Home Wedding is Brilliant Event

Quietly beautiful was the ceremony which united Miss Catherine Hartley in marriage to Gordon F. Hadley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley Thursday evening.

Rev. Grover C. Birchett read the impressive single ring ceremony before the fireplace which had been banked with palms, ferns and white carnations and over which was shed the soft light of ivory white cathedral tapers burning in candelabra placed at either side of the mantel. Not only was the altar arranged with green and white but the living room was decorated in graceful arrangement with the same combinations of fern and white carnations.

Mrs. Josephine Albert sang "I Love You Truly" just before the bride party came down the wide stair steps which had been arranged with ferns and palms, and advanced to meet the groom, Richard Stoltz as best man, and Rev. Birchett who waited before the altar.

Miss Charlotte Zeiber, was one bridesmaid, wearing a quaint delicate pink Colonial frock in pink and carrying a Colonial bouquet lead the bride party; following her was Miss Ann Albert in a bouffant ruffled frock of yellow and carrying a Colonial bouquet similar to the bridesmaids; Miss Rovena Eyre carrying a bouquet and wearing a soft green gown exactly like Miss Zeiber's preceded the bride who came down the steps with her father, Edgar Hartley. Mrs. Axel Hoff played the wedding procession.

The bride was stunningly lovely in a Princess gown of ivory flat crepe adorned with rhinestones. She wore a softly plain tulle veil which fitted into a cap about her dark hair and flowed into a long train. The bride's bouquet was bride's roses and lilies of the valley, from which hung long satin ribbon streamers, caught here and there with roses. A necklace of crystals completed the bride's dress.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception for Mr. and Mrs. Hadley was held in the dining room of the Hartley home for which the 100 or more wedding guests were present.

The dining room was arranged with pink roses. At the service table Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., poured and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding cut.

Those serving were Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Foster Cone, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Miss Catherine Smalling of Yakima, Washington; Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Priscilla Fry, Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mrs. Rex Adolph.

Assisting in the living room were Mrs. Hazel George of Portland; Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. D. W. Eyre, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. William Pennington of Portland; Mrs. A. M. Taylor of Albany. Mrs. Hartley was unable to be present because of sudden illness.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley left for a short trip to British Columbia after which they will be at home at 1805 Market street.

Mrs. Hadley attended college in Oregon State college where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and later attended University of Washington. Mr. Hadley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hadley of Boston, was educated in the east, and is now in business in Salem.

West Salem Club Will Produce Play

Rehearsals for the West Salem community club play, "The Mummy and the Mumps," which will be presented about the middle of January, started Wednesday night with enthusiasm that presaged a good performance when the play is ready to be presented.

"The Mummy and the Mumps" is declared to be an exceptionally happy selection as it is a lively, laugh-provoking farce in both lines and situations. It was written by Larry E. Johnson, author of one of David Belasco's big hits, "It's a Wise Child," which has run for over a year on Broadway.

The play is under the direction of Perry Prescott Reigelman, who has staged such comedies as "A Pair of Sixes," "A Full House," "Applesauce," and "An Old Fashioned Mother."

Members of the cast include Lyle Thomas, Curtis Ferguson, Charles Wright, Ray Ferguson, Bernice Wood, Dorothy Hancock, Martha Warren, Esther Henningsen, and Vida McCauley.

"Living Pictures" Draws Attention

A program of unusual arrangement that is to be given in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church tonight and which will be a group of "living pictures" representing works of art from the classic "Madonna" of Feruzzi to the more modern "Harvest Moon" by Maxfield Parrish. In all 12 characters will reproduce these pictures.

Mrs. Fred Duncan has charge of the program. Music will accompany the presentations, and this will be given by Miss Josephine Carlton, Mrs. Ed Townsend, Mrs. W. A. Penney, Mrs. Violet Scott and Delbert Jensen, violinists, and H. D. Leininger, harpist, with Prof. Frank Churchill at the organ.

Christmas Tea is Lovely Affair Thursday

One of the lovely university affairs of the year was the formal Christmas tea at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop, with members of the Daughters of the Good Will organization of Willamette university hostesses to all the sorority women of the campus.

