

"Turn your backs on internationalism," he said, "there is only one God on earth besides God in heaven, namely our fatherland."
"Respect the authority of a person of genius and of ability and submit to the next highest in authority. Do away with the insanity of pacifism and with the idea that anybody else will help you."
His audience listened in silence and rapt attention.

TARDIEU GOES DOWN; SENATE SUPPORT LOST

Financial Scandals Added To Feeling of Unrest Lead to Downfall

Poincare Favored as Head New Government; Says He Doesn't Want it

PARIS, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Premier Andre Tardieu's second ministry was placed in a minority of eight votes by the senate today. So the premier with his colleagues visited President Doumergue at the Elysee palace tonight and presented the resignation of the entire cabinet.

M. Tardieu went down smiling and fighting to the end. But the grave "old statesman" of the third republic decided by a vote of 147 to 139 that the country needed a change of government. The financial scandals which already had resulted in the resignation of three members of the cabinet, were mainly responsible. In a wider sense the cause was the senate's dissatisfaction with the cabinet's general policy at a moment of national uneasiness.

Defeat Foreseen in Speech At Club Last Week
The premier already had foreseen the senate would place a period to his labors. In a speech at the Thanksgiving night dinner of the American club he reminded his hosts that the French senate, like the American senate, really existed and could exercise its power though rarely it had done so in the past. This senate, he said, he must face.

Tomorrow President Doumergue will begin the task of bringing another government into life. Raymond Poincare, so often called to power in moments of crisis, was a big favorite in respect to tonight. Yet, in the history of the third republic that a government had been forced to resign by the senate instead of the chamber.

The opposition charged the government with the unrest and the menacing situation which it said existed in France, and demanded its resignation on the ground that Tardieu's program was too vague and that he was not in accord with Foreign Minister Herioux.
Senator Herioux led the attack with a leisurely presentation of what he considered the weak spots in the Tardieu armor.

Delivery Trucks Road Menace is View of H. Hoss

Milk wagons and delivery trucks constitute the greatest hazard to traffic in Salem, Hal Hoss, secretary of state, declared before the Lions club yesterday noon in sounding a warning that so long as the city permits the signing of these vehicles it can expect dangerous accidents.
The state traffic department has no jurisdiction in the city limits, Hoss said, but declared he would like to see Salem bear down on such violators.

Red Disorders In Germany go To Riot Stage

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—(AP)—While the Reichstag talked for seven hours today about the 1931 budget and the drastic financial reforms which Chancellor Bruening proposes, communist disorders which had arisen in various parts of the country spread to the capital itself.
The debate in the Reichstag brought out nothing to change the general belief that the government is going to win this contest, but the communist demonstration developed into a riot of major proportions.

Prosecutor Out To Execute Men Fighting Soviet

MOSCOW, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The trial of Leonid and seven other charged with plotting the overthrow of the Stalin government entered its last phase today as Kriekenko, the prosecutor, began his summation.
He was an odd figure in funeral black, his bald head shining under the lights, and his speech of denunciation of the defendants as harsh as anything he has said yet.

Tear Bombs Repel Communists

Police Detectives Expose Intrigue in Their Testimony at Inquest

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—(AP)—New York's hundred thousand by six were searched tonight for six demented felons.

The maniacs were liberated about three o'clock this morning by armed men who invaded the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan and apparently they came straight to New York City. Matteawan is 40 miles north of New York.

At least two of the men had records as killers and a third was a pyromaniac.
One knocked at the door of his wife's apartment in West 53rd street a few hours after his delivery and demanded admittance. He was Frank Vanderkuylen, who killed a bigamous wife with acid.
Later in the day he appeared in the rectory of a church and escaped before a priest could summon police.

STORIES CONFLICT IN BOWLES AFFAIR

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 4.—(AP)—Apparent discrepancies in stories told police by Mrs. Irma Loucks Paris, 25, and Nelson C. Bowles, 34, accused of the murder of Bowles' wife, Mrs. Leone Bowles, 33, were related here today by Police Detective J. M. Tackaberry at the coroner's inquest into Mrs. Bowles' death.
Mrs. Bowles died November 12 from a knife wound received in the apartment occupied by Mrs. Paris. Bowles and Mrs. Paris, who were in the apartment at the time, told police she stabbed herself.

