

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Monday Reception Is Delightful Success

A charming event to open the week's social events was the "open house" and reception for which members of the South division of the First Presbyterian church were hostesses to nearly 150 women Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Estella Ford. The affair was in compliance to Mrs. Ford and her mother, Mrs. Sarah Green, who will leave the last of this week to make their home in Portland after having spent the past several years in Salem during which time they have made a large circle of friends.

The guest rooms of the Ford home were beautifully arranged with holly and its red berries, and Christmas greens. Over all was the soft light of many shaded lamps and in the dining room just the light of yellow tapers. The service table at which presided Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Mrs. T. A. McBride, Mrs. F. A. Marcus and Mrs. L. M. Purvine, was centered with fall flowers in shades of yellow and blanketed on either side with slender yellow tapers.

Dr. Estella Ford Warner had charge of the dining room and assisting her was Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mrs. William Wright, and Mrs. E. E. Ling.

Mrs. Grover Britchett, Mrs. John W. Harbison, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. Charles F. Weller, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. A. L. Brown, and Miss Mildred Carlton assisted Mrs. Ford in the living rooms.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Wells were special guests from Portland. Mrs. Wells, a gold star mother who made the pilgrimage to France this past summer, spoke of experiences in her travels as part of the informal program given in the course of the afternoon hours. Miss Josephine Albert accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Clements, and Wendell Robinson accompanied by Mrs. Rich, sang each a group of solos.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Green were presented with gifts of remembrance from members of the South division by Mrs. John Harbison, now leader of the division. Mrs. Ford led the south division for several years.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Green will make their home at 415 East 54th street, Portland. Dr. Estella Ford Warner, who has been connected with the Marion county health demonstration and unit for the past several years will be with her mother in Portland until after the Christmas holidays and expects to leave the last of December for New York.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
This ravishing little model is extremely smart with its short-sleeved fitted bodice and cunning square yoke. The narrow ruffling adds a dainty touch, although it could be omitted. The skirt is gathered in graceful fullness.

Pattern 2055 may be made of swiss, dimity, batiste, or gingham, or a color dotted in white would be cunning.

May be obtained only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size requires 2 1/2 yds. of 36 in. material. Transfer Pattern 563 makes delightful towel or shelling decoration. It includes 1 3/4 yards of bluebird border, 4 windmill motifs and also scalloped edging. Price Fifteen Cents Additional.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size and simple instructions are given. Send fifty cents in coins (no stamps) for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and city and state. Be sure to state size wanted.

Our new fall and winter fashion book containing complete models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped coverlets is now ready. Price fifteen cents. Book with pattern, 25 cents. Send all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Tuesday, December 16

Writers section of Salem Arts league, Willamette Lodge, 255 North Capitol.
American War Mothers, social and Christmas party, American Lutheran church; each member bring 10 cent toy or non-perishable food to be gift to Salvation Army.

Salem W. C. T. U., 2 o'clock, Union hall, Perry and South Commercial streets; Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, to be speaker at 3 o'clock. Bring donations for Children's farm home.
Business and Professional Women, dinner meeting, 6:30 o'clock, Gray Belle.

Elkots Woman's club guests of Mrs. Henry Carl, 965 E street; Mrs. W. J. Entress assistant hostess.
F. L. E. and F. club, Mrs. Alice Davies, 941 North Cottage street, Mrs. Aazel Hixon, assistant hostess.

Salem Symphony orchestra rehearsal, Y. M. C. A., 7:30 o'clock.
Wednesday, December 17

Past Noble Grand association, Christmas party at home of Miss Eugenia Stigmund, 1396 Lee street, 8:00 o'clock.
Regular business and social meeting, South Circle, First Christian church, Mrs. Otto Headrick, 1705 South Commercial street. Election of officers at 11 o'clock; luncheon at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. W. F. Shank, 1550 South Liberty street, hostess to Women's Foreign Missionary society of Leslie Memorial church.
Mrs. C. E. Ward, hostess to Woman's Union of First Congregational church, 2:30 o'clock, business and election of officers.

Thursday, December 18

Salem Teachers party, Parish junior high school, 8 o'clock, White Elephant party.
United Artisans, Capitol Assembly No. 84, 6:30 o'clock dinner; followed by Christmas tree, fraternal temple.

North Salem W. C. T. U., 2 o'clock, Jason Lee church; Rev. Hugh Fouke, Jr. to speak on "International Relations."
Faculty Women's club, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, 505 North Summer street, 2:30 o'clock.

Mary and Martha circle of First Christian church, 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. M. S. Foster, 577 North 23rd street near Center.
Mrs. W. T. Hickey hostess to Chapter G of P. E. O. sisterhood for Christmas party.