The guest rooms were flooded with the soft light of many lighted red tapers. A profusion of snowberries, cedar and greens were about the rooms in every possible nook. This made a lovely background for the colorful formal gowns of the guests and hostesses.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Ruth Barnes and Miss Beulah Graham. Miss Irma Sawyer introduced to the line which was Miss Virginia Sinner, president of the organization, Miss Olive M. Dahl, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Frank Erickson and Mrs. Cecil Monk.

The tea tables were artistically arranged with potted poinsettias and red tapers. Here during the first hour Mrs. W. C. Jones and Mrs. Leslie Sparks presided and during the last hour Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Herbert Rahe presided.

Those serving were Edwyna Broadbent, Margaret Morris, Aljese Hummel, Olga Janik, Verda Muelier, Dorothe Shepherd, Edythe Glayser and Roberta Brainerd.

The program given during the hours between 3 and 5 o'clock was of music and readings. Those taking part were Doris Corbin, Doris Clarke, Ruth Schreiber and Beulah Graham.

About 70 guests called during the tea hours. Miss Ruth Barnes had charge of the general arrangements of this delightful tea.

"Belinda" Cast is Dinner Guest

Entertaining with a six o'clock dinner Wednesday night Miss Genevieve Thayer complimented the members of the cast for the next drama league production, "Belinda," three act light comedy written by A. A. Milne which will be given January 12, 13 and 14 at the Elsinore in connection with the picture "Outward Bound."

Following the dinner hour the evening was spent in hard practice under the direction of Irl S. McSherry who is directing the production.

Covers were placed for Miss Eleanor Henderson, Mrs. W. Merriott, J. Lyman Steed, Wesley Gordon, Frederick S. Bynon, Jr., Wayne Wiley, and Miss Thayer.

Silverton—Mrs. L. J. Johnson and Rodney Reynolds of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hagedorn of North Dakota, and Mrs. Brown of England were luncheon guests of Mrs. Helen Wrightman Friday.

While at Silverton they also visited with Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Worden for a short time.

Husbands Are Nile Club Guests

A brilliant affair for the members of the Salem Nile club was the luncheon given in compliment to husbands and fathers Wednesday in the banquet room of the Masonic temple. This is an annual affair and accompanied by an all-day meeting of the Nile club members.

The tables were gay with red tapers and Christmas symbols. The committee in charge was Mrs. Sam Laughlin, Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. M. C. Petters.

Covers were placed for guests and the following members, Mrs. W. H. Brett, Mrs. C. A. Tibbert, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Wayne Henry, Mrs. James Inlah, Mrs. Sam Laughlin, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. M. C. Petters, Mrs. R. W. Hans Seltz, Mrs. George Dunford, Mrs. Adolph Mombbeck, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. J. O. Russell, Mrs. Dave John of Stayton, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. Ted Mesch, Mrs. Lucille Sweeney and Mrs. Lester Davis.

During the afternoon business meeting Mrs. Sam Laughlin, who has served as president of the club this past year, presented each member of the club with a gift of appreciation for the cooperation which had been given her this year. This was the last meeting over which Mrs. Laughlin would preside, as the January meeting is an election of officers.

Attractive Afternoon For Thursday Club

Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. B. C. Miles and Mrs. Sam Laughlin, who entertained members and special guests of the Thursday club at the home of Mrs. Pearce with a delightfully informal social afternoon Thursday.

The guest rooms were gay with the significant symbols of Christmas and here after a few hours of conversation, tea was served with the hostesses assisted by Miss Helen Pearce and Miss Oda Chapman.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Lois Bean of Eugene, Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mrs. Edward Tillson of Placerville, California. The latter is a sister of Mrs. R. Cartwright who is a guest in the city now.

Mrs. V. E. Kuhn Heads Junior Guild

Mrs. V. E. Kuhn was elected president of the Junior Guild of the St. Paul's Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at the regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Lachmund.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Henry Conroyer, first vice president; Mrs. Don Roberts, second vice president; Mrs. Wallace Carson, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley will be the hostess for the January meeting.

Hollywood—The weekly meeting of the "Same Over Here club" was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas. At the close of a very pleasant evening's entertainment dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. W. W. Fisher. Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Starr, Mrs. Margaret Quail, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Miss Mary Jean Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kleeman, Miss Florence Kleeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kleeman and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sterling Chapter World Wide Guild Girls, was held at the home of Mrs. I. G. Grogg, 2025 S. Cottage Street Monday evening.

