Mrs. W. W. Moore Chapter G Hostess

A happily informal afternoon made the regular meeting of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood a pleasant one at the home of Mrs. W. W. Moore Thursday afternoon. The program hour was in charge of Mrs. S. W. Seese who read a paper on "Missionaries in Oregon", a topic which was in development of the topic under discussion and study by the chapter this year.

After the program a social hour with tea was enjoyed. Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, and Miss Helen Gunn assisted Mrs. Moore in serving.

Miss Betty McMillan of chapter V of Lebanon, Miss Helen Gunn of chapter S of Corvallis were special guests as was Mrs. B. Erickson and Mrs. Grover C. Birchett.

Chapter members present were Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. F. E. Churchill, Mrs. Alice Fisher, Mrs. W. Hickey, Mrs. E. S. Hughes, Mrs. F. J. Kuntz, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. F. W. Lange, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. S. W. Seese, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. F. J. Toose, Mrs. A. F. Woolpert, Mrs. W. W. Moore, and Miss Anora Welch.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. T. Hickey and this will be a Christmas party.

Mix the celery, salt and water. Cook 20 minutes over moderate fire in covered pan. Melt the butter and add the flour. Blend well and add the milk and the celery mixture. Add rest of ingredients. Cook until a little creamy. Pour into buttered baking dish. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven.

Tea in Vacuum just like coffee!

It is just as necessary for one as for the other, to prevent the evaporation of the fragrant volatile oils that give them both their flavor. The West discovered how to preserve coffee flavor in vacuum. And the West has found the proper process for tea, but it still remains exclusive to the originator—Schilling. It is literally the only fresh tea you can buy.

COMIC OPERETTA ON AT GYM THIS NIGHT

Treble Clef women and the men's glee club of Willamette university present, tonight, at the university gymnasium, the comic operetta "El Bandito." The time for this comedy is set at 8:15 o'clock. Tickets are obtainable at the university and at The Spa. The proceeds will go toward the university athletic fund and the glee clubs' treasuries.

"El Bandito" is the story of a mistaken identity. Manuel, a young artist (Bob Mayo), comes to Antiquera to paint the beautiful scenery. He meets Cyrtilla, the village belle (Helen Cochran), and falls deeply in love with her. Jose Maria, "El Bandito," visits the village, and the governor of Andolusa (Ronald Hewitt) comes to investigate and assist in the bandit's capture.

The story goes that Jose and Manuel are twin brothers and the former was stolen by gypsies when he was a mere child.

A special stage has been erected in the gymnasium. This will be transformed by the use of imported scenery from Portland into an outdoor scene representing the public square of a village of Old Spain. Flashing costumes will be worn by the entire company.

Musical accompaniment for the production is furnished by a five piece orchestra consisting of trumpets—Wesley Roeder and Gus Klampel, violins—Miss Jeanette Scott and Verne Wilson, and piano—Robert Magin. Professor Cameron Marshall, director of the two glee groups, is director of the production. Managers of the two groups which have handled the business end are Miss Nellie Badley and Clarke Wood.
