rUSIC is the pass word for social interest these days which are Already beginning to ring with Christmas bells, Christmas carols, and happy Christmas voices of many children finding the desire of their heart on the gay Yule morning. Friday night one of the most brilliant musical programs ever given by Willamette university was presented by a group of close to 60 voices, the Men's Glee club and the Treble Clef club in a charming Spanish operetta, "El Bandido."

The costuming and staging had been especially imported for the occasion, and this added a brilliant note to the performance which vas excellent both from the standpoint of acting and voice work. Prof. Cameron Marshall did the directing of this production. Tuesday night a second musical affair of note will be the pres-entation of the Portland Symphony string quartet by the Salem Mac-Dowell club at Waller hall at 8:30 o'clock. The MacDowell club chorus, about forty voices strong this year, will appear in chorus for the first time this year on this program. Then December 18 will be the superb concert in which Mrs. Wil-liam Burghardt will be the guest plano artist with the Nea-Kab-Nie quartet under the auspices of the Salem Chamber Music society. This promises to be one of the finest programs ever to be given in Salem. Of immediate interest for this week in the social realms is the

Of immediate interest for this week in the social realms is the marriage Thursday of Miss Catherine Hartley to Gordon Hadley. The wedding will be a quiet one at the Hartley home, but it will be a very lovely ceremony. Much entertaining has been done for Miss Hartley and one or two small affairs will be given for this week. Miss Rovena Eyre will entertain tonight with an informal tes in com-pliment to Miss Hartley and Mr. Hadley.

Unusual Program Will be Presented December 18 In Johnson Home

PROGRAM toward which all musical Salem is looking A is that to be played the evening of December 18 in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Johnson at which time Mrs. William Burghardt will appear as guest pianist with the Nea-Kah-Nie quartet in Cesar Auguste Franck's glorious quintet, to be heard for the first time in Salem. The subtle beauty of this famous number will be heard at its very best in the intimate beauty of the Johnson home where it will be played by strings accompanied by the fin-ished beauty of Mrs. Burghardt's piano artistry.

Daleth Teth Gimel room, of the Johnson home, with its high paneled walls and soft tones of salmon pink in drapes, reaches a Plan Christmas Tea conclusion in a lovely sun NE of the charming affairs porch, and has its opening into

ONE of the charming affairs of the Christmas season will be the formal tea to be giv-en by members of the Daieth Teth Gimel at the C. P. Bishop home Thursday afternoon be-tween the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.
