

22 Games Booked for High School Quintet This Season

ALUMNI TEAM FIRST ON LIST

Five man Defense Used by Huntington; Kitchen is Pivotal man

Twenty-two games have been definitely arranged for Salem high's basketball team this season in addition to the games which will be played in the state tournament. Ten or twelve more games will be scheduled to keep the team busy all season.

The trip to Marshfield and other coast towns could not be arranged so an effort is being made to get games with Portland high schools. If this fails the team will probably go to Portland for a series of games with the Multnomah club. Mark Sachtler, manager, feels confident that he can schedule ten or twelve more first class games.

The season will get under way Tuesday of next week when the annual alumni game will be played at the high school gymnasium. This game will be one of the prominent events of the school year as a homecoming program is always arranged for the day with a special assembly devoted to the alumni. Another feature which will add interest to the game will be "Fussler's Night" which is the traditional night when all boys date girls and take them to the game and to a show or dance afterward. The S. club is giving a public dance at the Crystal Gardens after the game and the crowd will celebrate the homecoming occasion there.

Strong Alumni Team Ready
A strong team will represent the alumni in the game Tuesday with such players as Adams, Duffy, two of the Sigmund boys, two of the Dragger boys, Beecher, Kafury and Lyons all planning to be in town. West of last year's team will also appear with the former stars and play his first game against his alma mater.

Coach "Holly" Huntington is using a five man offense this season since all of his players handle the ball well and are good slingers. Kitchen will act as pivot man on offense and is clever and deceptive with the ball as well as being a good long shot artist. Well organized team work is required to play this style of ball but it is very effective for a team which does not depend on one or two men to do it all. Another advantage is that it is not so tiring to play this style of basketball and will be a help in playing such a tough schedule.

The first string lineup has not been definitely chosen yet since all the lettermen are going good and about equal in ability. Kitchen and Sanford, all state men from last season, will probably be regular players again this year. Sigmund who broke into the lineup and went so strong in the state tournament last March, is going good and is a dead shot close to the basket. Sigmund is being worked at the center and is showing up well there, displaying a lot of jumping ability. Providing he can acquire the aggressiveness some of the other men have, he will make Salem high a wonderful man this season.

Mark Sachtler has been handicapped all season with a bad foot and has had an operation on it. Sachtler has been able to practice most of the time but has had to take it a bit easy. His size and strength in addition to his remarkable ability to handle the ball have made him a brilliant guard. Taking the ball of the backboard is his specialty and his continuous fight carries him through many pinches. Foreman is another of the lettermen who will represent Salem high this season and is especially valuable for his accurate passing ability. His long passes on the gridiron will be changed to short, snappy, deceptive passes on the court.

Bones Makes Improvement
Johnny Bones has improved more than any other letterman and has added much speed to his playing. Bones is faster, a better shot and better in every department of the game than he was last season. West is the other letterman on the squad and has acquired much skill at shooting. Brownell, Carlin, Kelly and Bowden are reserves who are showing up well and who will stand a good chance of making the squad when it is cut.

The games scheduled so far in addition to the tournament games are:
Dec. 23—Alumni at Salem.
Jan. 3—Silverton at Salem.
Jan. 6—Portland Celts at Salem.
Jan. 9—Oregon City at Oregon City.
Jan. 10—Eugene at Salem.
Jan. 16—Woodburn at Woodburn.
Jan. 17—Tillamook at Salem.
Jan. 23—Chenewa at Salem.
Jan. 24—U. of O. Frosh at Salem.
Jan. 26—Corvallis at Salem.
Jan. 27—Oregon City at Salem.
Jan. 30—Astoria at Astoria.
Jan. 31—Longview or Seaside there.
Feb. 3—Portland Celts at Portland.
Feb. 6—Albany at Salem.
Feb. 7—Tillamook at Tillamook.
Feb. 10—Eugene at Eugene.
Feb. 11—Corvallis at Corvallis.

BODY SHOP TEAM RISES IN LEAGUE

Commercial Body Shop bettered its position materially in Commercial league last night by winning two out of three games from Pleaser Electric, 321, 831, 784 to 800, 729, 820. No clean sweeps were made by any team.

General Petroleum team did much better than usual and won two out of three from Wood-Whetson, 679, 859, 833 to 760, 720, 779. Chevrolet Club also won two out of three from Pacific Telephone, 780, 890, 907 to 839, 772, 827.

The Cubs' 907 and 2577 were high team game and series, respectively. Captain Allen, of Chevries, scored high individual series, 580. DeMeritt, and Brown, his teammates rolled high games of 236 and 235.