Friday, December 19

Annual Christmas party, Past Matrons association, Mrs. Ida Godfrey.
Mrs. L. C. Hockett, hostess for members of Jason Lee West Side circle of Ladies Aid work committee; 2 o'clock.

Auxiliary to St. Paul's church, guests of Mrs. Frank Durbin, Sr.; election of officers.
Degree of Honor Protective, Woman's clubhouse, 6:30 o'clock covered dish dinner; members and friends invited.

Elks Christmas Card Benefit Tonight

A card benefit party which is attracting much attention is that which will be given tonight at the Elks temple, when both "500" and bridge will be in play at as many tables as there are floors to play. Cards will be played progressively and prizes will be given. Music will enliven the evening hours and the building will be open for inspection for those who have not been through it.

George Henderson and Willard Marshall are in charge of the arrangements. No tables are being reserved but there will be plenty of room for all who care to play. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the Elks Christmas cheer fund.

Faculty Women Are Guests of Mrs. Roberts

Mrs. T. S. Roberts will be hostess to members of the Faculty Women's club of Willamette university Thursday afternoon at her home 505 North Summer street.

Mrs. Roberts will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Daniel Schulse, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, and Mrs. Herbert Rahe.

The December dance for members of the Waterliss dancing club was an attractive event of Friday night. Christmas festivities gave a gay holiday atmosphere to the evening. The committee for arrangements was Mr. and Mrs. Max Abel, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Merriott, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillippi, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wells, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons. Mrs. W. A. Merriott and Mrs. M. Flagg were awarded the prize offered in a feature dance competition. The next dance for the club will be the New Year's eve dance at Castilian hall with Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall in charge of the arrangements.

Independence—The Whist club met at 7 o'clock at the Olson restaurant for a hot dinner on Monday evening.

They were then entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Drexler. High honors went to Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler. Those present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hubbard, Dr. and Mrs. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams, Dr. and Mrs. J. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walker, Mrs. Della Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Skinner and Mrs. Nellie Damon.

The Degree of Honor Protective association will meet Friday night for a 6:30 o'clock covered dish luncheon to which members, families and friends are invited. There will be a program given with cards and a general good time. It is requested that all bring one gift of food or some article which may be given to the needy for a Christmas.

An attractive afternoon is being planned for the members of the Elkots Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Henry Carl with Mrs. W. J. Entress as assistant hostess this afternoon. There will be a one o'clock luncheon followed by a Christmas party.

Miss Martha Gash of Portland, state president of the Business and Professional Women's club, is the week-end house guest of Mrs. Madeline Callin Monday night. They will be guests of the Monmouth Business and Professional Women.

Quiet Marriage is Pretty Event Saturday

Miss Anita Ladd became the bride of John C. Johnston in a simple ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ladd, Saturday with Dr. Earle Parker of the First Methodist church reading the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bridal party took its place to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Thelma Crandall of Silverton. The bride wore an afternoon frock of blue flat crepe with hat and slippers to match, and carried an arm bouquet of rosebuds and chrysanthemums. Mrs. E. Erickson, the bride's only attendant, wore a lace trimmed frock of brown crepe with a felt hat of darker shade, and carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Ernest Beals of Corvallis acted as best man.

Mrs. Charles Felke of Portland, Miss Alice Quarnberg, and Miss Lillie Johnson of Vancouver, Washington, assisted at the reception, which followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston are both former students of Oregon State college where the bride is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and Mr. Johnston a member of Sigma Pi fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will make their home in Portland where Mr. Johnston is connected with the Pacific Fruit express company.

Hickox-McKinney Nuptials Told Sunday

The marriage of Miss Carlotta Hickox and William W. McKinney was quietly solemnized Sunday at 2 o'clock at the country home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKinney, near Turner. Rev. W. Earl Cochran, cousin of the groom, officiated in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. William Rands, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Archie Presnall, sister of the groom, assisted in serving of the wedding dinner which followed the ceremony.

The bride is the oldest daughter of R. H. Hickox of Mapleton, Oregon, and has been stenographer for Carson Bros. for the past three years.

Mr. McKinney is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKinney and is a grandson of the early pioneer, W. W. McKinney. He is a member of the law firm of Young and McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney left on their wedding trip to Seattle and will be at home after the first of the year at 2333 State street.

Mrs. W. T. Hickey Will Be Hostess

One of the outstandingly lovely members of the year for members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood is the annual Christmas party which this year will be at the home of Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Thursday afternoon of this week.

An surprise program is being arranged and there will also be Christmas responses to roll call for which each member is to be prepared. An exchange of gifts and a tea hour will conclude the Thursday afternoon party.

Woodburn.—Many beautiful and useful gifts were given to Miss Wilma Trullinger Friday night when many of her friends gathered at the home of Mrs. E. G. Richards for a gift shower. It had been announced that Miss Trullinger will marry Howard Richards December 26.

