

PRESENT COMEDY AT ST. LUKE'S HALL

Woodburn Community Features Play Two Nights This Week

WOODBURN, Dec. 16—Thursday and Friday night, Dec. 18 and 19, in the community hall at Woodburn, the St. Luke's parish will stage the collegiate comedy "Aunt Lucia." This production promises to be one of the outstanding events of the season. It has been staged in The Dalles, Oregon City, Hood River, Dallas and McKinville and has proven a great success.

The play proper deals with a story of the homecoming of Bula Bula College. The setting of the play takes place in a fraternity room. The whole story revolves around the school's anxiously awaiting the arrival of an old maid, Aunt Lucia Wakefield, who is worth fifty million dollars and who plans to give the school a large sum of money. She is to be the honored guest at the homecoming of Bula Bula College and is an aunt of one of the girls.

Jerry Watson, played by Victor Kelly, one of the college boys, with the help of his roommates, Dick and George, played by Edwin Becker and Earl Houswaert, dresses himself as an old lady for the entertainment of his fellow fraternity brothers, and while dressed in that outfit is mistaken for Lucia Wakefield, by Prof. Gaddis and Dean Howard, played by Dr. Fitzgerald and Blanche Campbell, and they immediately introduce him as such. Once in this dilemma it is impossible to explain without getting himself in bad and he is carried throughout the story masquerading as Lucia Wakefield, while in reality he is only Jerry Watson.

Around this character playing the part of the fake Aunt Lucia, the fun and comical situations of the play develop. Prof. Gaddis and the Butler and Egg Man, played by Dr. Gerald Smith, and Mr. Collins, played by Edward Meier, all fall in love with this fake Aunt Lucia and try to marry her. Their proposal scenes are very flowery, insistent and funny. Instantly Jerry finds himself playing the part of the old lady, makes love to the other boys' girls, enjoys the proposals of the men and generally adds to the fun and comedy of the play. In the end the real Lucia Wakefield wires the money and Jerry confesses, and he also wins back his girl who has been stepping around with the college sheik. The three college girls, Beily, Molly and Ethel, played by Helen Allen, Mathilde Gilles and Elfa Lytle, Dr. Seamore, played by Elmer Klamp, and Mrs. Seamore, played by Helen Kowash. Two comedy characters are the two freshmen played by Ralph Nibler and Albert Kowash, the fraternal duo, played by George Becker, vice club president, Frank Du-
 There is the college glee club composed of business men who go back to the good old days and sing many very funny songs.

The college flappers, composed of men dressed up as ladies of the evening, are one of the high spots in the play.

The girls' chorus of high school girls is very fine and will give color to the play. Then there are special musical numbers.

All in all, it is a very well rounded out show and no one can afford to miss the play.

NEW SECRETARY FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Silverton Club Holds December Meeting--Christmas Features

SILVERTON, Ore., December 16—Mrs. James Manning was chosen as the secretary of the Silverton Woman's club at its December meeting held Monday afternoon in the social room of the Methodist church. Mrs. Manning is filling the vacancy left by Mrs. E. V. Johns who recently moved to Salem.

The room was beautifully decorated, a Christmasy motive being carried out. Poinsettias and cyclamens, loaned by C. W. Cross were placed about the room.

Mrs. George Hubbs, president of the club, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. John T. Hoblit reported on the cemetery committee. Mrs. Hubbs reported in reference to this that she had just spoken with Mayor Eastman who had promised to bring the matter up at the next meeting of the common council, and would do all in his power to give the cemetery thorough going over and thus giving employment to some of Silverton's unemployed.

Mrs. Hubbs also mentioned the city library which she referred to as "the club's oldest child." The club started, and is still doing much to maintain, Silverton's public library.

One of the most important committee reports was that of the welfare committee, Mrs. F. M. Powell, chairman of the Women's club welfare committee which is working with the city committee, gave a splendid report on this work. She reported that 400 articles had been placed from the Good Will depot Saturday. At the close of Mrs. Powell's report, Mrs. Hubbs gave an interesting picture of her one day spent at the Good Will depot.

The program committee had planned as a surprise to Mrs. Hubbs to have her son, Ronald, speak on his recent visit in Europe at the November meeting. At that time young Hubbs was at Eugene and failed to return to Silverton in time to speak, much to the disappointment of club members. Mrs. Hubbs explained at the Monday meeting that his failure to appear proved to be because of illness.

Mrs. Hubbs further said that her son had mentioned a very fine compliment given to the Women's clubs by Frederick Libby who was a fellow passenger with Hubbs on his return from Europe. One day Hubbs had asked Mr. Libby what could be done to prevent war. "America has