Kummer, Jockey Who Rode Man o' War, Succumbs

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Clarence Kummer, whose heels booted the Great Man o' War home and drove some of America's finest thoroughbreds to victory less than a decade ago, died of pneumonia today at his home at Jamaica, Queens. He had been ill only a week. He was 31 years old.

Kummer, one of the outstanding jockeys of his time, was driving from the saddle by increasing weight three years ago after a career stretching from his apprentice days in 1915 through triumphs in almost every important stake on American tracks.

Crimson Tide to Start Today on Way to Pasadena

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 18.—(AP)—With a final drill beneath drab skies, Alabama's Crimson Tide today put aside cleats and moccasins until December 23, when work will be resumed at Pasadena, Calif. There will be a rousing send-off tomorrow as the Tide rolls westward to engage Washington State as Pasadena in the Rose Bowl New Year's day. It is Alabama's third trip to the west coast. In six years.

The Tide was in fine fettle except for John McKinnell. BUCKAROOS BEAT SEATTLE PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 18.—(AP)—The Portland Buckaroos moved up two points in the Pacific Coast Hockey league standings tonight by defeating Seattle, 4 to 2. The victory placed Portland and Vancouver, B. C., in a tie for first place.

WESTERN MEN ON STAR TEAM

Collier's Honor Pinckert, Beckett, Hein on New Selection of Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Selections for Collier's All-American football team, which is a perpetuation of the original All-American founded by Walter Camp, were announced today. The players chosen are:

BACKS: Carideo, Notre Dame, Quarter back; Pinckert, Southeastern, Half back; Heintz, Michigan, Half back; Dodd, Tennessee, Half back; Macaluso, Colgate, Full back.
ENDS: Dalrymple, Tulane Fester, Ohio State.
LINE: Sington, Alabama, Tackle; Rhea, Nebraska, Tackle; Koch, Baylor, Guard; Beckett, California, Guard; Ticknor, Harvard, Center.

Two additional players are named as "utility men."—Hein of Washington State, utility lineman; and Miller of Southern California as utility back.

"There have been stronger All-American teams than this one," comments the selection committee, "but few that had so many who were all-round stars. Ticknor and Dodd have been among the best for three years. Team inspirations as well as great football players. The same is true of Hein. Certainly no one team ever had two smarter men in the backfield than Carideo and Dodd, who can be listed among the smartest backs football has yet known."

Ticknor and Carideo are the only names on this year's list who also appeared on the All-American last year. Ticknor last year had the highest percentage rating of any man on the team, and this year he is tied with Fessler for the same honor, receiving a percentage of 92.5. The other players were rated as follows: Hein, 91.7; Carideo, 91.4; Sington and Dodd, 90.8 all others 90.

Some of the most promising candidates for all-American honors were cut down in their percentage ratings by weak schedules, by lack of complete all-round talent by injury or by accident or else by some lapse in an important game.

Fessler Highly Honored
One of the hardest selections, it is stated, was the end assignment, with Fessler, Dalrymple and Gabbert leading the field. "Fessler," the judges state, "was probably the best football player of the year but the race between Dalrymple and Baker was nip and tuck, and the decision was finally given to the one who finished a trifle stronger, Baker was a star end, one of the best."

"One of the most important requirements demanded from this team was hard, accurate and skillful blocking. Notre Dame proved the value of this important fundamental in most of its games through the year. A great blocker is nearly always a great football player. There is almost no exception. Great ball carriers are easier to find and develop, but they must have the necessary blocking or they would never be great ball carriers."

"The finest proof of this was shown in the Army-Notre Dame game, where Schwartz was frequently stopped at the line of scrimmage. Suddenly five of his mates gave him perfect blocking and he ran 54 yards for a touchdown. Without this blocking he could not have run 54 inches with the field as it was."

"This element of blocking is often overlooked by those who watch only the progress of the ball. But it is a big part of football and the most important fundamental on any team. This fact was given large consideration in naming the team. Those selected were among the best blocking backs of the year."

Backs Must Be Versatile
"It must be remembered also that an all-American back must be able to do many things well, not merely star in one or two lines. No one team ever had two such deadly kickers as Carideo and Dodd, who have made a habit of kicking out of bounds from the five to the two-yard line. They were both snipers at this work, close to Kipke of Michigan renown. This is one of the most important features of any good kicking game."

"Dodd was the best passer of the year, a great passer in every contest. More than once he beat stronger opponents with his right arm and his head.

