By OLIVE M. DOAK

THE HOLLYWOOD
Today—Moran and Mack in "Anybody's War."
Wednesday—Marlyna Miller in "Sally."
Friday—"The Silent Enemy" an epic of Indian life.

THE GRAND
Today—Will Rogers in "So This is London."
Wednesday—Victor McLaglen in "On the Level."
Friday—Richard Arlen in "The Border Legion."

BLIGH'S CAPITOL
Today—Eddie Cantor in "Whoopie."
Thursday—Ronald Colman in "Raffles."

THE ELSINORE
Today—Kay Johnson and Reginald Denny in "Madam Satan."
Thursday—Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. in Anita Page in "Little Accident."

"Whoopie" is being made at Bligh's Capitol and Eddie Cantor is the leader. It is a good thing he is for he is so funny that he saves the rest of the actors who have as their chief claim for distinction the fact that they are able to move.

Eddie Cantor is always funny. He just can't help himself and the whole plan of the show is developed to give him a chance to do his best and he does not fail. Wise cracks, amusing actions, and ridiculous situations kept the audience in an uproar at the Capitol Monday afternoon. One lady who had gone beyond the years of indiscretions by several summers and who sat not so far from me was almost in hysterics when I left.

Yes, Eddie Cantor made a show out of "Whoopie."

I was seriously disappointed in "Lady Satan." Kay Johnson does the poorest work in this show that I have ever seen here so, and Reginald Denny seems to be very uncomfortable through the whole play. The acting is stilted, the pictures are crowded and the voices were very bad. However, this is my opinion, and it is just possible that you may thoroughly enjoy this picture which does have one spectacle after another to develop the plot.

One of the biggest scenes is taken aboard a Zeppelin and it is a very different photographic effect from the ordinary picture. I should add that really very good work is done by Rolland Young. Apparently we have another comedian coming on.

Hugh Shattuc of Salem, at present a student in the University of Colorado at Boulder, has just been initiated into the Delta Sigma Pi, oldest national honorary business fraternity, whose members are chosen for scholarship and leadership. Mr. Hughes is a sophomore at the university. He is the son of Mrs. Vera Shattuc.

Mill City.—The announcement of the marriage of Mildred Hoeye of Mill City and Sherman Carter of Longview, Washington, in Portland on Saturday came as a surprise to the many friends of both young people in Mill City.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bayle Hoeye of this city and Mr. Carter is a son of Mrs. Mary Carter also of Mill City.

Silverton.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brazier and Mrs. John Shaffer gave a reception Tuesday night at the Reo restaurant for Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Scott (Aldene Kiser) who were married at the Elsinore theatre at Salem about two weeks ago.

About 40 relatives and guests were present for the evening. Mrs. Scott is the daughter of the late Sam Kaiser, who lived in Silverton some years ago.

Mrs. H. S. Poisal was hostess to members of the Monday luncheon bridge club at her home on South Commercial street Monday afternoon for a one o'clock luncheon followed by an afternoon of cards in play at two tables.

Miss Mabelle Mead, whose marriage will be an event of the Christmas holidays, was complimented Friday night by Miss Signa Wahstrom. An informal evening was enjoyed in compliment to Miss Mead who will leave the hospital staff December 15, to be at home in Portland for a fortnight before her marriage.
