Refunding Bond

For Irrigation

Okeyed by "Al"

Governor Norblad yesterday sent a telegram to Oregon's delegation in congress urging their support of an amendment to the so-called Smith bill, which provides that irrigation as well as drainage districts shall receive federal financial aid. The governor said the amendment would prove of material benefit to Ore-

Representative Hawley replied probably would be recommended by the irrigation committee.

The preposed amendment provides that bonds issued by districts may be purchased by the federal government on a 4 per ie and legal points of view before loans were authorized. The secretary also would have to be sat-isfled that the loan could be paid

Thursday that the amendm gon's irrigation districts.