Rickreall Quint Puts Skids Under Parrish Players

Willamette Five to Begin Season Tonight in Game With Multnomah Quintet

Starting Lineups: Multnomah: F. Williams, Bolstead, F. Adams, Adams, C. Cardinal, Edwards, G. Gibson, Gunther, G. Carpenter

The "Bearcats" will start their 1930-31 basketball schedule at Willamette gymnasium tonight when they meet the Multnomah club hoop artists.

The Multnomah club will have an advantage over the "Bearcats" in the matter of experience as the Portland team has played two games with U. of O. and two with O. S. C. as well as a number of games with other strong teams in the northwest. The Multnomah clubmet are always heady players and are mostly previous college stars. Perhaps the best known of these former collegiate stars is Jerry Gunther who played for Billy Rinehart during the two seasons when Oregon held the championship for the northern division of the Pacific coast conference.

Last year Willamette and the Multnomah club divided honors for the winter season. However the first game was played when "Spec" was away and his team could not get going. Five lettermen will take the floor against the clubmen tonight and show the men from the city what kind of ball is played in Salem. Cardinal has returned to practice and with Adams and Coates will form the famous scoring combination which kept the hoops hot for the last two seasons. Adams has become more shifty and deceptive this season and is a dead shot. Scales has improved his team play and is even fiercer than he has been before. When George gets "on" it is too bad for the opposing guards.

Gibson Going Fine
Gibson has improved markedly in every detail since last season and is especially good on tip off plays. Gibson played regularly last year and is working with the team. Carpenter will receive the call at guard and will cover the forwards who attempt to make short pokes at the net. Carpenter is another valuable man on tip off plays and drives into the basket with plenty of power.

Moore, Faber, Harman, Baldere, Paul, Kaiser, Kloostra and Begg will be ready to go into the game at any time and have shown plenty of strength in practice. "Andy" Peterson will be unable to play as his foot is in a cast and must be rested for a week or more. Wilson is also out with a bad foot and will not be in suit.

Greenleaf Drops big Lead As Title-Seeker Keeps Rally Going

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Erwin Rudolph of Chicago won the world's pocket billiards championship tonight, defeating Ralph Greenleaf of New York, defending champion, 121 to 120, in the deciding match of the tournament.

Rudolph's triumph over the champion gave him a final tournament record of seven victories and no defeats. Greenleaf, dominating figure in pocket billiards for a decade, finished with five triumphs in seven starts.

Rudolph held the title once before, beating Greenleaf in a challenge match here in January, 1927. He was beaten four months later by Tommy Hueston. Last year in the Detroit tournament, Rudolph won his first six games but lost to Greenleaf on the final night, the championship ending in a deadlock. Greenleaf then repeated his victory over Rudolph in the playoff to capture the title.

Dallas High in Win From Quint Of Springfield
DALLAS, Dec. 18.—(Special)—Using its new shift on offense and breaking fast on defense, Dallas high school basketball team beat a barnstorming team from Springfield high 19 to 11 here tonight. Score at halftime was Dallas 10, Springfield 7.

The Springfield team is slated to play against Monmouth high school there Friday night.

Carnera in Easy Win Over Meen, British Mauler

LONDON, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, the Italian mountain, brushed aside the puny efforts of Reggie Meen, English heavyweight, in less than two rounds at Albert hall tonight. The referee stopped the fight after Meen had been floored twice in the second round. Meen, an English youth of 203 pounds, was game enough and received a great ovation for his efforts in the first round when he held the 265-pound Venetian on fairly even terms.

Silverton Plays Molalla Today

SILVERTON, Dec. 18.—Silverton high school basketball boys will meet the Molalla team Friday at Molalla for its second game of the season. The game will be a doubleheader, both Silverton's first and second teams playing. Last Friday Silverton defeated Colton at Colton with a score of 37 to 26.

Pasadena Golf Tourney is on

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 18.—(AP)—Southern California's winter season of open golf tournaments, short of three of its scheduled meets opens here over the municipal course tomorrow when 180 professionals and amateurs tee off in the annual $4,000 three-day medal play.

BAER AND SCHAAF TO TRADE PUNCHES

By EDWARD J. NEIL Associated Press Sport Writer NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(AP)—A couple of heavyweights from the sophomore class, Max Baer of San Francisco, and Ernie Schaaf of Boston, will grab the spotlight in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night to display what brand of power and ability, if any, lurks in the youngsters of the division.

Baer, a 200-pound puncher with a record of 24 knockouts in 27 matches, is new to eastern rings, and Schaaf, a former sailor with more experience, has never appeared before in the Garden. Schaaf is a protege of Jack Sharkey and holds two decisions over Tommy Loughran. Sharkey is scheduled to second him tomorrow night.