Detective Tackaberry said, Bowles had told him, he started to call the emergency hospital after his wife allegedly had stabbed herself but that she asked him to call Dr. Paul E. Cooper. Mrs. Paris, he said, contended Mrs. Bowles did not speak after the stabbing.
Mrs. Bowles said to have decided on divorce when Bowles and Mrs. Paris had told Mrs. Bowles they had determined to end their alleged intimacies, Tackaberry said, Mrs. Bowles said she was going to begin life over, in the words of Mrs. Paris, she would get a divorce.

Ability to remember minute details of his activity and the movements of others, except as concerned his statements and stories, were marked the return of Dr. Cooper to the witness stand.
When first interviewed by police Dr. Cooper said Mrs. Bowles was alive when he arrived at the apartment, she lived some minutes afterward. Seven days later he gave police a statement in which he admitted, police said, his story was false and that Mrs. Bowles lived only a few minutes after his arrival and had been dead about 25 minutes when he called the ambulance.

On the stand yesterday he repudiated this statement and said he was confronted with it today his almost unvarying reply to questions was "I don't remember."
Approximately 65 Multnomah county attorneys had been indorsed for the office of circuit judge of Multnomah county, district No. 4, to succeed the late Judge John H. Stevenson, according to announcement made at the executive department here yesterday.

Approximately 48 attorneys had been indorsed for the office when the previous count was made by Governor Norblad last Saturday night. Among the callers at the executive department today was Frank Grant, city attorney of Portland. Grant has received a large number of indorsements for the office of circuit judge and was said to be in a receptive mood.

Day Spent Here By Meiers Who Look for House

Governor-elect and Mrs. Julius Meier spent several hours in Salem on the third trip to hunt a house and left at 3 p. m. with a statement that no deal had yet been closed for a home here. While the Meiers would give no explicit statement about their plans, those close to the governor-elect said it was improbable they would rent the B. C. Miles home on Court street, as previously rumored. It is thought the Meiers prefer a house to an apartment.

Accompanying the Meiers was Architect Knighton of Portland and some conjecture was afoot yesterday that the newly elected official might contemplate building here. However, Knighton's visit may have been solely to advise the Meiers on the selection of a home.

COURT ASKED FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

Hearing of Mandamus set For December 9; Quick Decision Expected

Action was initiated in the supreme court Thursday by John Bayne an attorney for George Putnam to force Governor A. W. Norblad to issue a writ of election for senator from Marion county. Monday, December 9, at 10 a. m. was set as the time when the governor should appear and show cause why the writ of mandamus should not issue. Governor Norblad will be represented by the attorney general's office.

The petition sets forth that a vacancy has occurred through the death of Lloyd T. Reynolds, and that under section 3 of article IV of the constitution legislators are elected by the people and under section 17 of article V the governor is directed to call elections for filling vacancies. Stating that Governor Norblad has refused to issue the call, the petitioner seeks relief through the supreme court.

The case will be argued before the court Monday whenupon the court will render its decision. It is not expected that much time will elapse after the hearing inasmuch as the issues are plain and the time is short for calling an election before the legislature convenes.
The governor's announced reason for refusing the call was the expense to the county and the fact that the vacancy could be filled immediately on the convening of the legislature under the new amendment to the constitution.

Fireman pointed out that the blaze started in a location where a few more minutes start would have made the checking of the flames extremely difficult. The "hog" is located near the center of the lower level of the main mill. Dry wind whirled about and the blaze, in a draft between the two levels of the mill, gained headway rapidly.

Street Kettles, Saturday, Nov. 29 $22.18
Ministerial Association, Thanksgiving day offering 12.05
Street Kettles, Thursday, Dec. 4 20.63
TOTAL TO DATE $54.86

The Statesman-Salvation Army "Good-Will Fund" for 1930 has been successfully launched and the proceeds to date total $54.26, which Army workers feel is very good considering the length of time to Christmas day.
In addition to the street kettles donations by people in past years have mailed their checks. The Statesman or the Salvation Army and Ensign Earl Williams is wondering who will have the honor of being the first in this year with a check to the "Good-Will Fund."

In 1928 the honor fell to W. T. Rigdon & Son who headed the list with $25.00 check and in 1929 Rex Russell was first with his check for $6.95.
Kids to Bed to Keep Warm
Williams says his workers are assisting cases of real need every day. One such family yesterday contained four small children and during the recent cold spell it was necessary to put them to bed to keep them warm. The baby was born in July 1930.

Williams states that the Army worker who took aid to this family described their rented shack as a "hovel." This family is not registered with the confidential exchange by any other agency so the army will keep in touch with the family and contemplates supplying them with some furniture as they have practically none at the present.