The evening was spent in games. Refreshments were served later.

Those who attended the shower were Mrs. and Mrs. T. Sprouse, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Witham, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Belcher, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Cook, Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Harrington, Joyce Jones, Charles Thompson, Charles Gould, Agnes Richards, Mr. and Mrs. G. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Trullinger.

A business and social meeting will be enjoyed by members of the P. L. E. and F. club at the home of Mrs. Alice Davies, 941 North Cottage street, Mrs. Aazel Hixon will be the assistant hostess for this meeting.

Members of the Mary and Martha circle of the First Christian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. M. S. Foster at her home, 577 North 23rd street. The meeting will begin at 2:30 o'clock.

The Auburn Woman's club will meet Thursday, December 18, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Armstrong, on the Fruitland road. The newly-elected officers will have charge of the meeting.

Bethel.—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson of Central Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards of Salem spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Freeman.

GIVE BANQUET TO NORMAL TEAM

MONMOUTH, Ore., Dec. 15.—The Oregon Normal school's football contingent, Coaches Wolfe and Cox, President J. S. Landers and other authorities of the school banqueted together Friday evening at the Monmouth hotel, as a holiday festivity, and in commemoration of a successful season just completed.

Civic club members and their husbands and guests enjoyed a benefit dinner party Friday evening at the Legion hall.

The Golden Rule class of the Christian church Sunday school observed an annual holiday dinner-party Friday evening at the church. Thirty-seven enjoyed the affair, each one bringing a Christmas gift for the orphanage at Eugene which is conducted under auspices of this denomination. A program of entertainment was a pleasant concluding feature of the evening.

H. W. Hagemeyer who underwent an operation at a Salem hospital this week, is reported to be improving satisfactorily. Mrs. E. Simpson who has been critically ill at her home for several weeks was taken to a Salem hospital for observation and treatment this week. Her son and daughter-in-law have been visiting her returned to their home at Payette, Idaho.

STAYTON LIONS PLAN DIVERSION

STAYTON, Dec. 15.—The Lions club are sponsoring a move for more adequate entertainment for the young people of this community, and a committee consisting of Dave John, W. A. Weddie and Edward J. Bell have been appointed to see what can be done along this line. It is hoped the other organization in town will take a part in the most worthy cause.

"The Clay's the Thing" the Stayton high school student body play, has been postponed until some time after Christmas. It is said that this play is one with many humorous situations. No doubt will receive a good patronage from the people of this community.

It is rumored that there will be several business establishments change quarters in the very near future. C. S. Taylor and A. F. Schindler and completing the north room in their new business block, and it is said that this will be occupied by the Stayton bakery. W. G. Klecker plans to move into the room vacated by Baker's and C. O. M. Baker will likely move into his building on Third street and use the room vacated by Klecker as a show room for Chevrolet.

LINCOLN HOME IS HOST TO HIKERS

LINCOLN, Dec. 15.—The Gus Lake home was the scene of a very enjoyable party Saturday night, when a group of Willamette university women, members of the athletic association, hiked at from Salem, loaded with blankets and food for breakfast. They arrived in the early evening, and games and music were enjoyed until after midnight, when away they hied to the barn, and for a sleep in the hay.

Those making the trip were the Misses Mary White, Muriel White, Edith Clemens, Arline Keys, Gladys Jorgenson, Wanda Veatch, Esther Arnold, Olga Janik, Cecile Adams, Marion Morange, Nellie Badley, Margarette Mosier, Mary Rizzell, Gertrude Bear, Helen Stiles, Isabelle Morehouse, Edith Morange, Louise Sidwell, Echo Balderes, Alice Hummel, Ruth Geer, Ed Vannice and Mrs. Helen Munk.

Mrs. George A. White will be hostess this afternoon to members of the O. T. club and a few additional guests at her home on Bellevue street.

CHARLES PADDOCK AND BRIDE

Charles W. Paddock, "the world's fastest human," former U. S. C. track star and internationally famous sprinter, acquired a running mate when he promised to love, honor and cherish Mrs. Neva Prisk Malaby, of Pasadena. The couple were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Prisk. Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding supper was laid, following which the newlyweds left for an unannounced destination for a short honeymoon. Photo shows Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paddock.

Bits For Breakfast

(Continued from page 4)

deer, but night and morning I milked my string of 12 of them. We sold the butter for 50 cents a pound and it was sent to the California mines. We got 50 cents a pound for all the bacon we cured. We saved from our butter and bacon that summer better than $500.

"My brother Marcus and I were chums. I thought anything he did was just right. We fought each other's battles and were very devoted to each other. When the Yakima Indians war came on they wanted recruits, so he volunteered. I didn't want him to go for father had been killed in the Cayuse war, and I thought our family had shown patriotism enough, but Mark felt he should go, so I did all I could to help get him ready."