The business meeting was opened by the president, Miss Doris Pickens. Miss Carol Stoddard had charge of the devotion, Miss Lorraine Grogg was in charge of the program and gave a very interesting report on chapters three and four from the Guild study book, "West Indian Treasures."

A waffle supper was enjoyed by all the girls. There were 14 present with three visitors whom are expected to become Guild Girls in the near future.

Keizer—Mrs. Fred McCall gave a surprise birthday party complimenting her husband, Fred McCall, Tuesday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Squier, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Sleight, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Squier.

Mrs. McCall was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Lyle Squier. An enjoyable evening in charge of the program and was spent in social conversation.

WILL PLAY DECEMBER 18

An informal grouping of the Nea-Kah-Nie quartet in their studio at Neakahnie this summer where they spent most of the summer months in practice. The quartet made a wonderful impression upon the musical public of Salem in its first appearance at the C. P. Bishop home in November. The Salem Chamber Music society of which Mrs. Monroe Gilbert is president, will present the quartet with Mrs. William H. Burghardt as guest pianist, December 18, in the delightfully intimate environment of the O. F. Johnson home which Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are opening for the occasion.

Past Presidents' Club Entertained

Mrs. Louis King entertained with a Christmas party in compliment to the regular meeting of the Past Presidents' club of the Woman's Relief corps Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Capitol street. The guest rooms were gayly arranged with symbols of Christmas with a real Christmas tree arranged with gifts for the members. Mrs. King and Mrs. Rose Hagedorn played Santa Claus at a late hour following a business meeting and roll call to which each answered with a Yuletide quotation.

Although not announced it had been discovered by some of the club that Mrs. King would leave some time in January for California so the club members took the Wednesday meeting as an opportunity to give Mrs. King a handkerchief shower, and thus surprise her. Mrs. Norma Terwilliger presented the gifts.

Mrs. Hattie Cameron presented Mrs. Rose Hagedorn and Mrs. Jennie F. E. Jones with appropriate birthday gifts. A Christmas greeting card signed by members of the club was sent to Mrs. Katie Schott, a former member who now lives in Placerville, California.

At a late hour Mrs. King was assisted in serving by Mrs. Desdemone Eberhard and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

Mrs. Norma Terwilliger will be the next hostess, January 14.

Gervais—Ten tables of "500" were played at the meeting of the community "500" club Tuesday night with prizes for high scores going to Mrs. Albert Belieque and F. H. Cannard and for low scores to Mrs. Helena Estudillo and Otto Schwab.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Otto Schwab, Mrs. P. W. Seely and Mrs. Ward Lundy. Sprigs of holly formed decorations on the refreshment tables. As the next meeting night would be December 23, and because it is so near Christmas the next meeting of the club will be January 13 with Mrs. A. B. Adkisson, Miss Marie Ann Schaefer, Mrs. Helena Estudillo and Miss Gertrude Weiss as hostesses.

FRESH TEA

Tea

A QUALITY YOU WOULD INSIST UPON IF YOU KNEW ALL THE FACTS

Fact No. 16. Tea, just like coffee, should be sealed in vacuum to preserve its flavor. The flavor of each resides in certain volatile oils that evaporate—in coffee very quickly, in tea slowly but surely. Unfortunately, it is many months before tea can reach you—frequently a year. You have never tasted the fragrant flavor of truly fresh tea (unless it was Schilling Tea).

Fact No. 17, 18. Both a tea leaf and a coffee bean must be toasted to drive off the moisture, which helps to rob it of flavor. Good coffee is packed in vacuum immediately after roasting. Tea is toasted at the tea gardens, then sealed in large chests lined with lead. When it arrives in America it is repacked in ordinary tins or even cardboard boxes. And that's where the damage is done! But this is how Schilling does it. As the tea is poured from the lead-lined chests, it is toasted again, and while still hot (just like your coffee) it is sealed in vacuum. Schilling Tea comes to you as fresh and fragrant as it left the Orient—the only tea that is completely protected from the tea garden to you.

Try a tin! If you do not declare it the most fragrant tea that ever entered your home, phone your grocer. He has been instructed to return your money without question. You keep the tea.