(Continued tomorrow.)

Take in Members At North Howell

NORTH HOWELL, Dec. 15.—Regular grange, meeting for North Howell grange 274 was held in their hall Friday evening with every officer present, six visitors and 80 home members.

This number included five who were reinstated, viz.: Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rickard, Edna Manning, John Russ and Lester Waltman and 18 others who were given the first and second degrees. These included Maxine Phillips, Pauline, Victoria and Tessa Sladler, Mr. and Mrs. Holter Mickelson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pickens, Joe Garbarino, M. A. Susse, Ward Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Woelke, Violet Ramsby, Ida Peterson, Effie Waltman, Zan Esson, Mike Holter and Kenneth Brown.

Holdover elections resulted as follows: musician, Mrs. George Vinton; trustee to serve for three years, Earl Harmon; degree team captain, R. H. Drake; manager of baseball team, Sam Gottenburg.

Resolutions were approved endorsing the resolution regarding the cream grading law which was passed by the Monitor grange, and the resolution regarding the appropriation for the Pacific International show which was passed by Salem grange.

27 Counties to Share in Funds Of Timber Sale

Twenty-seven Oregon counties will participate in the distribution of $191,772.64 in federal forestry funds this year, according to word received Monday by Governor Norblad from the United States department of Agriculture. The amount represents 25 per cent of the gross receipts from rentals and timber sales from lands included in national forests in this state and will be prorated among the counties on the basis of the area of national forest land included in their boundaries. The amount is more than $70,000 short of the 1929 distribution which totalled $265,025.

THESE Books formerly sold at $2.50 to $5.00 in the original editions.

Here are some suggestive titles, in non-fiction:

Royal Road to Romance
Well's Outline of History
Durant Story of Philosophy
Lincoln's Own Stories
The Log of the Sun
A Vagabond's Journey Around the World
Six Years in the Malay Jungles
Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin
New Dialogue of Science
Revolt in the Desert
Abraham Lincoln—Charwood
Disraeli and Gladstone
Trader Horn
Why We Misbehave
Scouting on Two Continents
Rasputin—The Holy Devil
The Son of Man—The Story of Jesus

We have many more titles. Come in and make your selection now.

Remember these books are only $1.00.

The Commercial Book Store
A. A. GUFFROY
163 N. Com'l Tel. 84
Open Evenings Until Christmas

SALEM PEOPLE VISIT RICKREALL

RICKREALL, Dec. 15.—Mr. Charles Cady and Lavern Cady of Salem were visitors at the Rickreall Sunday school on Sunday morning. Mr. Cady had charge of the exhibition work of Sunday schools at the state fair and his talk on the subject was very interesting.

Mrs. Hannah Clayton who has been ill for some time is slightly improving though slowly as "Grandma" as she is called by everyone, is well up in her nineties. She has lived a long time in and near Rickreall and her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Lewis of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pence. Mrs. Lewis are old time friends and schoolmates of Mrs. Pence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wedekind of Monmouth were Sunday visitors at the home of the ladies' mother, Mrs. J. E. Ragsdale. LaVerne Burch and Alice Burch Shott were over Sunday guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Burch. Mr. Frank Fawc left Tuesday evening for southern California to be gone for several weeks on business. He expects to visit old Mexico before his return as his business takes him within a few miles of the border.

T. W. Burch left Saturday night for Kennewick, Washington where he expects to work for several weeks. He will be at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moleson.

Mr. I. A. Dempsey and son Lynn returned the first of the week from a business trip to Bend.

Women are better students than men, Dean C. R. Melcher of the University of Kentucky, has concluded after a survey.

A quality you would insist upon if you knew all of the facts.

Fresh Tea

What a rare discovery when coffee was first packed in vacuum! Just like coffee flavor, tea flavor also evaporates from an ordinary tin or cardboard box. But now tea is packed in vacuum—and what a difference! When you try it you will know what you have missed all these years.

Schilling

If you can't afford to go to Florida or Southern California for the Winter...to play in the sun...don't fret! Here's a sunlight you can take into the home and enjoy every day! Especially if there are children, you will find this gift one of value that can not be overestimated. It is regulated, safe and health-building—sun lamps.

Priced $35.00 up

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY

1707 N. Commercial

Salem, Ore.

Whether in Soviet Russia or right here in your home town, should your Longines need a new hairspring or any of its parts repaired or exchanged you can have the work properly done. Sold in seventy countries, Longines are backed the World over by a complete repair service. We have a fine selection of these famous watches in our store, let's tell you more about them. They are reasonably priced from $35.00 up.

POMEROY & KEENE
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS
378 State Street—Next to Postal Telegraph

Just say HONEY BREAD